NEW PUBLICATIONS.

CHINA AND THE CHINESE. By the Rev. John L. Nevius, ten years a missionary in China. With a map and illustrations. Published by Harper & Bros., New York.

Historical facts are embodied in this work that will surprise most of its readers. Old as this country is, and familiar as we are with it, in some respects, few are aware of the wealth, progress and culture it has attained as a nation. We have regarded China altogether at too low a scale, as a nation, from the revelations of its greatness and grandeur here made known. The wealth and opulence of that vast region, and of its wonderful inventions, are gradually unfolding. The history of this people is a study for the civilized world, and we are only beginning to find out its real greatness. History shows that China took its rise coeval with the Pyramids, and standing as one has well said, "a human pyramid, apparently indestructible by the ravages of time." How the Chinese have been able to prolong their national life, while the Egyptians, Chaldeans and Abyssinians have been buried in the dust of years, is a problem. Mr. Nevius' book embraces a general description of the country and its inhabitants; its civilization and form of government; its intercourse with other nations, and its present condition and prospects. It is unlike books made up from a hurried visit to a few leading cities or glances at the outside of society, but the result of years of patient observation and intercourse with the people while laboring among them as a missionary. The numerous illustrations help to a better understanding of the work.

DEEP DOWN. A Tale of the Cornish Mines. By R.M. Ballantine, author of "The Life Boat," "Fighting the Flames," etc., with illustrations. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

Much stress usually is laid upon the plot and characters of a story, but this story is only founded on facts, and gives graphic and touching incidents connected with mining life. Scenes of a picturesque character are depicted in life-like language, indeed, the work glows with the animated style of the author. Phases of society are narrated, too, with a coloring both natural and striking. Moral lessons also crop out in the story, which illustrate the power of Divine grace over the evil associations which run riot in such places. The story from beginning to end is one of unflagging interest.

THE CLOISTER AND THE HEARTH; or, MAID, WIFE, AND WIDOW. A matter-of-fact romance. By Charles Reade. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

This is the seventh volume of the popular "Household Edition" of Mr. Reade's works, by this house. The merits of this capital edition have already been stated as being printed from clear type, white paper, and bound in neat green cloth, and at a low rate, one dollar per volume. One more volume will complete the set. The character of this work is well known, and needs no commendation from us.

OUR CHARLEY, AND WHAT TO DO WITH HIM. By Mrs. H. B. Stowe. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

These charming juvenile stories, like everything emanating from the pen of this talented lady, though written years ago, are interesting as well as instructive. Lessons of practical worth and of a high moral tone are inculcated throughout the book. Children may learn great moral truths even in little stories, if the writer is impressed with right principles; this is the crowning feature of Mrs. Stowe's writings.

COLONEL THORPE'S SCENES IN ARKANSAS. By J. M. Field, Esq., of the St. Louis Reveille. With sixteen illustrations from original designs by Darley. Published by T. B. Peterson & Bros., Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Pittsburgh.

This volume is one of Peterson's Illustrated uniform edition of Humorous Works. It abounds with stories of the most ludicrous character. It contains the whole of the "Quarter Race in Kentucky," "Bob Herring, the Arkansas Bear Hunter," "Cupping on the Sternum," "Playing Poker in Arkansas," etc. The series comprises sixty-eight humorous Southern and Western sketches.

TRUTH AND COUNTER TRUTH. By Rev. Thomas Richey, D. D. Published by Pott & Amery, New York. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

Rev. Dr. Richey, the author of this work, was temporary Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church in this city. The work embraces eleven essays on doctrinal points of essential importance to Christians, of all religious bodies. Brief as they are, they contain much valuable critical and practical thoughts. The friends of this divine, as well as the inquirer after truth, will welcome this publication.

THE AMERICAN ECCLESIASTICAL AND EDUCATIONAL ALMANAC. By Prof. A. J. Schem. Published in New York, 15 Dey street. F. Gerhard, Agent.

No publication of a similar character stood so high in the estimation of religious journalists, as the issue of 1868, and we expect the same encomiums will be expressed of this edition. It is brimful of facts.

We have been favored by D. APPLETON & Co., New York, through Henry Miner, with "Phœnixiana; or Sketches of Burlesques." By John Phœnix. This cheap edition of Sketches and Burlesques will have a wide sale, on account of the fame of the author and the strokes of satire which sparkle throughout its pages. The same house send us "Woodstock" of the Waverly series. These volumes are handy and very cheap.

T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, Philadelphia, send us "Hans Breitmann's Party." With other Ballads. By Charles G. Leland. The first edition of this work was very popular, and the present new and enlarged edition will doubtless increase its sale. "Schnitzerl's Philosepede" (Velocipede) is a rich thing. The same house sends us "Twelve Months of Matrimony," three English volumes in one, and "Count of Monte-Christo," by Alexander Dumas. The merits of these publications are well known to novel readers. "Monte-Cristo" is a new edition of the famous novelist's work, which has been extensively read.

