APPLETON'S JOURNAL

A WEEKLY PAPER,

Devoted to Literature, Science and Art.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL WIll be devoted to popular current literature, an ergan of advanced platon with respect to all the great interests of iciery, of popular science in its pest sense, and Art. The department of Literature will embrace: Fiction, in the form of both Serial Rection, in the form of both Serial Novels and Short Stories.

Essays upon Literary and Social Topies, Sketches of Travet and Adventure; Discussions upon Art, Books, and kindred themes;
Papers upon all the various subjects that perfain to the pursuits and recreations of the people, whether of town or country; and Poems by our foremost poets.

A distinctive feature will be a fuller treatment of Science than is prevaient in popular journals. In this branch the Publishers have secured the services of the ablest and most authoritative thinkers, man who combine large and accurate knowledge with the power of clear and imprestive steep out. Education, in its various aspects, personal and buble, at home, in the school, and in the college, in its principles as a science, and in its practice as an art, will receive the full consideration to which it is undeniably entitled. Illustrations will iorm an important feature in the plan of the JOURNAL. Nearly every number will be accompanied by either an Illustrated Suppelment on some pop-A Steel Engraving in the best style of the Art, or a large Cartoon en-graved on wood.

Novelty, freshness, and continual change will be aimed at in this department. The Illustrations will usually be valuable as works of ark those on steel, and the Carbons, consisting of views of American scenery, by our most distinguished painters, and illustrations of character and life, by our foremost draughtsmen. They will be pristed with extra care on separate sheets, and may be either bound in the volume at the close of the year, or framed to hang upon the wall. The JOURNAL, in this feature, will be unlike any other. wall. The JOHEMAL, in this feature, will os unlike any other.

APPLETON'S JOHEMAL will aim to be vigorous, earnest, and capable; valuable as an organ of thought, and pleasing to all the members of the household on seconnt of its varied, sound, and entertaining literature.

Arrangements are in progress to secure original contributions from distinguished writers, both of Europe and America.

In the first number will be commenced

THE NEW STORY, BY THE GREAT FRENCH WRITER, VICTOR HUGO,

ENTITLED THE MAN WHO LAUGHS,"

"By the King's Command." For which the French publishers paid the distin-guished Author 300,000 trancs. guissed Author 300,000 Francs.
This novel has been in the Author's workshop for twenty years, the idea of it having arisen in his mind contemporaneously with that of "Les Miserables." M. Hugo tries his power in a new field, that of English history and English character, of which he has been a student and observer during his Jersey extile.

Price 10 Cents per Number, or $4 per annum, in advance. For sale by all Newsmen.

Terms for Cinbs may be obtained of the Pub-ishers. Specimen copies sent gratis upon application.

The postage within the United States, for the JURNAL is 20 cents a year, payable yearly, semi-yearly, in advance, at the office where received. Subscriptions from Canada must be accompanied with 30 cents additional to prepay the United States postage.

In remitting by mail, a post-office order or draft, payable to the order of D. Appleton & Co., is preferable to bank notes, as if lost, the order or draft can be recovered without loss to the sender. In ordering the JOURNAL, the name should be clearly given, with the post-office, county, and State in full.
