

Fifty Dollars Reward. The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the parties stealing packages of this paper from the baggage cars on the railroads.

Shating Park Managers were smiling yesterday.

The Custom House ran up a new flag on Monday.

Allegheymen are complaining of a dearth of business.

The Retail Coal Trade has been quite lively the last few days.

The telegraph mail has been slow in taking trip to Pittsburgh.

Liberty Street is predicted to be the great thoroughfare of the city.

The thermometer stood at twenty-eight degrees above zero yesterday afternoon.

The sewerage act is the chief topic of conversation among tax payers in Allegheny just now.

A School Treasurer in Belmont, Ohio, has been arrested for embezzling $3,500 of the funds in his keeping.

The sidewalks formed excellent coasting grounds for the boys yesterday, a fact which they seemed to realize fully.

Allegheny Councils.—The Allegheny Council will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening at seven o'clock.

Dr. Spencer, No. 251 Penn avenue, is the first person to administer Laughing Gas in this city for the painless extracting of teeth.

Personal.—Alderman Lindsay has removed his office from east of his former office, on the north east side of the Diamond square, Allegheny.

The O'Neill-Pittcock libel suit attracted a large number of visitors to the lobby of the Court of Common Pleas room yesterday. It will be concluded to-day.

The Opera House Company opened yesterday in Johnson's "Romance and Justice," the chief characters being sustained by Mr. Mark Bates and Miss Augusta Dargon.

Found.—A large bunch of keys attached to a metal ring, was picked up on Federal street yesterday afternoon. The owner can have them by calling at the Mayor's office, Allegheny.

The Allegheny Board of School Commissioners will hold a regular monthly meeting next Tuesday evening, in report of the Committee on the establishment of a High School will be presented.

Considerable opposition is manifesting itself to the proposed extension of Federal street, Allegheny. The job is a big one, but it is properly executed, will be of great advantage, to the upper part of the city at least.

Workmen have been engaged for the last three or four days in constructing a large sewer drain at the corner of Montgomery avenue and Federal street, Allegheny. It will connect with the Montgomery avenue sewer.

There is talk of laying the Nicolson on the streets surrounding the Allegheny Park, in order to supply the want of a good roadway for driving purposes in the Park itself. The idea is an excellent one and should be carried out.

The Proceedings of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, together with the reports of the President and officers, will be found on our seventh page, as well as other interesting city intelligence.

During the wind storm yesterday several panes of glass were blown out of the general lower of St. Paul's Cathedral and the morning service, occasioning considerable alarm. No person was injured.

An Act providing for the registering of lots in Allegheny City, or in other words the proposed registry law discussed in Allegheny Councils at their last regular meeting, and the act authorizing the city to issue water bonds, passed the Senate yesterday.

Taken Over.—James Rumble, sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Penitentiary for attempting to commit a rape, and William Mininger, sentenced to three years in the same institution for larceny, were taken over by Sheriff Cliney yesterday afternoon.

Notice.—The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Association will take place at half past two o'clock on Thursday afternoon, February 25th, at the "Home," No. 46 Bathman street. All visitors and those wishing to become cases, are urged to be present.

Committed For Trial.—David Donaldson, charged with stealing a raft of logs from Dilworth's Landing, Fifth ward, Allegheny, had a hearing before Mayor Drum yesterday afternoon. The evidence adduced was of such a character that the Mayor committed Donaldson to jail for trial, in default of bail in the sum of $500.

Furth Ball.—To-morrow evening, at Lafayette Hall, under the auspices of Jericho Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., a grand Furth ball will be held for the benefit of widows and orphans. The arrangements have been made on the most liberal scale, and the invited guests will, we dare say, form one of the most brilliant, fashionable and agreeable assemblages of the season.