TURNER BROTHERS & Co., Philadelphia, have placed on our table, through Miner, of this city, a copy of "Madame De Chambly," by Alexander Dumas. The fascinating style of the author is more to be commended than the story itself, at least the moral tendency of it.

LITERARY NOTES.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York, will soon issue "Quiccioli's Recollections of Lord Byron;" "The Dodge Club, or Italy in MDCCCLIIX.," and "Baldwin's Pre-Historic Nations."

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co., Philadelphia, have nearly ready "England Antiphon;" "Hymn Ancient and Modern;" "Grace's French Dictionary;" "The Works of Lawrence Sterne;" "On Seats and Saddles, Bits and Biting," and "Agnes Wentworth."

FIELDS, OSGOOD & Co., Boston, offer to send four numbers of "Our Young Folks," from January to April of this year, as specimens, to any person who will send their address. This enterprising house announce that Charles Dickens is writing a series of papers called the "New Uncommercial Samples," which are printed from advance sheets in Every Saturday.

—Recently Larkins and Green, two boarders in the house of Mr. Elliott and his son, in Suncook, New Hampshire, eloped with Elliott's daughter, the son's wife, and one thousand dollars. Larkin took the daughter to Boston, seduced and left her, and then returned to Suncook. As Green and Mrs. Elliott were starting, sending Green on an errand, Larkin and the woman took the train for Chicago. The latter soon wearied of her bargain, returned home and was arrested. Green was caught in St. Albans, Vermont, and yesterday Larkin was arrested in Chicago, and sent back in charge of the Sheriff of Suncook.

—At Auburn, N. Y., on Sunday, an attempt of Bishop McQuade to install Priest Kavanaugh in place of the old priest, Thomas O'Flaherty, was prevented by the Catholics of the place. The Bishop was prevented from saying Mass in the morning, being led out of the church by the crowd, Mr. O'Flaherty preventing violence to the Bishop. Subsequently over one thousand Catholics held a meeting and were addressed by influential Catholics, and resolved unanimously to stand by Mr. O'Flaherty; condemned the Bishop's action; expressed a determination not to submit to one man power any longer in the United States, but appeal to the ecclesiastical authorities, and if necessary to the Pope; also resolved not to allow the new appointee to occupy the parsonage.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the Insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy. The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

THE

ask the attention of all interested in the reduction of the extravagant cost of Butter, to their practical and economical system of making pure prime Butter by the aid of the

EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT.

A brief allusion to the origin of this important discovery may not prove uninteresting. Among the authenticated records of the renowned Captain Cook's voyage around the world, is found the statement, that while sojourning for a short time on the Brazilian Coast of South America, he observed the natives using, in the preparation of their food, a peculiar oil, which, upon examination, he found to possess the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; upon further inquiry, however, he ascertained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner, from a rich and luxuriant plant that grew spontaneously and abundantly in that warm tropical country. A few years ago, an eminent French chemist, while on a professional visit to the tropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of nature, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated essence of the plant. The formula for its preparation, and the Sole Right for its sale in this country are the exclusive property of this Company, by whom it was purchased from the original discoverer. We claim for this remarkable, yet simple and perfectly harmless preparation—

1st.—That by its use a net gain of from 50 to 200 per cent. is made in the manufacture of Butter.

2d.—That Butter, which from age or whatever cause, may be strong, rancid, streaked or coarse-grained, and comparatively useless for general use, by the aid of this Extract, is restored to its original freshness and sweetness, fine-grain, and even color.

3d.—By the use of this Extract, one pound of delicious, fresh Butter is actually made from one pint of milk.

4th.—That a pure and excellent table Butter can be made, at a cost of from 15 to 20 cents per pound. The chief expense wherein being Butter, which is the essential base.

5th.—That Butter manufactured by the aid of this Extract is equal in every respect to the best Butter made by the ordinary method.

6th.—The Extract after thorough analysis, by able chemists, is pronounced perfectly free from any deleterious substance, the ingredients being purely of a vegetable nature.

8th.—In proof of the foregoing assertions, the factory of this company is making one ton of Butter per day, which meets with ready sale in the New York Market, and is consumed from the tables of the first Hotels, Restaurants and Private families in this city and elsewhere.

A sample package of the Extract (sufficient to make 30 lbs. of Butter) with full directions for use, will be sent to any address on receipt of $1. CAUTION.—As articles of real merit are subject to spurious imitations, we would especially caution the public against counterfeits and worthless imitations, advertised as powders, compounds, &c., as the Extract of the Butter Plant is prepared and sold only by
