CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Annual Report of the Managers of the Indicat Tract Society of Allegheny City—Twenty-fifth Anniversary. Another year of active labor has ended. and with gratified hearts we acknowledge the kind hand that has led us and the tender mercy that has crowned our labors with abundant success.

serve him, be all the glory forever.
The same monthly round of visitation, the same carnest efforts to bring souls to Christ by the dissemination of the same truth, with little variation in object or truth, with little variation in object or plan, have been pursued during the present as in former years. And although the facts and figures of this report are much the same as those found in former years, the work has been entirely new. The water obtained from yon gushing control is the same in element and an pontain is the same in element and apformain is the same in element and appearance each year, yet pleasant and remaining each day and hour.

So the oft-fold story of a Saviour's love has fallen from the lips of the faithful manager, a kindly, successful visitor, has been summoned to the sate of kindness and the word of comfort have been just as welcome as if never received henors. And as the charteng seasons come and go, each increase somewhated calls forth our record of itabout much like that of the preceding, the following year, affords new house of our history, measured by each revolving year, affords new house of the preceding. idabor fruich like that of the preceding, it was each chapter of our history, measing the control by each revolving year, affords new identificants, shows advancement and urges and may we all profit by her most excellent exertions and larger successfully departed. Still another has left us this year. Miss McCullen, after several years of earnest effort as a distributor, seet or creed, but "to promote evangelistic activation by the circulation of tracts, by conversation and prayer," to aid in bringing the masses under the influence these all died in faith, and now rest in God. And, now, kind friends, we ask or interests of the Gospel. In this Association worms of all Evangelical denominations. bringing the masses under the influence of the Gospel. In this Association wo inch of all Evangelical denominations heartly co-operate in their efforts to advance the cause of our blessed Redeeming. The visitations are made monthly, and it is the aim of the Society to send distributors to all parts of the city. It is the duty of the visitor to search out every family, to present each family a tract, and to supply all who desire it with a copy of the American Messenger for a small compensation; to speak a word for Christ to every one; calling attention to religious subjects, and trying to enforce the truth contained in the tract. In addition to this general work, the sick are sought and kindly cared for; children who do not attend Sabbath School; families found destitute of the bible are furnished with a copy by sale or gift.

furnished with a copy by sale or gift from the Ladies Bible Society of Alle-gheny. Thus, through the efforts of the tract distributors many are persuaded to attend the house of God, and thousauds attend the house of God, and thousauds who never enter the sanctuary are supplied with Gospel truth. Thus many sick and sorrowing are cheered and comforted and helped to bear life's trials patiently; thus many tempted ones are enabled to resist the tempter, and thus some of the fallen are reglaimed. In this work ninety visitors have been engaged during the year. These and the twenty-four managers form a corps of earnest workers numbering above a hundred. Through their persevering efforts, even in summer's heat and winter's storm, 56,500 tracts and 31,500 Messangers in the English language, and 22,200 tracts and 8,200 Messangers in the German language, lave been circulated. In addition to this a number of Welsh and French tracts have been distributed; and French tracte have been distributed; everal families have been supplied with the Bible; 164 children have been gath-ered into Sabbath School, and a number of persons found sick and destitute have of persons found sick and destitute-laws had their wants supplied on application to the Ladies! Relief Society of the city. And while earnestly laboring in the cause of home evangelization, the efforts of the Society have not been confined to our own city. Many tracts and Messentant to Sabbath Schools.

