

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Mayer. Drums of Allegheny, returned home last evening.

Yesterday was remarkably dark day, even for Pittsburgh.

"House Cleaning" will soon be the order of the day among good housewives.

Two common cases were disposed of in the usual way at the Allegheny Mayor's office yesterday morning.

New Publications.—The announcement of J. B. Lippincott & Co.'s new publications will be found on the fifth page of today's paper.

Acting Mayor Bowden, of Allegheny, fined a countryman two dollars and a half, yesterday, for driving over the bridge at the Diamond.

New Bell.—The Second Ward, Allegheny, Public School House has been furnished with a new bell in place of the old one, which was broken some time ago.

Latest Monthly.—W. A. Glidden, No. 45 Fifth avenue, has received the April number of the "Atlantic and Monthly," "Lady's Book," and "Our Young Folks."

Call at the Universalist Hall, on the corner of Third avenue and Grant street, to-night and next night in the pleasure of the author. The velocities, with the exploits and manoeuvres thereon, cause infinite merriment.

Mr Charles Thompson, a resident of Allegheny, while exercising his bicycle on St. Clair street, yesterday, ran into a passing vehicle. The bicycle was demolished, but Mr. Thompson fortunately escaped serious injury.

April Magazines.—Pittcock, newsdealer, opposite the Postoffice, Fifth avenue, has sent us the Atlantic, Godey's and Harper's Monthly for April. They are filled with interesting and instructive reading matter, and will be received regularly by all the leading periodicals.

The leading weeklies, literary, political and pictorial, will also be found on his counters.

Important to Pennsylvania Reserves.—By the provisions of the act of incorporation of the Reserves, the men in possession of term of service, are entitled as though they served their full term of enlistment. This will give to each member of the Reserve corps who has not received his discharge a sum of money, in addition to his pay, for further information apply to Hall Patter- son, No. 71 Grant street.

Cross Suit.—We gave the particulars yesterday of a case of assault and battery, in which Dr. Young, a lawyer from Sharpsburg, appeared as prosecutor, and George Belstein one of the three defendants. Subsequently Belstein made information before Alexander Kuhman again. Young, however, did not prosecute. The alleged offence consists in selling liquor to George Belstein Jr., a youth about sixteen years of age. The accused was arrested and after a hearing, in default of bail in the sum of three hundred dollars, committed for trial.

City Insurance.—The Committee on City Property of the Allegheny Council have awarded the insurance on the City Buildings to the Eureka, Monongahela and Boatmen's Insurance Companies of this city, for three years, they having been the lowest and best bidders for the contract as authorized by the Council. The whole amount is $55,000 of which $25,000 is on City Hall and $10,000 on the Market House. The risk is at the rate of 3½ cents per hundred for the three years.

Elegant Accoutrements.—The silver lantern awarded to the most popular Railroad Conductor by the Wesley Chapel Fair, was handed over yesterday to Mr. C. M. Ludwick, Conductor on the Western Pennsylvania road, he having received the same by vote. The lamp consisted of pure coin metal, of exquisite workmanship, manufactured by Mr. Dunseath, the well known jeweler. Mr. Hugh Forrester was at the same time presented with a handsome silver-plated lantern in token of appreciation.

Special Appointment.—Special policemen have been appointed by the Allegheny Park Commissioners to prevent all trespassing on the grounds under their care, or in any way, in or about the trees, plants, flowers, &c., in the same. This action has been found necessary to properly protect the Park from the raids made upon it by vicious boys and others, who have been known to damage the flower beds, and causing considerable damage therby. There is an ordinance recently passed by Council, in reference to this matter, which the Commissioners are determined to rigidly enforce.

Mortuary Report.—Dr. W. Salves, Physician of the Board of Health, reports the following interments in the city of Pittsburgh from March 7 to March 14, 1869:

Males..... 22 Females..... 15 Colored..... 0 Total..... 37

The diseases in the above cases were: Typhus, 1; Pneumonia, 1; Debility, 1; Congestion of lungs, 3; Bronchitis, 1; Tuberculosis, 2; Malaria, 1; Convulsions, 1; Hydrocephalus, 1; Hypertrophy of Heart, 1; Hydrocephalus, 1; Ossification, 1; Still Born, 3; Hydrocephalus, 1.

Of the above there were under one year, ten from one to two, one from two to five, two from five to ten, from ten to twenty, two from twenty to thirty, three from thirty to forty-one, from forty-one to fifty-two.

Sap Stealing.—A confidence man on a small scale, who called at Sawyer & Co.'s store, on Wood street, Thursday afternoon, and requested that he had been sent by Mr. D. T. Johnson, Superintendent of the Allegheny Poor Farm, to get some soap. He obtained five boxes of the article, which he subsequently attempted to dispose of to a grocery keeper in Allegheny. The grocer, thinking the soap was offered, at a low price, and the soap was offered, assumed that something was wrong, and after prevailing upon the man to leave it until the next morning, called upon Meares, Sawyer & Co., when he learned that the transaction was a fraud. The confidence man must have heard something of the developments, as he failed to call yesterday morning according to his agreement.

There are a number of usages which are now in existence, but which will disappear, as they should be, as gone but the good will suffer, there can be no just complaint. It would be well, however, for all of our readers to look about them now, just at the opening of spring, when this is done, to consider the consequences of the same. If ever, they are so bold as to let them be prominent in proper order, "A word to the wise is sufficient."

SCHOOL ELECTIONS.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—SPEEDY JUSTICE.

The annual Spring elections were held yesterday in the several townships and throughout this State. In this locality the day was, as usual, a very disagreeable one, but notwithstanding the inclement weather, so far as we have been able to ascertain, the vote polled was heavier than usual in Spring Elections. We give below the result on the south side of the river, so far as we have been able to ascertain it.

In East Birmingham the contest was attended with unusual interest, as there were several matters of local nature involved in the canvass, and a decided effort was made to defeat the Republican candidate for Burgess, August Ammon, who was misrepresented in many respects, but all to no purpose, as he was elected by a handfull of votes.

In the contest, as usual, was a close one, and the result was decided by a handfull of votes. The election in the county was as usual a close one, and the result would indicate that party lines had not been drawn very strictly. Justice Salisbury, the Democratic candidate for Burgess, was elected by a small majority, and the other offices are filled by Republicans.

In South Pittsburgh the contest was close and resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket, with one exception.

In Monongahela borough the vote was quite large, but the contest appeared to be a three man affair, as there were three candidates for Burgess, all from the Republican party.

The election in the several boroughs named was as follows:
