

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

There was nothing going on at the Allegheny Police Offices yesterday.

Countesses are requested to appear before the Grand Jury to-day, in reference to their returns.

Building Operations have commenced in Allegheny. The season promises to be unusually lively.

Wife Whipped.—Matthew Dunberger was fined twenty dollars yesterday, by Mayor Drum, for whipping his wife.

Regular Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Council will be held this evening at seven o'clock.

Judging from the appearance of the sidewalks in either city, the ordinances relative to clearing them need more stringent enforcement.

Committed.—Alderman Thomas yesterday committed to jail Matthew Donovan for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, on oath of his wife, Alice Donovan.

The Nicolson pavement on Sixth (Clair) street would be aud and slush, which has accumulated upon it, were removed.

The Ellsworth Home Company, of Allegheny, have completed the erection of their new home, which they are now well accommodated in this respect as any company in the city.

Fair and Festival.—The fair and festival for the benefit of the First Universalist Church will open this evening at the vestry of the church, corner Third avenue and Grant street. A pleasant time may be anticipated.

Sent up for Thirty Days.—David Sommers, a young man residing in the Fifth ward, was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct, and in default of the payment of a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs was sent to jail for thirty days.

Choked Her.—Catharine Rice alleges that John Henrich attacked, and beat her severely yesterday morning, and then wound up the performance by choking her. The parties reside in "Limerick" Alderman McFasters issued a warrant for the arrest of John.

A Change.—It is quite evident to those who are compelled to take "out-door" exercise, that there has been some change in the Cabinet, and that the man at the head of the department is not familiar with the affairs of his appointment. Three changes in twenty-four hours are too many for comfort.

Admirable.—Admiral Sample, proprietor of that admirably located Drug Store, corner of Federal and Robinson streets, Allegheny, in his admirable way, proposes to sell his establishment for cash. To any person who admires the business and is desirous of getting into it, this is an admirable opportunity. Apply immediately.

Howe's Musical Monthly, Elias Howe, Boston.—Of all the periodicals appearing in the shape of music, it is the best and the best for the money. It is the size and shape of regular sheet music. Its contents are selected from the works of foreign composers, and are of a high quality. All this only costs thirty-five cents a month.

Foretelling.—James Freeman and Mr. Agnew, were arrested in a court of record yesterday morning, on a charge of disorderly conduct, when they were practicing with boxing gloves, when they set upon and handled him very roughly. The defendants were arrested, but the affair was finally compromised, the defendants paying the costs.

Boiled Him.—Jarrett Galloway, a colored man, made information against John Jordan and Thomas Minks for disorderly conduct. Jarrett said he entered a store on Clair street, yesterday, where the defendants were practicing with boxing gloves, when they set upon and handled him very roughly. The defendants were arrested, but the affair was finally compromised, the defendants paying the costs.

Disorderly.—Thomas Flaherty and Michael Foley were arrested in a court of record yesterday morning, on a charge of disorderly conduct, when they were practicing with boxing gloves, when they set upon and handled him very roughly. The defendants were arrested, but the affair was finally compromised, the defendants paying the costs.

Messrs. W. H. McGee & Co., one of the oldest and best merchant tailors firms in this city, have dissolved, and the partner has retired and a new firm has been formed by Mr. J. C. McPherson, the well known junior partner of the old firm, and Mr. A. McLaughlin, who for five years has been their popular cutter. Under the title of McPherson & McLaughlin the new firm will carry on the business at the old stand, No. 10 St. Clair street, and we venture to predict that the business of the old firm will be carried on as well as ever. Mr. McGee recommends his successors to his old friends.

A Moving Case. Mary McCarthy, a resident of South Pittsburgh, states that she rented a house in the neighborhood of the Clinton Hilling Mill from the proprietors of that establishment. The house was supposed to be empty at the time, but when she attempted to take possession of the premises, she found her designs were thwarted by John Maley, who was found occupying the house with his family. Notwithstanding all her expostulations, she refused to leave, and having given up her former residence she was compelled to have another, hence she made information, yesterday, before Alderman McFasters, against John for forcible detainer. A warrant was issued.

Abducting an Infant. Jane Charlesworth made information before Alderman Humbert yesterday against William Kent for abducting an infant. The prosecutrix stated that she had been married to Kent, but had been divorced from him a short time after the infant was born. It is now about nine months old. Since the separation the prosecutrix has been boarding with the child at the house of Mrs. Wentworth, on Ross street. She alleges on Tuesday evening, during her absence, the child on the arms of Miss Wentworth and carried it away, thus seeking to gain permanent possession of it. The child's triumph, however, seems likely to prove of short duration, as one of the parties victimized obtained a cine yesterday which is following and which will doubtless lead to their speedy detection.

The case of Wm. J. Robinson, indicted for shooting Manager Smythe, which was commenced yesterday, was resumed. The theory of the defense was that the shooting was done while the accused was temporarily insane from the use of whisky. The court charged that drunkenness was neither an excuse or a defense for a crime, and in the absence of about ten minutes, returned a verdict of guilty.

