WASHINGTON TOPICS AND GOSSIP.

Colonel Stockton, of Pennsylvania, has arrived at St. Marks, Florida, from the camp of the Cuban insurgents, with an address from the Supreme Junta, signed by General Cespedas, asking for recognition, and giving numerous reasons

A correspondent says that there is A correspondent says that there is quite a sur in diplomatic circles over the fact that Mr. Summer has a very strong speech ready on the Alabama claims, holding that England is responsible for the prolongation of the war. It is rumored that the English Minister has assectioned the drift of the speech and de-

Joshua Hill, Senator elect from Geor-Joshua Hill, Senator elect from Georgia, denies having sent any dispatch to the Georgia Legislature urging them to pass the Constitutional Amendment. He says I have my opinion as to the proper course to be persued by Congress to secure the best interest of both the Government and people. But while the present circumstances exist I cannot expect to influence others, and therefore depect to influence others, and therefore do not urge it.

Gen. McGroaty has arrived, and proposes to make a vigorous fight to retain the Collectorship of the Second Cincin-Secretary Fish has taken the oath of office, and was closeted for some time with General Grant yesterday afternoon until full consultation between them had been had.

No new nominations for foreign appointments will be sent to the Senate.

The presence of Horace Greeley has given rise to a rumor that he comes at the solicitation of New York politicians, who are anxious for his appointment to the English Mission. It seems certain that either Mr. Greeley or Mr. Motley will receive the nomination, with the chances decidedly in favor of the latter.

A partial canvass of the Senate shows the feeling to be very strong to agreeing to the House resolution to adjourn next Friday week, and the prospect is that it

The friends of Second Assistant Postby Postmaster General Cresswell. It is noticeable that many Senators and members, who have been unceasing in their panads that there should be a thorough out of the present Postoffice officleaning out of the present Postoffice officials, now protest against McLellan's removal. It is not likely that sufficient influence will be brought to bear to the wart Mr. Cresswell's determination to commence his administration of the Department by removing those who acted as assistants and counsellors to the last Postmaster General, during whose term the expenses exceeded the receipts of the Department by many millions of dollars. Mr. Cresswell has residued in the land should have a voice in their making.

With regard to the matter of female suffrage, she believes if, as is so often said, it be very unwomanly to vote, it is quite as unladylike to pay tazes.

Such was the interest excited by this lecture, which was delivered to a large and appreciative audience, that Mrs. Swisshelm has been formally solicited by a number of those who heard it, and by others who did not have a voice in their making. lars. Mr. Cresswell has said that unless the Department he would resign. Mr. MoLellan, whose removal he has determined upon, has always been a Republication of the control of the con can, but, nevertheless, has been regarded for some time as not the proper person for some time as not the proper person for such a responsible position as that of head of the Contract Bureau, which he has had charge of. The postoffice ring, which is a powerful organization, are thrown into confusion by Cresswell's decided stand, and are resisting, with all their power and influence, the removals which Cresswell has a dided to make. Secretary Boutwell, on Saturday, issued orders to suspend all further printing of fractional currency notes. Upon examination it appeared that there was sufficient currency to meet all demands examination it appeared that there was sufficient currency to meet all demands upon the Treasury for the next forty days. Secretary Boutwell, therefore, came to the conclusion to stop the printing of any more notes until a thorough examination of affairs in the Currency Bureau could be had, and whether the interests of the country demands is sufficient.

The President has appointed George Bergner Postmaster at Harrisburg, Pa.

Most of the House committees met yesterday and blocked out their work for the session. The Reconstruction Committee had a bill introduced last session in relation to Mississippi, but arrived at no conclusion. They meat the feeling to be very strong to agreeing this occasion, that her argument was the ablest that has been given to the public in this region in favor of the Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, so as to acknowledge the Being and Government of Almighty God, since old Dr. John Black caseed from his labors in Pittsburgh. practical and economical system of making pure prime Butter by the aid of the

EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT. A brief allusion to the origin of this important discovery may not prove uninteresting. Among the authenticated records of the renowned Cap-tain Cook's voyage around the world, is found the statement, that while sojourning for a short time on the Brazilian Coast of South America, he observed the natives using, in the preparation of their food, a peculiar oil, which, upon examina-tion, he found to possess the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; apon further inquiry, however, he ascertained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and stance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner, from a rich and luxuriant plant that grew spontaneously and abundant. In that warm tropical country. A few years an eminent French chemist, while on a pr fessional with the head of the spontant plant with the head of the spontant plant. ional visit to the tropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of na-ture, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated ssence of the plant. The formula for its preparation, and the Sole Right for its sale in this country are the exclusive property of this Company, by whom it was purchased from the origipaid discoverer. We claim for this remarkable, yet simple and perfectly harmless preparation—
