CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Allegheny was devoid of interest on Saturday.

The Street Railways were well patronized in both cities yesterday.

Yesterday was a beautiful day, and as a consequence the churches were unusually well attended.

Notwithstanding the near approach of "moving day," there are still numbers of houses "to let" in both cities.

Large numbers of men without employment at present, are anxiously looking for the opening of the Spring business.

The street corner-loafers were out in large numbers yesterday. Through the active exertions of the police, however, this loafing nuisance was somewhat abated.

Universalist Fair and Festival.—This Fair is to be continued one week more. All who have not visited it should do so at once, as the prizes are all going off rapidly.

Confidence Operators seem to have forsaken Pittsburgh and vicinity, for the last two weeks at least. Perhaps the activity of the detectives has something to do with this state of affairs.

City Councils.—A special meeting of City Councils will be held at two o'clock P. M. to-morrow, when it is probable the subject of a Paid Fire Department will come up for consideration again.

Paddy Freel was arrested by the Mayor's police, yesterday, for breaking the door of his neighbor's house, in the Twelfth ward. Paddy was drunk, and was provided with lodging in the lockup.

We Noticed some of the Manchester Passenger Railway cars were running without bells on Saturday. This may seem a small matter, but should an accident occur it might assume different proportions.

Base Ball.—Base ball matters are beginning to look up. Several Clubs have commenced to perfect their organizations for the season. From present indications however, it will not be a remarkably lively one.

Abandonment.—Kate Steiner made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters against her husband, John Steiner, for abandonment. The parties reside in the Sixth ward. The officers are in search of John.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Company, of Allegheny, are making arrangements to send representatives to participate in the dedicatory services of the Mexican Soldiers monument in Harrisburg on the 26th of May next.

The rain which set in last evening about nine o'clock, quickly cleared the streets of pedestrians, and caused no little annoyance and vexation to those in attendance at the various churches, which had just been dismissed.

Open Air Meetings.—Open air religious meetings will soon be commenced under the auspices of the Young Mens' Christian Association of this city. These meetings were quite popular wherever held last year, and seemed to be productive of great good.

Geo. Tatnall, son of Wm. Tatnall, manager of Shoenberger's Iron Mills, was the successful competitor for the gold watch awarded to the most popular young man at the Wesley Chapel Fair. He received 2,800 votes, a majority of 1,648 over all competitors.

Fell in a Fit.—Henry Matini, driver of a milk wagon, fell in a fit in front of the Custom House, at noon, Saturday. Medical assistance was procured, and in a short time he was restored sufficiently to be removed to his residence in the Twelfth ward. He is said to be subject to such attacks.

Collided.—Saturday afternoon about two o'clock a car on the Minersville Passenger Railway, while coming down Fourth avenue, collided with a metal wagon at the intersection of the avenue and Smithfield street. The platform of the car was broken and the body of the vehicle damaged to a considerable extent. No person was injured.

A Velocipede Ride.—Wm. Granon, an ambitious velocipedestrian, while practicing with a "machine" on North Canal street, Fourth ward, Allegheny, Saturday afternoon, had the misfortune to run into a fire plug and break both his legs and the velocipede. He was picked up and taken to his home, in the vicinity, where his injuries received proper attention.

Fined.—John Wilson, a lad about fifteen years of age, was arrested on Saturday afternoon by one of the Allegheny police for tramping over a part of the Allegheny Park, which had been laid out for flower beds. The boy was taken before the Mayor, who fined him five dollars for malicious mischief. His father secured his release by paying the fine.

Disorderly Conduct.—Mrs. Anna Payne made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Barney Gallaher and Barney O'Donnell with disorderly conduct. The accused were arrested and lodged in the lock-up to await a hearing. Polk Harkins was arrested on a similar charge, on oath of Alex. Murray, and was likewise placed in the lockup to await the convening of the Mayor's Court.

Little Wanderers.—Two little German boys, one about three and the other four years old, were found wandering about the streets in the vicinity of the grain elevator yesterday, about 12 o'clock, and taken to the Captain's office at the watchhouse. They remained there some two or three hours, when the father of one of them, who resides on Ohio street, Allegheny City, called and took them home.

Allegheny Mayor's Office.—Nineteen forlorn and dejected law-breakers filed in before Mayor Drum, at his levee yesterday morning. This is the largest number present on a similar occasion for several months. Most of them had been found lying in the streets in a drunken condition Saturday night. Twelve of the number succeeded in mustering sufficient funds to pay the fines imposed. The remaining seven were comfortably housed in the county jail.

