Rational Amusement.

Henry Ward Beecher lectured in Boston the other evening, on this theme. He injures the participant. Every man should learn to select and discriminate pleasure by his own experience. Where is the man that eats a certain article of food because it suits the digestion of his neighbor? What man when taken ill, sends to the apothecary and asks him to furnish the last prescription he put up for some other man! Every man should select his amusement according to his temper, circumstances of life, etc. By so doing he will be a better citizen, a better be a part of the duty of the Church to see that people are hanny, and he hoped to that people are happy, and he hoped to see the day. Young Men's Christian Associations would be provided with nine pins, chess, and billiards, so that the members might play without liquor, and under Christian and elevating influences. Amusements should be social. Home should be made rich and bright and attractive as possible, so that children will not feel that any place is happier than home,"

Grant and the Office-Tenure Law. There can be no doubt at all that Gen. Grant desires the repeal of the Tenure-of-Office law. He feels that so long as it remains upon the Statute-book he will be unnecessarily hampered and restricted in purging the branches of the Government service of corrupt and dishonest officials, who, having got into power by appoint-ment of Mr. Johnson, or the complacency of the Benate, are now able to command footman to show him out, and never to influential supporters in the latter body. Gen. Grant said that, so far as he knew, every thief in the Government employ and every "ring" which is engaged in de-bauching legislation, wanted the law to stand as it is. Referring to the objection made by some that to repeal the law now. would amount to a confession that it was Dassed solely to embarrass Mr. Johnson. Gen. Grant remarked that this was undoubtedly, the object Congress had in view-the preservation of the parity of the public service against the inroads of the public service against the inroads of rascality and incompetency, and he saw nothing in that fact of which any man need to be ashamed.—[Correspondence Newark Courier.
