RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The annual meeting of the Book Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, comprising fifteen ministers, appointed by the General Conference for the term of four years, has just been held in New York city.

The South Congregational church of Hartford, Conn., has adopted a liturgical form of worship, including the Te Deum.

The Independent closes a lengthy paragraph on Sabbath Schools, with the statement of the interesting fact that John Wesley, during his visit to America in the years 1736-37, forty years before Baileys' first Sabbath School, set apart a portion of the Sabbath afternoon to meet the children belonging to his mission in Savannah, Ga., for catechetical and scriptural instruction.

The murder of Dr. Burdell is discovered, according to his circumstantial confession, and all the probabilities of the case to have been the same Charles Jeffers, who afterwards killed John Walton and John Matthews, and who was himself murdered by a fellow-convict at Auburn about a year ago.

Jeffers' declaration is all the more convincing in that it does not release Mrs. Cunningham from the charge of complicity in the murder.

It is estimated that full one thousand members of the Greek Church are in California, emigrants from Russia.

This Presbyterian represents Dr. Brook's Presbyterian church at St. Louis, Mo., as having contributed not less than eight thousand dollars, in weekly installments of ten cents, twenty-five cents, fifty cents, one dollar, five and ten dollars, "as God hath prospered" each member.

Friday, the twenty-sixth instant, is the day set apart by the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly, for prayer for institutions of learning. It is recommended that the day be consecrated to prayer and almsgiving.

The following question has been propounded to the Presbyterian by "A Subscriber": "Is it consistent with the position of a ruling elder in our (Presbyterian) church to give a dancing party?"

The editor answers No. Newton Baptist Seminary, started in 1835, has had a wonderful career of success. There have been five hundred and sixteen graduates, of whom thirty-eight have been foreign missionaries, and one hundred and twenty-four have died.

Quite an extensive revival of religion has been in progress for some time in the Baptist church in Salem, New Jersey. One hundred and thirty persons have been baptized since the revival commenced. The work still continues.

The Congregational churches in Kansas are adopting female office-bearing as well as female suffrage. Thus one Mrs. Wood is clerk of the church in Cottonwood Falls, and another Mrs. Wood holds the same office in Lowell, while in Wapawsee Mrs. N. H. Jones has been elected deaconess.

Some idea of the grandeur of the work of the American Bible Society may be gathered from the proceedings of the late monthly meeting of the Board, which is a fair sample of the usual work of three hundred and forty volumes, besides others to the amount of three hundred and fifty dollars.

The Israelite, the organ of the Jews at Cincinnati, advocates the observance of a day of rest, a real Sabbath, which can be observed by all Israel, and suggests that that day set apart by hundreds of millions, may the whole civilized world, for physical rest and the worship of God.

Bishop Simpson gives some startling news in regard to the atrocities of the Texans, in his letter to the New York Christian Advocate. He gives two or three instances of cold-blooded murder. He writes, a few of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church were one evening assembled to hold a prayer meeting. A band of men surrounded the house, ordered the men, five in number, to come out, and shot them down in cold blood.

The receipts of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions for the first nine months of the fiscal year amount to one hundred and fifty-three thousand four hundred and seven dollars, being less than twenty-eight thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight dollars from the same time the previous year.

The President hesitates to veto the Copper Tariff Bill, and the indication is that it will become a law.

The Ohio river bridge question was brought up in Committee to enable three persons from Steubenville to make their statement concerning that structure. They did not believe it was an obstacle to navigation, and thought the location as good as any other proposed for similar bridges.

The decision of the Supreme Court on gold contracts made before the passage of the legal tender act, does not affect the act or contracts made since; but it is regarded as a slight indication of the opinions of a majority of the Court on questions relating to the legal tender.
