PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNEDAY, March 17, 1869. The markets in a general way present but little that is really new or important. There seems to be a more cheerful feeling in commercial circles, and the feeling is gaining ground that there will be a good Spring trade, and that the dullness and depression which have so long prevailed, will be succeeded by that bouyancy and activity which usually prevails at this season of the year.

RIVER NEWS.

There have been no arrivals since the date of our last report with the exception of the regular packets.

The Wild Duck and Lorenz from St. Louis, are among the first boats due. The river remains about stationary at this point with seven feet six inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather continues clear and cold. The Savanna left for the Upper Missis-The savanna lett for the Upper Mississippi yesterday with a good trip, including quite a number of passengers.

The new steamer Carrie V. Kountz, departed for Fort Benton, Capt. I. C. Vanach and M. S. Vanach an

good trip.
The America, Capt. James Hamilton, takes her departure for St. Louis to-day, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Capt. A. S. Shepard has charge of the office. The Carrie V. Kountz had 500 tons on leaving here and 125 tons engaged be--The Emma and Mollie Ebert were loading at Cinicnnati, for Pittsburgh, on Tuesday.

—The Armadille, St. Louis to Pitts-burgh, was at Cairo on Tuesday, as was also the Leonidas, from New Orleans. -The Sallie, Pittsburgh to the mountains, also left Cincinnati on Tuesday, with a splended trip. Pilots-Madison and John Kirkpatrick. Pilots-James

The Maggie Hays, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, left Cinciduation Monday full of passengers and loaded to her utmost capacity both boat and barge. Pilots-Barney Clark and Chas Boyer. -The New Albany Ledger, of Monday states that Capt. Stein, of the P. W. Strader, had to pay Jesse Mitchell, of Bed-ford, Ind., $550 for keeping live stock on board three or four days after the adver ised time of the departure of the boat The Strader had agreed to take a lot of 100 horses at lower rates than the Vir-ginia, and after the departure of the latter she laid over several days.

-The Cincinnati Gazette of Tuesday says: There was a report on the whari-boat last evening, that the G. A. Thom-son, now on her way here from Arkan-sas-river, with Captain Alex. Frazier in command, had been sold to parties in Louisville for $10,000. It was further re-ported that Captain Frazier would take ommand of the Lady Grace on the arrival here of the G. A. Thomson

-Captain Frank Hicks, of the Magenta, and Captain Nat. Green of the Missi sippi, are having a lively time over the bell-rope prize offered by W. M. Williams, Esq., of Vicksburg, Mississippi, to the boat carrying the largest trip of cotton into the port of New Orleans. Hicks has forwarded a certificate from his discharging clerk, stating that the Magenta had the largest number of bales, without mentioning the number, however, while the Mississippi's books show that the additional 4.112 below on the that she delivered 4,113 bales on the wharf. From the present aspect of affairs it would seem almost impossible to decide which boat is justly entitled to the prize, and it is more than likely that a little swearing will have to be resorted

St. Louis advices of Monday report as follows: The Kate Robinson brought a large load of passengers and full freight. All Cincinnati boats arrived here heavily laden. Captain Davidson has arrived here, and roports the com-promise between the Northern and White Collar Lines consummated. White Collar Lines consummated.
When the river opens to Dubuque, the White Collar boats will run in the St.
Louis and Keokuk trade. The White Collar Line will fix rates from Dubuque to St. Paul, and the Nothern Line fix them below Dubuque, each Line adopting the tariff of the other. Large cargoes of grain and other produce are compared to the produce are compared to the control of the Illinois river. Several goes of grain and other produce are several ing out of the Illinois river. Several barges with wheat and corn in bulk for New York have already arrived here, and quite a number of others are to, follow. The trade of that river promises to be very large this season.

The St. Louis Republican thus savagely "goes for" the Richmond's Head-light. Some one has sent us two marked copies of a dirty, scurrilous little sheet— published on the steamer Richmond—a so-called packet between Louisville and New Orleans, known as the "Richmond's Headlight;" the copies mentioned are dated off Memphis. March 10th, and contain three low flung slings at St. Louis steamers, one of which is intended for well & Davis.