gers have been sent to Sabbath Schools in the rural districts. From month to month the "Women's Christian Associadon" has been supplied with tracts and Messengers to distribute in Pittsburgh.
For several months tracts have been sent to the Soldiers' Hospital, and last month a supply of tracts was sent to the House of Refuge, During the summer two of the visitors distributed many tracts. ing the summer two of the Visiors distributed many tracts, books and Messengers among the Roman Catholic population about Cresson. Many tracts and papers have also been distributed by and papers have also been distributed by visitors while travelling upon the cars. Such is the record of the last year's work. But what figures shall represent the good accomplished—the sid hearts made to rejoice in Christ, the suffering ones relieved and comforted, the sin sloke and the figurest Physician. souls brought to the Great Physician the erring feet turned into the ways of the erring feet turned into the ways of righteousness and peace? What Arithmetic can estimate the value of the immortal souls made gems in the Redeemer's count by the treat the Redeemer's country by the Redeemer' r's crown by the tract, the Messenger of the earnest word of the distributor?.
Think you tract distribution is thankless, fruitless labor? It would do your soul good to meet the hearty welcome that generally awaits the faithful visitor, and a single tract may be the means of converting many souls. One little tract sent by a child to Missionary was the means converting fifteen hundred souls; one little tract brought in a peddler's pack to the door of his father was the means of converting Baxter, Doddridge, Wilberforce, Leigh, Richmond, and through them of converting thousands more. The circulation during this year has been greater than during any preceding year. What the harvest of this year's sowing of Gospel truths in thousands of hearts may be who sow their grain upon the swollen tide, knowing they will reap an abundant the rushing tide of human life, believing it will yield a golden harvest in the future. We have sown the truth in garret sure. We have sown the truth in garret sure. We have sown the truth in garret work.

Sister Chapin, of Amaranth Lodge, S. Sister Chapin, of Amaranth Lodge, S. and collars, in dark lanes and narrow alleys, in barroom and saloon, in the beines of rich and poor, upon the street and in the place of business—committing it in earnest prayer to the Holy Spirit, who can cause it to grow and to bring forth fruit. In the extension of our offorts, and the interesting experience of some of our visitors, we feel greatly ensome of our visitors, we feel greatly encouraged. We have known a happy home rendered miserable by the demon interpeaner, the father held so tightly in the iron grasp of that fearful monter, that to indulge his craving appetite he was willing to sacrifice even the life of his innocent babe! faint, sick and poor, he was prevailed on to take the pledge, to be a manone more, a kind father, a loving hushand, books were given, and repeated visits encouraged him to keep his pledge, to attend the house of prayer and to send the children to Sabbath school. And for months happiness has reagned in that household, where sorrow, and misery held sway before. Many incidents of interest might be felated, but we must not tax your patience with the recital. Thus your patience with the recital. Thus for a quarter of a century this Society has been carrying on its humble work. Commencing with but four or five it has attadily increased until its number of caynest workers is now more than a hundred, and its influence, is felt through its influence is felt through-we celebrate the Twenty-fifth Anniversary. The Arithmetic of Eternity above can estimate the result of these years of faithful efforts. But while we rejoice in our abundant success with deep regret we are called upon to announce the death of some of our most earnest workers. One of these, Mrs. Eliza J. Patterson, was one of the foundens of this society, and for more than twenty years was permitted to labor for its advancement as a manager and dis-tributor. This humble, earnest, conse-crated servant of Christ, like her blessed Master, ever went about doing good, and like Dorcas, she was often supplying the labors with abundant success.

And to our Gracious Master, who hath so richly blessed our humble efforts to century in faithful labor for His cause, in the evening of life, at the advanced age of three score and two, she has been called to rest from her labors, to lay down the Cross, and to put on the crown richly decked (as we earnestly believe) with stars which represent those whom she had led to Jesus. And though re-moved from our band of faithful workers, her memory is most precious and her noble example is ever before us inciting us to renewed efforts in the Mas-ter's Cause. But another consecrated one has been taken from our number.

removed, who will take their places?
Thanking God for past success, and trusting him for the future, we enter upon the labors of another year, hoping to increase our influence for good, to win many jewels for the Saviour's crown.

School Taxes.

EDITORS GAZETTE: From the pubished proceedings of the Central Board of Education, at their last meeting, it appears that they demand the repeal of a recent act of Assembly in relation to the collection of school taxes in the city of Pittsburgh.
On inquiry I find that the act com-

On inquiry I find that the act complained of provides for the collection of the school taxes by the City Tressurer at the same time and in the same manner that other city taxes are collected.

What objection the Central Board has to this reform is not stated. To those who have the taxes to pay it has many things to recommend it. It is convenient—each taxpayer knows when and where to pay his taxes. And the experience of the people in the payment of city and county taxes has satisfied most persons that it is the cheapest method, and thus in the end lessens taxes.

If the recent act is defective in details it should be amended. But the interest