Child Severely Scalded.—On Saturday morning about ten o'clock, Willie Shoultes, a lad residing with his parents on Wylie street, was severely scalded by the upsetting of a boiler of hot water. The vessel was placed on the stove in the kitchen, and the boy in attempting to get a toy from the mantle incautiously caught hold of it to steady himself, with the result as stated. He was so badly injured that in some places the flesh peeled off his bones. Dr. Phillips was called in and rendered all the assistance possible, but the child's injuries are considered of a fatal character.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.

Interesting Services at Liberty Street Methodist Episcopal Church—Sermon by Rev. W. H. Locke, A. M.—Sunday School Anniversary—Addresses by Rev. T. S. Hodgson and Rev. Dr. H. Miller.

Much interest exists among the congregations of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this city and Allegheny and immediate vicinity, at this period of the Conference year, to promote the Missionary cause. All the systematic efforts to raise funds during the year through the congregations and Sunday Schools are brought to a grand climax just before the sitting of Conference. Several of the leading churches of this denomination have already held anniversary meetings and large sums have been reported.

Yesterday was wholly devoted by the old-time honored Liberty street Church to missionary purposes. The services were opened at the usual morning hour, with a sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Locke, A. M., who discussed for a good part of an hour the success of the Gospel, from the following text, found in the 72d psalm, 16th verse: "There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon." The reverend gentleman commenced by remarking that they did not need to be reminded that the fulfillment of prophecy is received as one of the strong and enduring pillars on which the Church has always been content to rest the inspiration of the Bible, and the divine character of its teachings. He argued that he did not mean by prophesy those happy guesses of the future, which are often made by wise and discerning men, who have studiously observed the course of human affairs; nor yet such equivocal predictions as can be made to suit the event after it has transpired. There are no such prophecies as these recorded in the Bible; nor is this the character of those predictions upon which we depend to authenticate our holy religion. But, when events are foretold hundreds and thousands of years before they come to pass, and are portrayed with a minuteness of detail that could not be more particular if the prophet had been an eye-witness of the scene he records, then we must believe that some other hand than that of the human has drawn aside the veil of intervening centuries, and brought to light things as yet hidden in the bosom of the future. Such a prophecy he thought as this is contained in the text. Reference is then made to the prophetic vision of King David, and of the glory that should arise in future ages to the spiritual kingdom, small at first, but grand and triumphant in after time. So small did it seem to the prophet King, that he compares it to a handful of corn. So great did the opposition appear, that it was like planting that corn on the bleak mountain top. And yet so abundant was the harvest, that the rustling of its full ears sounded like the shaking of the goodly cedars of Lebanon. With this brief reference to the introductory remark, we can only give the points of the discourse, namely: 1. The small beginnings of the kingdom of Christ. 2. The opposition arrayed against it, and 3. The promised final success. The discourse was carefully prepared, well delivered, and made a fine impression, and its appropriateness was equal to its merits. It would read well in print, and deserves to be in type. At the close of the sermon contributions were made to the cause advocated.

In the afternoon the main audience chamber was well filled by the Sunday School and congregation. Mr. Edward Heazelton, Superintendent of the school, presided. Exercises opening with singing and prayer by Rev. Dr. Pershing, after which Rev. T. S. Hodgson, of Trinity church, delivered an address embodying the idea of thanksgiving in the missionary work, followed by Rev. Dr. H. Miller, of Smithfield church, who presented the contrast between the past and present operations of the mission cause. During the exercises stirring hymns were interspersed under the lead of Mr. W. B. Krebs. At the close of Dr. Miller's address the teachers of the respective classes reported the amount received during the year as follows:

Miss M. Patterson, $20.00; Miss M. Heralberger, $20.00; A. Bryce, $20.00; Miss S. Liscomb, $20.00; Miss M. Hunnings, $20.40; S. W. Hay, $10.25; Class No. 13, $1.20; H. B. Lewis, $20.00; J. N. Henry, $20.00; J. M. Arnold, $20 00; Miss A. McFarland, $20.00; Miss B. M Sutch, $20.00; Miss N. H. Hay, $20.50; G. W. Johns, $8.94; Miss A. Grier, $21.41; L. Lea, $6.73; W. J. Jackson, $25.00; J. Shallenberger, $40.55; J. H. Crump, $20.00; Mrs. S. J. Carter, $40.00.

