Notice to Our Readers - And subscriber proposing to remove on the first of April, should leave the number of his present residence, and of that to which he designs removing, at our counting room, so that his paper may be left without interruption by the carrier.

The Market Committee of Councils will hold a meeting at their room on Friday evening next.

Gone.—Felix Lafferty, a well known sporting sportleman of this city, died at his residence on Smithfield Street last evening about seven o'clock.

Suicide.—Charles Jones, a telegraph operator, formerly of this city, com-mitted suicide at Gallsburg, Illinois, on Saturday evening last, by taking lauda-

A. Grand Success -- Eighty-six thousand (86,000) of Appleton's Journal, No. 1 disposed of on Saturday, the day of publication. A new edition will be prin-

The latest dodge given away is a puzzle sheet containing nearly a dozen first rate puzzles, each puzzle bearing the adver-tisement of a new toilet article—Milk of Violets for whitening the skin-they are presented free by all Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Birmingham druggists.

Committed .- May Gordon made information before Alderman Lindsay yester-day against Wm. Allen for surety of the peace, and Bridget Allen for disorderly conduct. The parties reside in the Sixth ward, and are neighbors. The accused were arrested and committed for a hearing.

Paying Up.—Yesterday the Super-intendent of the Manchester Railway called at the Controller's office and paid three hundred dollars, the amount due by that Company as reperted to Councils on Monday. The managers of the road thought they had compiled with the law, but seeing by the proceedings of Monday's Councils they had not, called at once and paid the amount due.

Dispute Regarding Ownership.-H. Goldstein made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Carrie Vaughn for trover and conversion. The prosecutor states he placed in the care of Carrie a lot of household furniture, valued at two hundred and seventy-five dollars, which she refused to return when called upon to do so. A warrant was issued for the arrest of

A Compromise. John Rupp made information before Alderman Strain yes-terday against Henry Britch for aggra-vated assault and battery. The accused keeps a salcon on Water street. The prosecutor alleges he was sitting in the saloon Saturday evening, when Britch attacked and beat him with an ax-handle over the head. The parties were brought together at the Alderman's office, and after some talk compromised the case. Rupp withdrawing the charge.

Held for Triel.—The Allegheny night police Monday evening arrested two young men, named respectively Gleise and Neyman, who were suspected of being two of the gang of rowdies who assaulted two gentlemen on the Troy Hill road, in the Seventh ward, Sunday after-noon. Yesterday morning the prisoners had a hearing, at which they were iden-tified by one of the presence expected. e of the persons assaulted. The Mayor accordingly held each for trial in the sum of three hundred dollars.

. . . .

118

Till Robbed, Alderman Donaldson yesterday committed to jail for a further ing David Hawthorne, a boy about stealing money from the till of Mr. Ham-ilton Biskeley's milk wagon, which had been standing in the yard of Hare's Hotel during the absence for a few min-ates of the milkman. The other twe boys succeeded in making their escape with about six dollars in their possession.

Twenty Dollars and Costs.—Edward Gildernew was arrestedly esterday by the Mayor's police on a charge of disorderly conduct and required to pay a fine of $20 and costs. It appears that Edward and his brother Felix got into a fight Saturday evening, and an officer interfered and arrested them, whereupon Edward resisted and succeeded in escaping for the time, but Felix was taken to the Mayor's office, where, after a hearing, he Mayor's office, where, after a hearing, he was committed for thirty days in default of the required fine. The officers sucseeded in arresting Edward yesterday.

Literary.—We have received from the Methodist Book Depository specimens of Foreign Correspondence Paper, Editor's Manuscript, Contributor's Manuscript, Author's Manuscript, writing papers which are specially adapted to the use of those contributing to the daily or liferary weekly newspapers. The "Literary Bulletin," from the same Depository, No. 129 Smithfield street, contains a catalogue of all the popular and stand-ard publications issued by the leading publishing houses of the country during Fined for Reckless Driving.—Thomas Smith and Michael Rice were before Mayor Drum yesterday, on complaint of Lieutenant McReberts, of the Allegheny police, who charged them with violating the city ordinance relative to rapid driv-ing through the streets of the city. The officer alleged that the accused were in a buggy on Sunday afternoon, and that they drove down Federal street at a breakness pace to the great danger of travelers along that thoroughfare. The accused were each required to pay a fine of five dollars, which is the highest per-alty prescribed by the law.

