M. B. ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Much Business Transacted—Those Admitler, Harris H. Hogan, Joseph W. Miles, Milton M. Sweeney, D. Dudley, William D. Sleise, James H. Mann.

The Board of Stewards report $8,413,99 received this year for the worn out Preachers, and the widows and orphans of Preachers. This is a grand sum—in excess of any former year. In taking care of our beneficence no Conference excelled us; none, I think, equals us. Of this we may be justly proud. Several Committees have reported and

This evening the Anniversary of the Church Extension Society is being held. Rev. J. A. Gray, of Chicago, who is to take charge of Christ Church, in your city, provided he can got a transfer, makes one of the addresses, and Dr. Dempsey the other. MONDAY, March 22.

Yesterday was a high day. It was clear and bright; and the people enjoyed it and its privileges very much. All the churches were crowded and their pulpits filled by ministers from the Conference. The Methodist Church was, of course, the place of greatest attraction. A Conference love feast was held at 8½ o'clock A. M., at which there were many witnesses for Jesus. Old men and young and women told their religious experience. God was present and blessed his people. At 10% o'clock Bishop Ames preached a At 10% o'clock Disnop Alnes presented a thoughtful, appropriate and earnest sermion, after which the deacons were ordained. At 3 o'clock Dr. Drummond preached and all the elders were ordained. In the evening Rev. McMullen, of Indians, delivered a sermon that set everything on fire. He is a wonderful man, wonderful as to voice, manner and power. He closed with a shout and the whole audience seemed to catch the enthusiasm. There was intense feeling. Songs of praise were sung in which the vast multitude present joined, and I may hear better singing this side of Heaven, but I doubt it very much.

At two o'clock P. M. Conference met for its closing session.

The report on the State of the Church has a resolution in it, which was adopted, disapproving of all church fairs and feshas a resolution in it, which was adopted, disapproving of all church fairs and fes-tivals, and condemning dancing and theatre-going.

The assets of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate exceed its liabilities by $12,000, and it has a circulation of 13,000 copies. Its editors received the commendation of the Conference for the able and effi-cient manner in which they perform their duties. A series of resolutions of thanks were passed by a unanimous and very hearty vote, to the citizens of New Philadelphia, for the generous manner in which they entertained the members of the Conference. This was most certainly their due, for a cleverer set of people than these Philadelphians it has not been our fortune to meet. They know how to do the right thing by their quests.

Their town is rapidly improving and bids fairly to be a city shortly. The church in which the Conference held its sessions is a new building, large, well-finished and furnished, has a tower and steeple, and a sweet-toned bell, from the on motion of Mr. Ward, Council adjourned to meet on next Friday evening.

Notice was given that the special Committee appointed to confer with the Fresident and Directors of the Monongahela Valley Railroad Committee, will meet at the office of Burgess Ammon, in East Birmingham, on next Thursday evening.