This amount was appropriated to make the following Life Members of the Parent Missionary Society, $20 each: Bessie Cunningham, Jennie Wible, R. Buffington, Willie Anderson, Annie Lea, Jennie Banar, George Calder, Willie Shaffer, Maggie McCausland, Sadie L. Cunningham, Emma J. Fryer, Fannie Noble, J. Cornish, J. H. Crump, Hattie Kemmers, Nellie Dravo.

Propositions were then made to honor others in the same way. Mr. J. B. Hubley proposed on behalf of his sons to give $5 towards making Minnie Grier Hazelton a life member. The remainder was quickly raised, and the following were also constituted: Annie J. Krebs, Eddie Locke, Ellen Simpson Kincaid, Ellie Ashby Barbour, Bertha Cunningham, Willie Dravo, Zara Lewis, Maggie Miller, Frederick and Maria Glosser.

At night Dr. H. Miller discoursed in his usual felicitous style on the human cry for the Gospel and the duty of the Church to send it. It was seasonable as well as instructive. President Pershing participated in this service. Rev. Mr. Locke, the pastor, was active and indefatigable throughout the day in promoting the cause in hand. At the close of the service, Rev. W. H. Kincaid, Treasurer, gave a detailed statement of the result of the day's work, including contributions previously made, showing the total sum to be about ten hundred and fifty dollars, ($1,050.)

A Swager.

Saturday afternoon a gentleman from the vicinity of Canonsburgh, Washington county, giving the name of A. Swager, having come to the city on business, meeting an old acquaintance imbibed rather too freely of Pittsburgh whisky, and was picked up by the police and taken to the lock-up. After remaining there until he was sufficiently sober to travel, he was released on the payment of a small fine, and departed, having in his possession about forty-six dollars. About half-past nine o'clock the same evening Mr. Swager was again found on the street too drunk to navigate and was again taken to the lock-up. On examination it was discovered that he had but four dollars and fifty cents left, some one having evidently relieved him of the greater portion of the forty-six dollars. He was taken care of until yesterday morning, when he was allowed to contribute four dollars and twenty-five cents to the support of the city, and having but twenty-five cents left he started for Washington county, where whisky is not sold, a poorer if not a wiser man.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Adjourned Meeting—Act of Incorporation and Supplemental Bill.—A New Design for the Monument—New Sites Proposed, &c.

An adjourned meeting of the Soldiers' Monumental Association of Allegheny County was held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Fifth avenue, Saturday at two o'clock P. M., Mrs. McKee presiding, and Gen. A. L. Pearson officiating as secretary.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The Committee on Incorporation reported that the act of incorporation had passed the Senate and was now before the House.

SUPPLEMENTARY BILL.

Mrs. Robinson moved that the President be instructed to have a supplementary bill drawn up and forwarded to Harrisburg, providing that after the monument shall have been erected the same shall be turned over the custody of the Commissioners of Allegheny county, who shall have the same in keeping, and who shall appropriate a sum sufficient to keep the monument in repair, and thus perpetuate the memories of the fallen heroes. The motion was adopted, and the bill will be forwarded before the original act comes up in the House.

A NEW DESIGN.

The Secretary read the following communication from Joseph S. Kirk:

Mrs. McKee, President of the Allegheny County Monumental Association:

By request, I have prepared, and beg leave to submit a modified design for a Soldiers' Monument, within reach of the funds of your Association, together with a description of the same.

In designing I have been governed by the following suggestions: As the Monument is to perpetuate the memory of Allegheny County's fallen, an authentic record of such general and local matters that figured prominently in the late conflict should be permanent that generations to come may be amply enriched by the memory.

History is too general in its character to distinguish any one class of its country's defenders from others, who shared similar trials, endured similar sufferings in vindication of sacred principles. This is left to those communities whose sympathies mingle with theirs—is left with us.

For this reason, the names of battles should be conspicuous, as they in time will be confused in the roll-call of victory, without bestowing that share of honor to whom honor in part is due.

Equally essential from the constant change in costumes, is a correct representation in full uniform of the different branches of the service.

The unparalleled achievements of the Christian and Sanitary Commissions, whose untiring efforts in the cause of humanity and equal justice deserves more than passing notice, and as Freedom triumphed, the Goddess of Liberty is deemed appropriate, and should occupy a prominent position.

DESCRIPTION OF DESIGN.

Five parallel courses compose a base on which rests an octagonal pedestal supporting a corresponding die, from whose centre rises a colossal column.

Each alternate side has a semi-octagonal recess, which, with its intermediate raised scroll tablets, compose in part the lower portion of the monument.