The Great Bann. Having heard the lecture on the subject of the Great Basin, delivered a few nights ago at Excelsior Hall, to a meagre, but very intelligent and delighted audience, it is with much passure that we are abiliorized to annouse that the lesare authorized to amouses that the leg-ture is to be repeated on Thursday even-ing, at the Third Presbyterian Church, and we trust that on this occasion there will be no vacant gest in the church, whose minister and trustees, should be commended for the arrangement by which the lecturals to be free. The lecturer, Rev. A. M. Stewart, will be re-membered as valunteering to serve one membered as valuntering to serve one of our Pittsbugh regiments as chaplain; with an intination that he had been taught the use of arms, and, if need be, would seve his country as gladly in the field as in the chapel, has spent nine months among and between the Rocky and Sierra Nevada Mountains, and his left the numerous warstable. lecture, with the numerous vegetable and mineral specimens which he exand mineral specimens which he say hibits, will prove an edifying and agree-able treat to those who may hear him. He will satisfy all that he has been a close and an intelligent observer of the physical and topographical wonders of the "Great Basin," and will impress them with higher conceptions of the boundless. resources of our country.

TRACHERS INSTITUTE Becond Day's Proceedings

MOBNING SESSION. The Institute met at nine o'clock, Superintendent Douthett in the chair. Prof. Campbell opened the exercises with prayer, after which Prof. H. S. Jones, of Erle, Pa., delivered a short address on the subject of English Grammar, referring to its importance as a study and

The exercises of the morning session were brought to a close by Prof. Shoemaker, of Philadelphia, who gave a lesson in elocution, reading "Hamlet's advice to the players," and "Charcoal," a humorous selection, after which the Institute adjourned until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION need at two o'clock. After the usual introductory musical exercises, Rev. C. G. Braddock was introduced and entertained the Institute with a discourse on the True and False, in relation to School Discipline. The Reverend gentleman's remarks containthe vereing gentleman's remarks contain-ee many valuable and practical hints on the difficult question of enforcing discip-line in the schools, which the teachers present would do well to put in practice nereafter. Mrs. Smith was the next speaker. She continued her lecture on Geography, illustrating and enforcing by the outline map, her idea of teaching, in an interesting manner.

Prof. B. G. Northrop followed Miss. Prof. B. G. Northrop followed Miss. Smith in a brief address on the incentives to study, which he maintained should be held out in the home government of the pupil. Here they could be more power-fully brought to bear upon the pupil, and that work of the teacher would be thirteen years of age, on a charge of lar-ceny. The accused, in company with two others, was detected in the act of in a government like ours, the principle of free and universal education must, as provisions accordingly made for its sup-port. The experiment of self-govern-ment, if ever successful, would be so only in a government where knowledge among the masses was encouraged. In America the greatest reason of her success could be traced to the refinement and culture of the people. He further argued that an educational department should be ettached to the further argued that an educational de-partment should be attached to the national government: Ignorance is dan-gerous to the State, and should be done gerous to the State, and should be done away with if at all possible.

The speaker cencluded by expressing fear that the Republic was in greater peril from a large portion of its population being devoid of that degree of intelligence necessary to make good citizens, than from any other danger, and urgently appealed to the friends of education and patriots everywhere to make strenuous exertions to advance educational facilities throughout the country.

At the conclusion of the able address the Philharmonic Society sung "OM Hundred," after which the Institute adjourned, with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Beecher.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe —Trial of John Bell, Charles Proutt and Thomas C. Gribam for Areon.

SECOND DAY. TUESDAY, March 30.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Bell, Charles Proutt and That. C. Graham, indicted for arson, was raumed.

Bernard Duffy was placed on the stand again and cross-examined by Mr. Gibson: On the evening of the fire met Proutt and Graham in the alley back of the ported, was concluded yeste shop; met Graham first, This may have jury was still out. been about half past six o'clock; we rat the candles in and split the pine; set up a whole candle in each bux the boxes were not placed where they would catch the varnish; basement was full of boxes.

Proutt cameout of the cellsulate I have a key and let Graham in first. Bell agreed.

No. 56. Clayton vs. Seibert.
No. 71. Cambbell vs. Lamm. me many times to set the store ou lire; three times he went away and urged me to do it while he was absent; was in the building some twenty minutes the night of the dre. The examination was con-tinued at considerable length, but nothtinued at considerable length, but nothing further of importance was elicited.

