CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Six Drunks made their appearance at Mayor Drum's levee yesterday morning. The majority of them went from thence to jail.

Notice.—The Postoffice will be open to-day (22d) from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 2 to 3 P. M., for the benefit of the business men of the city.

Re-Union.—The members of No. 9, I. O. O. F., intending to participate in the re-union, will meet at Alderman Humbert's office, Fourth avenue, this evening at eight o'clock.

Council Meetings.—Pittsburgh Councils will hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 2 P. M.

A special meeting of the Allegheny Councils will be held this evening at 7 P. M., to consider the sewerage question.

Committed for Trial.—John Sullivan, charged with setting fire to the Pittsburgh Glass Works, in Birmingham, January 25th, had a final hearing before Fire Marshall Murphy, Saturday, and was committed to jail for trial.

Two Informations.—Ann Kelly alleges that Eveline Myers attacked, and beat her without provocation, and threatened to do her bodily harm. The parties reside on Locust street, near Magee. The accused was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Lynch and gave bail for a hearing.

Paid Fire Department.—The Vigilant Fire Company held a meeting on Saturday evening, at which a committee was appointed to present to Councils a protest against the proposition to take the property belonging to the volunteer Fire Companies for the use of the paid Fire Department, without remuneration.

Killed on the Railroad.—Between nine and ten o'clock Saturday night, the body of William Johnson, a coal miner, was found on the Pennsylvania railroad between Wilkinsburg and Homewood, terribly mutilated, indicating that a train had passed over it. Coroner Clawson was notified yesterday morning and proceeded to hold an inquest upon it. After swearing the jury the inquest adjourned to meet at Wilkinsburg at 12 o'clock M. to-day.

Larceny.—Thomas Dunn, a boy about fifteen years old, was arrested on Saturday night on a charge of larceny, preferred by John Reiseck, of Reiseck & Bro., machinists on Seventeenth street, Tenth ward. For some time past a number of articles have been stolen from the establishment, and on Saturday the boy Dunn was caught carrying off an iron coupling, and was arrested and taken to the lock-up. He subsequently procured bail for a hearing and was released.

Wife Whipper.—James Kelly was brought before Alderman Donaldson on Saturday afternoon, on an information for assault and battery preferred against him by his wife. The parties reside in the Ninth ward. The woman alleges that James has been in the habit of abusing her of late, and exhibited a long gash across the right side of her head, which she stated was inflicted by James with a chair. The accused gave bail for a hearing on Wednesday next.

Vagrants Jailed.—Saturday evening about eleven o'clock, the Allegheny police arrested four young men and two notorious vagrants, Jennie Taylor and Betty Riley, in a brick yard in the Second ward. At the hearing yesterday, Mayor Drum committed the women to jail for thirty days each, and fined the men ten dollars each. Three paid the fine and the fourth, in default, was sent to jail. We suppress the names of the young men out of regard to their parents, who occupy a respected position in society.

Alleged Larceny.—Chas. McGraw made information before Alderman McMasters, Saturday evening, against Barney Laverty for larceny. The parties have been employed at Lindsay's Mill in Allegheny, and Laverty seems to have been in the habit of collecting the wages of both and paying McGraw, who was helper at one of the furnaces, the amount due him, afterwards. On Saturday morning McGraw alleges that Laverty as usual collected the money, but was discharged by the firm, and neglected to pay him his share of the amount, hence the suit. A warrant was issued.

Sudden Death.

Coroner Clawson was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of Wm. M. Davis, who died suddenly at his residence at Woods' Run, on Saturday evening. Mr. D., who was employed at the works of the Superior Iron Company, returned from his work and retired to bed at an early hour Saturday evening, apparently in his usual health. About half an hour afterwards, his wife heard a gurgling sound in his throat and went to get a light to ascertain the cause of it, but when she returned he was dead. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts. Deceased was about sixty years of age and an old resident of Allegheny City.

Young America.