In the recesses are life-sized representatives, in full uniform, of the different branches of the service—infantry, cavalry, artillery and navy. Names of battles occupy the raised tablets, while wreaths and shields, indicative of triumph, are between the victors and the victories.

The cap is formed by a series of semi-circular convex carved, extending sufficiently beyond the pedestal to protect the statuary and raised work below. On the keystone of the arches appear in full relief, badges of the different corps. The whole harmonizing in detail is emblematical of support and strength.

On each alternate side of the die above, whose general shape is similar to the pedestal, is a plain raised panne, adding effect to the others, three of which are for such inscriptions as the Association may desire, while the other is a bas relief embodying subjects of war and National Emblems.

The crown corresponds with the caps of the pedestal and die, but converging forms a base on which is mounted a colossal Goddess of Liberty.

Entire elevation seventy-two feet, (72,) with breadth of base twenty-two feet six inches, (22 6.)

By reference to the design it will be seen that great care has been taken to prevent vertical joints or any projection that would impair its durability, and without explanation show its full object.

It is proposed to make the body of the Monument granite and the statuary marble, as previously selected by your Association.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH S. KIRK.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 13, 1869.

It was stated by Captain Jennings that Mr. Kirk would donate the design to the Association if adopted, and that a monument constructed in accordance therewith would cost about $25,000.

NEW SITE PROPOSED.

General Pearson stated that it was proposed to remove the steps leading to the Court House yard at the corner of Grant street and Fifth avenue, farther up the avenue, to erect a collossal bronze statue in the corner, and he suggested that the monument be placed there.

Some objections were urged and no action was taken.

On motion, the Association adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

Disgraceful Row.

Between eight and nine o'clock Saturday night a disgraceful affair occurred at the Pennsylvania Hotel, on Penn street, in the Tenth ward, Daniel Voltz proprietor. David Jones and Jim alias Paddy Porter it appears were, as usual, on a "drunk," and at the time stated went into Voltz's hotel and called for something to drink, which was given to them, and which they refused to pay for. Words passed between them and Mr. Voltz, and Jones, it is alleged, threw a beer glass at Voltz, which missed him but took effect among the bottles and glasses behind the counter. Voltz then picked up a hammer and the "roughs" fearing he would use it ran out of the house, when they renewed the attack with stones, a number of which were thrown through the windows and door of the establishment. The police, it appears, had been called from that locality to quell a disturbance at the Methodist church on Liberty street, some distance away, and consequently knew nothing of the row until it was all over.

Mr. Voltz made information charging the parties with malicious mischief, and the officers arrested Jones yesterday morning and locked him up for a hearing. Porter had not been arrested at a late hour last night, but the officers were after him, and will probably have him in "limbo" this morning.

Local Case—Telegraph Operator Arrested for Sending a False Message—The Information.

We announced a few days since in our telegraphic columns the arrest of Charles N. Scott, a telegraph operator in Cincinnati, charged with sending a false message over the lines, for the purpose, as it is alleged, of defrauding C. H. Murray & Co., proprietors of a lottery in Covington, Kentucky.

A partial hearing was had in the case Friday, before Judge Straub, in Cincinnati, and was continued for a further hearing on the 17th inst. Following is a copy of the information upon which the prosecution is based:

The information is to the effect that Charles N Scott, on the 26th day of February, 1869, with force and arms, at the city of Cincinnati, then and there being a certain person connected with the Western Union Telegraph Company, operating a line of telegraph in the State of Ohio, as an operator in the employ of said Company, did, knowingly and unlawfully, transmit by such telegraph line a certain false communication and intelligence as in the words following, to-wit: "Hack," "Justil," "Lost," "Manager," "Newark," Olympic phrase retail sanguine trimble volume August office quintal nymph; said words then and there being cipher words previously arranged by and between C. H. Murray & Co. and their officers and agents, to communicate intelligence then and there, and thereby and then and there being falsely used by said Charles N. Scott then and there, with intent to injure said C. H. Murray & Co. and a certain person and persons and companies to the said Prosecuting Attorney unknown, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Ohio.

Mr. Arthur C. Lewis, who has charge of the Pittsburgh table at the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was put upon the stand by the prosecution to prove the sending of the alleged bogus dispatch from Murray & Co., of Covington, by Scott. The witness testified that between twelve and one o'clock upon the day in question Scott was about the table, and while he was absent for a few moments the message was sent. In less than ten minutes the error was discovered by the lottery agents in Pittsburgh, and the dispatch was sent back for correction. How the mistake was discovered the witness did not know; it was inferred to be one of the mysteries of the business. As soon as he was notified of the error he gave the defendant the true message, which was sent without delay.