Mr. LeRoy testified that on the 12th of October he lent thirty dollars on a gold watch, and that receipt was signed by John Ball, with the name of Juo. Black.

Mrs. Davis sworn—Diffey Doarded at my house in October; he boarded with me from the last of June to the 10h of October; after the fire had a conversation October; after the fire had a conversation with Bell; went to his store to see if I

Mrs. Duffey, sworn—Hed a conversa-tion with Bell two weeks before the fire; him and asked him to get Shea out of the road, and that he (Bell,) after frequent conversations, had handed witness eight to give to Shea, who afterwards left the distance out of town. When we had city. Bell had told witness restrict that Shea taken our seat we began to survey the sitwould be used as a witness against him; and he wanted him out of the road. The witness also testified that Bell also offered him (Pancoast) money if he would not testify what he knew about the affair, and that he frequently approached him on the subject and tried to induce him to absent himself. That Bell came to see

R. M. Gibson, Esq., opened the case for the defense. He said that it had probably struck the jury that they were trying a strange case, and before it was concluded it would grow stronger. He said that it must strike the jury that Duffey was a very bad man, and, in his way, an able man. Were it not for his testiment, the Comprehense of the contraction. testimony the Commonwealth's case would have no foundation, and there could be no conviction. He claimed that it would be shown that the charges against the defendant were utterly groundless; the defence expected to establish the fact by reliable witnesses.

tablish the fact by reliable witnesses.

Witnesses were then called as follows:

John Watt, sworn—Have worked for Mr. Bell, at his trunk store, for the past five years; became acquainted with Duffy in 1862; he commenced to work in Bell's shop in 1863; he went away and come back in Inne last: Genham came there back in June last; Graham came there on the third of October last; he boarded on the third of October last; he boarded in Allegheny; he was hired by Gillespie; Bell was away at the time; he became acquainted with Prout in May; Mr. Bell was absent in Ohio when Graham came there; he had been gone about a week; Graham worked in third story; Duffey and a number of others worked in the next story; Duffey and a number of others worked in the next story; Duffey boarded with me; before the fire the key to the back door was lost or was taken from me, and I afterwards—the key for me, and I afterwards—after, the fire—found the key in some rubbish from the bench where Duffy had count of his first appearance in print.

Rev. Thos. K. Beecher next addressed that for Institute, on the subject of "Government and the execution of laws." The speaker, in his remarks, contended that in a government like ours the surge law of the speaker, in his remarks, contended that in a government like ours the surge law of the speaker, in his remarks, contended that in a government like ours the surge law of the surge law of the speaker, in his remarks, contended that in a government like ours the surge law of the surge la sounded. I left Pront at the boarding house at a quarter past seven o'clock on the evening of the tire.

On cross-examination nothing new was elicited. Witness said that he and Dufty were not on very bad terms; Duffy hit him alongside the jaw one night.

Thomas Gillespie, sworn—Was book-keeper at the store at the time of the fire; and the day after the fire harder after the fire purity. on Monday after the fire Duffy came in and Mr. Bell told him to leave; that he did not want such a man about his prem-Mr. Wilson did not come; turned off the gas and left; I think Duffy said at the earing before the Mayor that he was not

No. 190. Com.vs. Tho's Williams et al. 14i. Com. vs. Wm. C. Armstrong

stics Wm. Jackson.
No. 189. Com. vs. John Kurtz.
No. 140. Com. vs. James Brown et al.
No. 90. Com. vs. J. R. Larimer.
No. 88. Com. vs. Wm. Bowers, No. 34. Com. vs. George Ornsburg. No. 166. Com. vs. G. Tobias. No. 316. Com. vs. Wm. W. Keenan.

District Court_Judge Kirkpatrick. TUESDAY, March 30 .- Charles B. Taylor vs. Samuel Chadwick. Action in ejectment. Juror withdrawn and plaintiff takes non suit.

Owners of towboat "Lioness" vs. owners of towboat "Panther," previously reported, was concluded yesterday and the Samuel Rowan et ux vs. Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad. Action for damages alleged to have been sustained by the killing of plaintiff ason at Edgewood Sta-

TRIAL LIST FOR WEDNESDAY. No. 71. Campbell vs. Lamm.