Edward Weaver, indicted for the larceny of a coat, Geo. Blissett, prosecutor, guilty and was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for ten months.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Jas. Sims, indicted for felonious assault on battery, George Hall prosecutor, which was taken up, the difficulty out of which this prosecution originated occurred on the evening of the 29th of November last at Turner's Hall, Sixth avenue, at which time and place a ball was being held, and at which the parties were quarrel on account of some remarks that were made by one of them concerning the lady who had been taken there, and the quarrel resulted in a fight, during which Hall bit Sims. They were separated by the police, and a few moments after Hall down stairs, when Sims, who was standing at the foot of the stairs, threw a stick at him, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Messrs. Lynn and McCarthy appeared for the prosecution and Messrs. Gorman and McPherson for the defense. The testimony for the Commonwealth was given by Mr. Moore opened the case on the part of the defense.

Home for Destitute Men. The success that has attended this institution (located temporarily at No. 234 Penn street), has induced the Managers to seek to take the work of the summer, by securing an eligible lot of ground and asking for the means to put up suitable buildings. Though but few of the more than five hundred men that have had food and shelter there the past two months now remain, the evidence of continued need of the home for the friendless wanderers, and the fact that a great part of the work must drop unfinished if not kept up through the summer, calls loudly for a permanent place to carry on the work.

As warm weather returns it is believed from past experience that the home can be made self-sustaining, the system of inducing the inmates to pay a small sum for the day meeting with great favor with most of them, thus securing a home away from the influence of the low taverns or boarding houses, where they are so often turned over to the watch house or jail.

The success thus gained in arousing an ambition to be self-helping, also will lead to a better and useful life, encourages the Managers to look for much greater results when the Home becomes permanent.

The formation of a Temperance Society among the inmates promises great good, if allowed to continue its work. Officers are regularly chosen from among those who a few weeks ago were drunkards on our streets, and are conducted through them with great favor with spirit and much interest, and many of the addresses would do credit to our old Temperance leaders.

As many of them are sincerely and prayerfully asking to be good men, and desire the shelter of a Temperance Home, for which they gladly pay, will not a truly Christian community see that the needed means are furnished to meet this want?

Let such a Home be provided, and begging men may be driven from our streets, the really needy being provided for and impostors detected.

The cause is worthy, and every friend of humanity should take a share in building the permanent Home.

Youthful Sharpers. Tuesday afternoon, three youthful sharpers, between fifteen and seventeen years of age, whose names unfortunately are unknown, exercised their genius in Allegheny in a manner well calculated to bring them into notoriety, though of a rather unenviable kind.

A number of them were engaged the proprietor in conversation, and while he was thus put off his guard, the three youth would make a raid on the funds which they were carrying in their operations to select a store in which to do business.

Through four or five establishments, and receiving a pretty good supply of greenbacks without being detected, they triumphed, however, seems likely to prove of short duration, as one of the parties victimized obtained a cine yesterday which is following and which will doubtless lead to their speedy detection.

Second U. F. Church.—Extensive Improvements.—See opening Service.

The Second U. F. Church, Allegheny, for several months past has been undergoing extensive improvements and repairs, which have at length been completed sufficient to admit of its re-opening, which will take place next Sabbath.

During the time the building has been unoccupied it has been transformed, under the hands of skilled workmen, from a somewhat dingy and contracted edifice into one of the most commodious, cheerful and handsomely fitted houses of worship in the city—a credit to the taste and liberality of the members of the congregation.

The building has been raised seven feet higher, and extended forward fourteen feet toward the sidewalk, thus increasing its size materially, and forming a very neat and comfortable lecture room on first floor. The exterior appearance of the church has been improved by a coat of light stone colored paint, and new window sills, capings and cornices have been put on.

The interior of the church has been fitted up with seven hundred cane seat chairs, instead of the benches which formerly graced the sanctuary, and these are arranged in the most approved modern style.

The auditorium has been increased in capacity to accommodate over two hundred persons, and the interior has been given all been recast, new stained glass windows put in, the floor handsomely carpeted, the pulpit renovated and fitted up with the most approved throughout refrescoed, painted and grained in beautiful variegated patterns.

Amusements. OPERA HOUSE.—The attendance at the Opera House last night, on the occasion of Mr. Joseph Proctor's interpretation of Shakespeare's Macbeth, was fair but by no means large. Mr. Proctor is not appreciated, it appears to us, by our theatre goers as much as his genuine talent and histrionic ability should warrant. Macbeth was well put on the stage and passed off in a manner at once pleasing to the audience and creditable to the management.

In the leading character Mr. Proctor developed all the means which his art afforded him, and that in a manner which excited the admiration of the audience and never tiring beyond the natural. Lady Macbeth was sustained by Miss Augusta L. Darr, or better piece of acting. As much as we have heretofore had occasion to appear to fade before this role in which she so excellently herself. In the murder scene her dash, coolness, wicked courage and assurance chilled the audience; and then in the banquet scene, where Macbeth raves as a madman before the unbidden ghost of Banquo, she was as good as dead.

Her acting was so good that it is a pity she does not have more of these opportunities. Her acting was so good that it is a pity she does not have more of these opportunities. Her acting was so good that it is a pity she does not have more of these opportunities.
