Impudence. - Yesterday morning a stranger walked into Quigley's grocery on Grant street, and coolly picked up the poker and carried it off.

There are one hundred and forty pris oners confined in the county jail. Like an omnibus or street car, however, there is always room for a few more.

Altegeu Larceny.-Justice Miller, of Harrison township, yesterday commit-ted Patrick Gallagher to jail on an in-formation for larceny. The offense con-consisted in carrying off a number of books and slates from the district school honse house.

Committeed.—Silas M. Crishin, a resi committeed. Silas M. Crishin, a resi-dent of Washington, Pa., was commit-ted to jail yesterday by United States Commissioner Gamble for trial, on a charge of solling and carrying on the business of a retail dealer in liquors without the necessary government h-cense. Coroner's luquest.-Coroner Clawson Coroner's luquest.—Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body of Peter Deppart, who died suddenly at his resi-dence, en First street, Allegheny, Mon-day morning, an account of which we published yesterday. The jury found that the deceased came to his death from natural causes. natural causes.

Taken Over.-Wm. Porter and Wm. Taken Over.-Wm. Forter and Wm. Simpson, both convicted of horse steal-ing and sentenced to one year each in the Western Penitentiary, were taken over to that institution yesterday after-noon. Porter has already become ac-quainted with the officers of the Penitentiary, having served a couple of terms there heretofore.