Where are the agents in the city located?

Republican Nominations.

The Republicans of East Birmingham held a primary election on Saturday, to place in nomination candidates for the several borough offices to be filled at the ensuing election. The following ticket was nominated:

Burgess—August Ammon.
Council—Henry Shepherd, W. J. Miller, Jenkin Jones.
Constable—H. Zedel.
Assessor—Jno. N. Jarrett.
Auditors—George Trautman Milton Church.
School Directors—Jno. L. Jordan, M. A. Arnholt, Jacob Gue.
Judge of Election—David Sheering.
Inspector of Election—John Shepherd.
Return Inspector—David Shepherd, Adam Trautman, Jr.

In South Pittsburgh an election was held for the same purpose, when the following named gentlemen were placed in nomination:

Burgess—Dr. J. H. Roberts.
Council—Frederick Kauf, William Sheargold.
School Directors—Robert J. Eccles, 3 yeras, William H. Barker, 3 years, Geo. Coutant, 1 year.
Assessor—William Millholland.
Judge of Elections—David Davis, Jr.
Inspector of Elections—William H. Howard.
Return Inspector—Henry Moorhead.
Auditor—George T. Robinson.
Constable—John Stemler.

Attempted Robbery.

At an early hour on Friday morning last an attempt was made, by some unknown marauder, to rob a grocery store on Ohio avenue, near Sedwick street, Fifth ward, Allegheny. The operator effected an entrance to a room over the store through a side door from the street, using an "outsider" to accomplish his purpose. He had previously tried to open the store door with the same instrument, but failed in the attempt. The room into which he gained access was occupied by the proprietor of the store, who was awakened by the noise which the intruder made in ransacking the premises. Discerning this fact, the would-be robber beat a precipitate retreat without waiting even for the formalities of closing the door after him, dropping the spoils which he had secured, as he ran, and thus gaining nothing for his boldness and daring. There is no clue which would lead to his detection.

Professional Arrested.

The Mayor's police arrested George Leslie yesterday, who, it is alleged, is a professional thief. His presence in the city has been known to the officers for some time, and notwithstanding they made diligent search for him, they were unable to "nab" him until yesterday. They found him in room No. 17, at the Mansion House, where, it is alleged, he has been for five weeks, yet his name does not appear on the register. A woman occupied the room with him. He was placed in the lock-up, and this morning will be allowed to take his departure from the city on the first train, with a request not to return again, or if he prefers it will be committed to jail for ninety days. Verily the way of the transgressor is hard.

Insane Man Arrested.

Charles Gentes, a Frenchman, who for some time past has been staying at the Soldiers' Home, was arrested yesterday and taken to the lock-up, and will be sent to jail this morning with a view of having him sent to Dixmont Hospital. It appears that he served in the army during the late rebellion, and is drawing a pension in consequence of a wound received. His mind is considerably deranged, and when he drinks whisky he becomes unmanageable. He had just drawn his pension for the last six months and had about twenty-five dollars in his possession when arrested.

That Dog.—Our readers will remember the information made before Alderman McMasters, some time since, by Jacob Whitesell against James Irvin for trespass vi et armis. The parties are residents of Sewickley and the alleged offence consisted in the killing of a valuable dog, owned by the prosecutor. A hearing was had in the case on Saturday, before the Alderman, who, after a number of witnesses had been examined, reserved his decision until to-day. The damages are laid at $100 by the prosecutor.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The engagement of Mr. Proctor closed Saturday night, and to-night Mr. Joseph Jefferson, the great comedian will appear in his great specialty of "Rip Van Winkle."

SMYTHE'S AMERICAN THEATRE.—M'lle Libbie, the great commedienne and vocalist, and Signor Cuppelo, the amusing pantomimist, are the leading attractions at the American to-night.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The success of the new company at the Pittsburgh Theatre Saturday afternoon and evening was unprecedented. Manager Williams has been peculiarly fortunate in the selection of his people. The company comprise an array of talent seldom found in a varieties establishment, and their entertainments are unsurpassed.

MASONIC HALL.—Emerson, Allen and Munnings' Minstrels have engaged Masonic Hall for a short season, and will give the first entertainment Thursday 18th inst. This troop enjoys a high reputation and is spoken of in the most flattering terms by the press in all the western cities they have visited. They will doubtless draw crowded houses.

Re-Opening.