Matthew Crilley, a youth of fifteen years, was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny. It appears that Matthew with several boys, went into Wald's confectionery, on Fifth avenue, near Tunnel street, and called for some cakes, at the same time laying the money, to pay for them, on the counter. The cakes were produced and the young scamps, seeing an opportunity to speculate, improved it by grabbing both cakes and money and making off. An officer was called and started in pursuit, but only succeeded in capturing Matthew. He was brought to the lock-up and will have a hearing this morning.

Fatal Accident.

William Little, fireman at Zug's Mill, residing at the corner of Pike and Thirteenth streets, met with an accident yesterday morning resulting in his death. It appears that Little had been drinking considerable Saturday night and went home drunk. He succeeded in getting up stairs to his bed-room and retired. About four o'clock in the morning he got up and went down stairs, where he remained some time, when he attempted to return. He succeeded in getting about half way up the stairs when he fell backwards, it is presumed, as he was found by his wife, who heard the fall and ran to his assistance, lying at the foot of the stairway with his feet up. She called in one of the neighbors to assist her in getting him up stairs when it was discovered that his skull was fractured. Dr. Duncan was sent for but his efforts were of no avail, as the unfortunate man expired about 8 o'clock, A. M.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body yesterday, when the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Deceased was about thirty-three years of age and leaves a widow and six children.

MONUMENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Meeting of the Monumental Association—Charter to be Applied For—Names of the Corporators—Funds on hand, &c.

The Monumental Association, an organization having in charge the matter of erecting a suitable memorial of the deceased soldiers from Allegheny county, during the late war, held a meeting on Saturday afternoon in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Fifth avenue. Nearly all of the members were present, and the Association came to order at three o'clock, when, on motion of Gen. A. L. Pearson, Mr. Preston was called to the chair, and Col. T. M. Bayne appointed Secretary.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Capt. B. F. Jennings, Chairman of the Committee appointed at the last meeting to procure a charter, reported progress, and asked for instructions. There was a difficulty in the matter, as the opinion had been expressed that the Courts could not grant articles of corporation to an Association consisting of ladies alone.

Mrs. Robinson stated that the Womens' Home of Pittsburgh was incorporated, and it was altogether customary to incorporate associations for various purposes, in which ladies alone appeared as the incorporators.

Mrs. McKee moved the addition of the gentlemen composing the original Building Committee to the Committee on Charter.

The President said this would only make the matter more complicated.

Capt. W. B. Cook said, if this was done, the name of the association would have to be changed, as it was now known as the "Ladies Monumental Association," and the motion adopted at last meeting, constituting ladies only members of the corporation would have to be reconsidered. For his part, he would rather leave the matter in the hands of the ladies.

Capt. Jennings suggested the discharge of all committees, until the act of incorporation was procured.

Major Samuel Kilgore moved as an amendment an increase in the number comprising the Building Committee. The amendment was not seconded.

After some further discussion the motion of Mrs. McKee was lost by a vote of four to eleven.

Mrs. McKee presented a communication from Charles A. Miller, Adjutant of Post 35, G. A. R., dated May 1, 1868, protesting against the location of the proposed monument in the Allegheny Cemetery.

On motion of Major Kilgore the communication was laid on the table.

Mrs. McKee also presented the report of the Treasurer of the Association, Jas. Park, Jr., showing the following amounts of money on deposit at the banks named, subject to the check of the Trustees appointed by the Building Committee:

Pittsburgh Bank for Savings	$25,226 00
N. Holmes & Sons	1,351 17
Ph. R. Mertz	220 54
	$26,797 71

The report was received and ordered to be filed.

On motion of Major Kilgore, General Pearson was added to the Committee to procure a charter of corporation.

The Committee on Charter were instructed to have the matter immediately attended to, in order to have the charter procured before the adjournment of the present Legislature. The following ladies constitute RELIGIOUS.

Interesting Services at the Third Presbyterian Church—Installation of the Pastor Rev. F. A. Noble.

The services at the Third Presbyterian church, Sixth Avenue, last evening were of an unusually interesting character, it being the occasion of the installation as pastor of the congregation, Rev. F. A. Noble, who has been officiating as pastor since the erection of the new church. At an early hour in the evening, the vast auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity, and when the time for the commencement of the services arrived there was not a vacant seat in the church.