Enforced.—The late decision of Judge Taylor, of Cambria county, says the Johnstown "Edwards" that the special tax of twenty-five dollars assessed against the tavern and saloon keepers of Johnstown for the support of a police force is lawful and should be paid, is being enforced by Deputy High Constable Eben Bates. In some cases Mr. James will have to compel payment by a resort to severe measures.

The Lecture in St. Peters Church.—A large audience listened apparently with intense interest to the lecture on Ritualism, delivered in St. Peters church last night by the Rev. J. E. Egert. The subject was handled with great ability. We are glad to learn that the lecture will be published. It should be widely circulated, as calculated to dissipate the crude notions which prevail among many church people on this interesting subject.

Meeting of the Market Committee.

Last evening the Market Committee of City Councils held a meeting at City Building. There was a full quorum present, Mr. James M. McEwen, Chairman, presiding. A petition was received and laid on the table from a number of retail dealers occupying stalls in the Diamond market house, praying for a decrease in their rents.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

A Pleasant Anniversary Occasion.

A pleasant reunion of the members of Mechanics Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., took place on Monday evening at the Dining Rooms of Henry S. Child, Third avenue, the occasion being the First Anniversary of the re-organization of the Lodge. An elegant and beautiful repast had been prepared and was served under the supervision of Mr. Schild, in a manner which reflected credit on himself and his staff.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Amusements.

Opera House.—The Opera House was filled with a select audience last night, attracted doubtless by the numerous pictures of the Cretan beauty, Mademoiselle Sarvas, so conspicuously featured throughout the city. The Savoras are, beyond all question, the most fearless, graceful and excellent performers on the flying trapeze on this side of the ocean, and some of the feats performed by them are truly astonishing.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Miss Olive Logan.

To-morrow night Miss Olive Logan, thorough scholar and lecturer, will address an audience at the Academy of Music, under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Lecture Committee, on Paris, the City of Luxury. Miss Logan is a very remarkable woman in many respects. She is notably superior in physique to the majority of her sex, being endowed by Nature with heavenly gifts of extreme beauty, native ability and great susceptibility to culture and polish.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Catawba Wine.

J. T. Sample, the popular druggist, corner of Federal and Robinson streets, Allegheny, has added to his stock of California and other choice wines a supply of Bennett's pure Catawba, fermented in the skin. We owe to the courtesy of Mr. Sample our warrant for saying that there is some mistake about this, as a liberal supply submitted to our own test has not yet fermented in the skin; on the contrary, a free libation of it lingers in our skin on the very best terms with our palate and all the viscera. Bennett is a home grape-grower, and is supplying some of our best families with wines fit for a President or even an Editor. Such efforts and such success deserve encouragement.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Law Books in large assortment.

comprising volumes esteemed highly valuable, second-hand books of ancient and modern writers, rare and attractive to book connoisseurs; first quality legal, business and epistolary stationery, envelopes, pens, pencils, ink, etc.; together with the latest magazines and illustrated papers, will be found at the old established and ever popular literary headquarters of Col. J. D. Egan, Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street. Go there for any and everything in the literary line you may want, as no one else can you procure better advantages in selection and prices.

A resolution offered by Dr. McCandless in Common Council, instructing the Market Committee to inquire into the expediency of building a new market between Miller and Roberts streets in the Eleventh ward, was referred to the Committee on Buildings and Markets, but the Committee resolved to adjourn.

The miserable condition of City Hall was taken into consideration and a motion was made to have an estimate of the cost to have it put in good order, and report to the Committee, so that Councils may be asked for a sufficient appropriation to defray the bill of expenses from the contingent fund. The Hall is practically out of use for want of repairs and the city is of course deprived of a revenue item of revenue.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.

Several days since information was made before Alderman McEwen, by Mrs. Hickman, charging Samuel Haakowitz with larceny. It appears that Mrs. H. was the proprietress of a hotel or boarding house in the Diamond, and that the accused ingratiated himself into her good graces by promises, by marriage, after which he induced her to surrender her interest in the hotel, and then succeeded in borrowing $1,600 from her.