In accordance with previous announcement, the Second U. P. Church, corner of Stockton avenue and Sandusky street, Allegheny, which has been closed for repairs and alterations for several months, was re-opened for public worship yesterday. The services throughout the day were of a very interesting character and attracted a large congregation. The pastor, Rev. J. B. Clark, preached the dedicatory sermon in the morning, and was followed at night by Rev. J. T. Pressly, D. D. In the afternoon communion service was held. The occasion was one of great interest to all concerned. The congregation have now one of the handsomest and most complete church edifices in the vicinity.

Reprehensible Amusement.

William Reismyer, a youth of about sixteen years of age, amused himself on Saturday morning by throwing stones at the Orphans Asylum, on Tannehill street. Several of the missles went through a window, much to the annoyance of the inmates, some of whom narrowly escaped being hit. Mr. William Kane, a resident in the neighborhood, noticed the boy's action, and made information before Alderman McMasters against him for malicious mischief. A warrant was issued, Reismyer is said to be demented. It is stated that he was arrested some time ago for attempting to set fire to a building, but after a trial was released on this plea. If such be the case, he should receive proper attention, and not be allowed to run at large.

Religious.

Very interesting religious services have been going on in the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church during the past week, and not without abundant good fruit. The zealous pastor, Rev. E. G. Squires, one of the most faithful laborers in the vineyard of his Master, had the pleasure of receiving into the fold of the Church, at Communion yesterday, eleven new members, all of whom were won to the banner of Christ during the series of religious exercises held during the week. This congregation is one of the most flourishing and progressive in our midst, and we are glad to note the large accession of members gained yesterday.

Kept the Harness.

Jacob Allen made information before Alderman M'Masters on Saturday morning against Jacob Whitlow for larceny by bailee. The parties reside in Chartiers township. Allen alleges that he loaned two sets of harness to Whitlow, which never were returned. Whitlow states, on the contrary, that he purchased the harness and accordingly kept his own property. The property in dispute is valued at twenty-five dollars. Whitlow was arrested but waived a hearing before the Alderman and gave bail in the sum of five hundred dollars for his appearance at Court.

Information Renewed.

Eliza Grabarki made an information before Alderman McMasters, on Saturday, against Samuel Harkowietz, for larceny. The prosecutrix alleges the defendant obtained possession of two trunks containing valuables to the amount of five hundred dollars, and one hundred dollars in money, which he appropriated to his own use. This is the renewal of an old information which was made against the defendant some time since and upon which he was committed to jail for trial, but after remaining there a few days, secured a release through some technicality. A warrant was issued.

Painful Accident.

Charles Housebeck, residing on Avery street, Fourth ward, Allegheny, on Friday evening accidentally discharged the contents of a pistol into his right hand, lacerating it in a terrible manner and lodging the ball among the bones. As soon after the accident as possible Dr. N. W. White was called in and dressed the wound, removing the ball and several pieces of the bones in the hand. There is danger that amputation will be necessary, but with care this may be avoided. The injured man was attempting to shoot a vicious dog when the accident occurred.

Farewell Sermon.

Rev. L. F. Morgan, D. D., recently pastor of Christ M. E. Church, Pittsburgh, preached his farewell sermon to that congregation yesterday. The discourse was of unusual eloquence and power, and was listened to by one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the church. Dr. Morgan leaves this city to take charge of a congregation in Baltimore, where he formerly resided. Though residing here but two years, he has made many warm friends, whose fond wishes and earnest prayers follow him to his new field of labor.

Agreeable Relationships.

Mary Cunningham and Margaret Cunningham are sisters-in-law. They reside in Miller's Court, Tunnel street. Saturday morning a little dispute arose between them, which finally waxed boisterous, much to the annoyance of the neighborhood. Mary came off second best and accordingly, to get even, as she expresses it, lodged information before Alderman Strain, for surety of the peace and disorderly conduct against Margaret. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

Committed.—Alderman Thomas on Saturday committed to jail John Devin, on an information preferred against him by Martin Walz. The parties reside in the Sixth ward.

Marvin's Superior Crackers are superior to all others in this market. For sale by all grocers in the city and county.

A Bad Fear.

Bernard Lafferty made information before Alderman McMasters, on Saturday, against Richard Pear for assault and battery. The parties are employed at Lindsay & McCutcheon's rolling mill, Fifth ward, Allegheny. They got into a row in the mill on Saturday, when, according to the statements of Lafferty, Pear picked up a shovel and struck him on the right hand, smashing the fingers and almost severing one from the hand. A warrant for the arrest of the alleged guilty Pear was issued.