THE EXERCISES.

The exercises were opened with a voluntary by the choir.

Rev. J. F. Hill then read the Scriptural lesson from the 1st to the 15th verse, inclusive, of the 52d chapter of Isaiah, and the 4th chapter of Ephesians, from the 1st to the 15th verse, inclusive.

The choir then sung the 1028th hymn, after which Rev. William Hunter led in prayer.

The 1009th hymn was then sung by the congregation.

Rev. Dr. Howard, of the First Presbyterian church, preached the installation sermon, and it was one of his ablest efforts.

The constitutional questions were then put to the pastor by Rev. J. S. Travilla, and promptly answered.

Rev. W. T. Wylie delivered the prayer of installment in a most solemn and impressive manner.

The charge to the pastor by Rev. P. S. Davis followed, after which came the charge to the people by Rev. Mr. Stuckenberg.

The congregation then sang the 1010th Hymn, closing with the long meter Doxology, after which the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Noble.

Thief Captured.

On Saturday evening, about seven o'clock, Samuel Early went into Yutes' tobacco store, on Fifth avenue, near High street, and there being no one in the front shop it appears he proceeded to help himself to several pieces of tobacco and then endeavored to open the money drawer. The store having been robbed on a former occasion, in the same way, the proprietor, who is mostly engaged in the back room, had a hole cut through the partition so that he could see when any person entered the store. A boy, who was at work in the back room, looked through the aperture and noticed Early endeavoring to open the money drawer. He at once gave the alarm and Early was arrested and taken to the watch house, and on the way there he threw away a memorandum book containing a number of receipts and other valuable papers. The book was recovered and the owner sent for. Early had a hearing on the charge of stealing the tobacco and was held to bail for his appearance at Court, in default of which he will be committed. He was kept in the look-up awaiting a hearing in the case of stealing the book referred to.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

SATURDAY, February 19.—The case of the United States vs. Benjamin Hartshorn, indicted for personating a revenue officer, was resumed and concluded. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $500 to the United States, and undergo an imprisonment of six months in the county jail.

In the case of the United States vs. Finley, indicted for making false returns, Mr. Golden, counsel for defendant, moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the section of the act under which the indictment was drawn, had been repealed. The motion was argued at length.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

SATURDAY, Feb. 20.—The case of McVay vs. Wilson, et al., previously reported, was resumed. (Plaintiff entered nolle pros. as to John Sullivan. Judgment of non-suit as to J. V. Wilson.)

Court of Oyer and Terminer—Full Bench.

SATURDAY, February 19.—Lewis Lane, colored, convicted on an indictment in which he was charged with murdering his wife, Henrietta Lane, by means of administering poison to her, was called up for sentence. The accused, it will be remembered, has twice been found guilty of the crime by a jury, the case having been carried to the Supreme Court on a writ of error, the judgement reversed and a new trial awarded. Mr. Haines, one of the prisoner's counsel, again moved for a new trial, and Judge Stowe delivered the opinion of the Court overruling the motion, after which the prisoner was directed to stand up and asked if he had aught to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him according to law. He replied that he had nothing to say, only that he was not guilty of the crime. His Honor, who had risen to his feet, then alluded to the crime of which the prisoner had been convicted, referred to the two trials which had been accorded to him, and urged him not to rely upon the hopes of any further interference on the part of the Supreme Court. His Honor then pronounced the dread sentence of the law, as follows: "Louis Lane, the sentence of the law is that you be taken hence to the jail of Allegheny county, the place whence you came, and from thence to the place of execution, and that there you be hanged by the neck till you are dead, and may God have mercy on your soul."

The prisoner's counsel will carry the case up again upon a writ of error, and may probably succeed in obtaining another trial.

Mr. Haines and his associates deserve great credit for the manner in which they have managed the case.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judges Mellon and Stowe.

SATURDAY, February 19.—In addition to the usual Saturday's business, the following sentences were passed:

Wm. Memminger, convicted of robbery on the 23d of December last, was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

James Sullivan, Jeremiah Hawley and Michael Ryan, the parties convicted of the felonious assault and battery upon George Bothwell in front of the school house, Second ward, Allegheny, on the evening previous to the October election, were next called up for sentence. Sullivan was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year. Hawley was sentenced to undergo two months and Bryan three months imprisonment in the county jail.

