A Man Shot—Villainous Assault on a Peaceable Citizen—The Whiskey Sellers' Ring.

A most villainous assault was made upon Mr. Jno. Carvill, a quiet and peaceable citizen, yesterday, by David Andie, a notorious character who, it would appear, is in the service of the whiskey sellers of this city.

It appears that Mr. Carvill, on Sunday last, was arrested for drunkenness, and during the time that he was in the lock-up, the Mayor's watchman, who had obtained the whiskey and compelled him to make information against the parties selling it, which he did, much against his own inclination.

The parties, who are whiskey sellers in the Diamond, were arrested and fined by His Honor, and Mr. C. who, under the law, was entitled to a portion of the fine as informer, refused to receive it. Yesterday morning, while engaged at work plastering in the Third ward, at Liberty street, Allegany, Andie came in and demanded of him a portion of the money he had received for making the information referred to. He replied that he had not received any money and that he was not getting any. Andie then asked him what he made it for, calling him a—, and pulled out a revolver, which he took effect in his right wrist, inflicting a serious wound, and other passed through his head, and he fell to the ground, cutting the skin.

The villain thinking that he had killed Carvill, fled, leaving the wounded man alone. Mr. C. on recovering from the shock repaired to Mayor Brush's office, and there made information against Andie, for felonious assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

This incident is another evidence of the existence of a ring or league among whiskey sellers, the enforcement of which is a personal matter, and one which is relative to selling whiskey, by just such proceedings as these related above. It is only by the most vigilant and energetic enforcement of the law, that a whiskey dealer, who is attacked by three men and beaten almost to death, for no other reason than that he is selling whiskey, should know that they, with all their classes of citizens, must be dealt with as a class, and not as individuals.