George Rumble, convicted of committing a rape upon a little girl, Awilda Jane Stephens, who resided with Joseph Haugh, her uncle, in Allegheny city, was next called up. A motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment had been made in his behalf, but it was overruled. Judge Mellon, previous to passing sentence, said that for fear that injustice might be done defendant, it had been determined, after consultation, to impose the penalty prescribed by law for the attempt to commit the offence of which he had been convicted. He was then sentenced to pay the costs, and to undergo an imprisonment of five years in the Western Penitentiary.

An argument on a motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment in the case of Eliza Soles, convicted of burning a barn, was heard, and an order for arrest of judgment made by Court.

DIVISION OF SEWICKLEY TOWNSHIP.

A. M. Watson, Esq., presented a petition from citizens of Sewickley township asking for a division of the same. Messrs. R. H. Davis, George Neely and James D. Hilands were appointed Commissioners to inquire into and report upon the matter.

THE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

S. C. McCombs, Esq., Solicitor of the Allegheny Board of Control, presented a petition, asking the Court to rescind the order creating an independent school district out of the Seventh ward of that city. The reason urged was that the act of Assembly confers no authority upon any of the courts to create an independent district out of a ward of a city. A rule was granted, returnable on Saturday next at ten o'clock, A. M.

Cree Brothers are now selling their entire stock to quit business. A rare opportunity to secure bargains, as it is being sold regardless of cost. You save fifty per cent. by calling soon at 26 Fifth avenue.

Daring Housebreakers—Masked Operators—Unrewarded Labor.

An exceedingly daring housebreaking operation was performed in Allegheny on Wednesday evening last, but fortunately the operators, notwithstanding all their boldness and skill, failed to secure anything worthy of their pains. The scene of the affair was a house in Sterretts alley, Third ward, occupied by Mrs. Gibson, a widow, who lives a quiet and retired life, with none but herself in the house. About midnight on the evening named she was awakened out of her sleep by a noise as of some one in the room, and upon fully arousing herself, she discovered three men, masked and carrying revolvers, standing by her bedside. Before she could make an outcry, one of the men placed a revolver to her head and bade her keep quiet. He then, still holding the deadly weapon in the same position, in a few words, stated that they had entered the house for the purpose of securing a sum of money, which she had received that day from the rental of some property in another part of the city. She protested that it was a mistake, that no money of any account was in the house, but the intruders persisted in their statements, and to satisfy themselves two of them commenced a search of the premises, while the other kept a strict watch on their victim. The house was thoroughly ransacked from cellar to attic, drawers overturned, the contents of boxes scattered about, cupboards inspected, portions of the bedding ripped open, and in fact not a crack or cranny seemed to escape the vigilant search, but the supposed treasure was not to be found. During the continuance of the overhauling the fellows were quite communicative, and expressed themselves as being reluctantly compelled to proceed in such a manner to obtain a livelihood, owing to the dullness of the times and the impossibility of securing honest labor. They remained in the house several hours, and at the conclusion of their search departed as they came, taking nothing with them and without offering any violence to the lady, or in any way demeaning themselves as roughs. In the morning it was discovered that one of the panels of the front door had been cut out large enough to admit a hand, by which admission to the house was gained.

Mrs. Gibson on Thursday morning left the house and went to her brother-in-laws', Mr. Geo. W. Evans, who resides in another part of the city, where she has since remained. The excitement and fright of the occasion brought on a severe attack of illness, but it is probable she will recover in a few days, and no serious consequences are apprehended. There is not the slightest clue which might lead to the identification of the men engaged in the operation, and it is quite likely they will escape.

The affair throughout was one of extreme audacity and boldness, and is quite a forcible reminder of the "Ku-Klux" operations which have spread such a terror among the inhabitants of some other portions of the country.

Larceny of Logs.

On Saturday evening information was made before Mayor Drum against Geo. McDonald and Charles Caskey, two boys about eighteen years of age each, charging them with larceny. The alleged offence consisted in cutting loose a log raft from the landing of Mr. Wm. Dilworth's planing mill, Fifth ward, Allegheny, on Wednesday evening, and taking the property to Baden, about thirty miles down the river, where they sold it for thirty dollars. The raft was valued at seventy-five dollars. As soon as the loss became known, one of Mr. Dilworth's employees started in pursuit of the thieves, and succeeded in securing them at Baden. They were brought back to Allegheny and while getting off the cars at the Federal street station, McDonald broke away from his captor and made his escape. Caskey was taken to the Mayor's office and entered bail for a hearing this afternoon at three o'clock. Caskey states that he was standing on a corner near the mill, on Saturday morning, in company with a crowd of boys, when he was approached by a man who offered him two dollars for assisting him to take the raft from McKee's Rocks, where it was then lying, to Baden. He accepted the offer and had just completed the contract when he was arrested. The facts of the case will doubtless be developed at the hearing this afternoon.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Saturday night Harry Hotto, the popular comedian at the Opera House, took a benefit. The house was full, as a matter of course, and the entertainment was all that could be desired. To-night Yankee Robinson, the inevitable delineator of Yankee character, will appear in "Naval Engagements," after which the Madame and M. Sanyeah will appear in their wonderful and daring feats upon the trapez. The entertainment will conclude with the amusing afterpiece, "A Wife for a Day," with Yankee Robinson in the role of Nathan Tucker.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The circus at the Pittsburgh Theatre is drawing crowded houses and doubtless will continue to do so while it occupies the building. The company comprises some of the best talent in the profession and the entertainments are of a versatile and amusing character. Everybody goes to the circus.

SMYTHE'S AMERICAN THEATRE.—The attractions at the American Theatre have been so strong during the past week that on several occasions the manager has been compelled to refuse admissions to a large number of persons for want of room to accommodate them. The house is filled to its utmost capacity nightly.

Executive Department.

The Governor Thursday evening appointed the following Notaries Public: Charles T. Hall, Athens, Bradford county; Francis H. Reichard, Philadelphia, (re-appointment;) Leonard S. Johns, Pittsburgh, (re-appointment;) Jos. L. M'Clure, Sharon, Mercer county; Wm. H. Jones, Ebensburg, Cambria county, and Robert H. Negley, Sturley L. Cuthbert, William W. M'Clelland, Thomas Roberts, A. B. Hay, W. S. Miller, John H. Mueller, Henry Bauer, John G. Bryant, C. B. Bostwick, E. Fenderich, Moses Phillips, Josiah Cohen, David S. Williams, Thos. Hindman, Alexander Millar, A. M. Stotler, Henry F. Weaver, Charles Margi, J. Wishart Wylie, Thos. H. Hunter, and David L. Smith, of Allegheny county.

Mayor's Office.

At the Mayor's Morning Court yesterday there were thirty-eight cases disposed of, mostly "drunks" and "disorderlies." Of this number nineteen cases came from the "Marble Front," a notorious den on Duncan street, Eleventh ward, upon which the police made a raid Saturday night, capturing the inmates, male and female of both colors. The thirty-eight cases were disposed of as follows: Five were discharged, six paid fines and the remaining twenty-seven were committed to jail in default of fine and costs.

The Allegheny Sewerage.

EDITORS GAZETTE: One of the most important measures before the Allegheny Councils is the new sewerage law, which, if passed, changes the manner of making assessments from the "superficial foot" to "valuation." The law, as it now stands, is exceedingly obnoxious to parties owning large scopes of ground in the rural districts, for the reason that while it adds nothing to the value of their property, it largely increases their taxes, causing them a heavy outlay without any benefit. The idea of taxing property which is located perhaps a mile distant from the sewer as much as that which is not two squares distant, and which is benefitted and enhanced in value by the same, is perfectly absurd, and it seems to me that for the city to attempt to collect the tax under the present law would be an act of tyranny and oppression unheard of in this country. To illustrate: A lot in the rural districts worth, say five or six hundred dollars, is taxed as much as another lot in the central part of the city worth five thousand or perhaps ten thousand dollars, while at the same time, be it remembered, the latter is benefitted by the sewer and enhanced in value, while the former derives no benefit whatever. There is no equity or sense in the law as it now stands; it is said that there is nothing like it in any city in this country, and the sooner it is erased from the statute books and blotted out of existence the better. The Councils, or at least a majority of them, seem disposed to do what is right in the matter, and the new bill, which is now under consideration, affords the relief that is asked. By the provisions of the new law the tax is put on the valuation, and all will be assessed equally and fairly; and then there will be no cause for complaint; the city will be enabled to go ahead with the work, and the citizens will be willing to pay their share of the expense.

The importance of having the city well sewered is conceded, and no one, not even those located a mile distant from any of them, and who really receive no benefit whatever, excepting, perhaps, in a sanitary point of view, will object to paying their pro rata; but when it comes to laying it on as it has been done under the present law, and for the sewers built last year, it is more than the people can stand. JUSTICE.

A Nuisance.

The custom of blockading the entrance to the Opera House at the conclusion of the entertainment, which is indulged in by a large number of fellows, unworthy the name of gentlemen, is an intolerable nuisance, and should be abated. We can see no reason why men should be allowed to congregate at that particular point, obstructing the sidewalk and staring honest people out of countenance, when it is prohibited in other places. If the nuisance cannot be prevented during the week it probably can be on Sunday evenings, so that people who have attended religious services at the Opera House may not be subjected to the annoyance. Last evening when the congregation were retiring the sidewalk was blockaded for a distance of twenty or thirty feet, so that it was almost impossible for ladies to get through the crowd.

Ecclesiastical Standards.

Rev. Samuel Collins, the energetic Superintendent of the United Presbyterian Board of Publication, 93 Third avenue, has handed us a copy of the Subordinate Standards of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, bound in one volume. It contains the Westminster Confession of Faith; Larger and Shorter Catechisms; Testimony and Adopting Act; Government and Discipline and Directory for Worship. The book is printed with clear type on snow-white paper, and being of convenient size will be a valuable vade mecum to United Presbyterians—both lay and clerical. Mr. Collins has all the publications of the Board for sale, in addition to a choice assortment of Bibles, Testaments and Psalm Books and religious and theological works generally.

A Novelty.

A very great novelty has been presented to the Pittsburgh public by the New England Jewelry Manufacturing Company, at No. 85 Smithfield street. The novelty does not consist in the fact that this great Company has opened an Agency at the above number, but in the truth that they dispose of genuine articles of their own manufacture at one-third their real value. Their plan of disposing of these articles is peculiar, and amply explains the seeming mystery. They dispose of photographs, accompanying which are notes specifying the articles purchasers are entitled to for twenty-five cents. In this way knives, albums, &c., intrinsically worth one dollar are disposed of at twenty-five cents—each purchaser having a chance for the same small investment of drawing a valuable gold watch, silver tea set, or other articles of value. The immense sales of these articles procured in this pleasant way will account to any reasonable mind for their marvelous cheapness. Quick sales and small profits will solve the problem.

Our readers contemplating the purchase of a sewing machine should not overlook the famous Singer Machine, as lately improved.

It is now the most perfect in the world; runs as light as the lightest; is almost noiseless, makes the perfect lock stitch alike on both sides, and is a perfect marvel of perfection and simplicity.

It is complete with Hemmer, Feller and Braider, &c.

The new Singer has been advertised and puffed less than any machine in the market, and yet its sales outnumber the sales of its competitors by many thousands annually, since its introduction three years since, proving conclusively that it is sold strictly and entirely on its own merits. The Singer Company are now manufacturing sixteen hundred machines per week, which is double the amount made by any other company. While these figures may seem enormous, an examination of the Singer Machine will explain its wonderful popularity.

These machines are sold in the city by Messrs. Straw & Morton, corner of St. Clair and Penn street.

They keep a large and elegant stock of machines on hand at all times, and take pleasure in exhibiting them to visitors.

The terms of payment are as favorable as those of any other house. All machines are warranted three years, and instructions free.