No. 62. Cooper for use vs. Knap.
No. 68. Henneman vs. Monongahela
Valley Coal Co.
No. 87. Dickey & Co. vs. Bender & Co.
No. 88. Faverly vs. Bender & Co.
No. 90. Young vs. Peoples Line Steam-No. 97. Hanen vs. Balentine.

ommon Pless-Judges Sterrett and Mellon, TURSDAY, March 80.—No busine public importance was transacted in this Court, the time being occupied in disposing of cases in the Orphans' Court on the argument list.

The Old Folks Concert. The second concert of the "Old Folks," uation, and looking before and behind us. we saw a large number of very respectable looking ladies, whose countenances were radiant with delight, poring over dress on the subject of English Grammar, referring to its importance as a study and the necessity of thorough instruction. He closed by giving a number of examples of the result of defective teaching. A brief it is result of defective teaching and the seems of the former should be first taught in the schools. He discussed thus proposition at some length, and gave illustrations of the manner in which instruction should be imparted.

The juvenile choir then rendered a song in a pleasing style, since which may be brought out during the manner of seaching regoraphy. The spanners of the stable in the second of the same of the anner in which instruction should be first taught in the schools. He discussed thus proposition at some length, and gave illustrations of the manner in which instruction should be imparted.

The juvenile choir then rendered a song in a pleasing style, since which may be brought out during the recitation are perfectly familiar to the spanner of seaching regoraphy. The spanners of the same of the sheets somewhat more diminutive in size than the GAZETTE. Our curiosity was were reading similar documents, we felt convinced that they were not sorry that they had also attended the great sale of spring dry goods, now in successful pro-gress at Messrs. Barker & Co's, on Market street. But we must confess that we were somewhat sold, as from the numbest. Go and see for yourself. ber of papers that were being read we at first came to the conclusion that a new daily rival had been started by some ambitious but reckless individual.

Vestrymen Elected. On Easter Monday, in accordance with the usual custom, elections for vestrymen were held in a number of the Episcopal churches. Following are the names of those elected in some of the churches

EMANUEL CHURCH, ALLEGHENY .-Medutchean

Medutchean

Messrs. Jas. C. Doane, Philip Wilson, Jas. A. Hutchison, E. H. Williams, John H. Grouard, Charles Starrett, Henry D. Rutton, John R. McKelvy, George Hollins, Malcolm Hay, John McClurg, R. G. McClurchean McCutcheon.

Slate for Roofing. Some two or three years ago the Twin City Slate Company was organized, did not want such a man about his premises; Duffy saked me to give him a dollar, saying in a pitful manner that he had no money; I did not give him any money, as there was none due him; I went back to the store on the evening of the fire, at about half-past six o'clock, to meet Mr. Slate business his personal attention in Wilson on a business matter; the gas was Wilson on a business matter; the gas was all its practical parts, from mining to the lighted; I remained until seven o'clock; hving of slate on roofs. His long expelaying of slate on roofs. His long experience in the manufacturing business, hearing before the Mayor that he was not in the city on the night of the fire; that is my recollection of his testimony.

Court adjourned till the usual hour this morning.

TRIAL LIST FOR WEDNESDAY.

TRIAL LIST FOR WEDNESDAY.

And TRIAL LIST FOR WEDNESDAY.

and TRIAL LIST FOR MEDNESDAY.

been of great value to him in advancing the Slate business, here and elsewhere. Yesterday we had the pleasure of seeing some splendid specimens of fine Slate plates manufactured by a machine gotten which is now in use and full knowledge of machinery, has plates manufactured by a machine gotten-up by Mr. Newmyer, which is now in use and has proven to be a great success in the manufacture of Slate for roofing. Through the energy of Mr. Newmyer, the price has been reduced in the market, from three to four dollars per market, from three to four dollars per square, and in this way popularizing Slate and introducing it more extensively, so that he has probably transacted the largest business ever done in this City or State. With largely increased facilities for doing even a more extensive business than every in his line, and is likewise much better prepared to meet the demands for Siste, and to give his personal supervision to the laying of the same. He employs the most, akilled, mechanics in that branch of business, and guarantees satisfaction in all work entrusted, to his satisfaction in all work entrusted to his care. We take much pleasure in com-mending Mr. Newmyer to the confidence and patronage of any of our readers, who may have Slating work to be done, as we have long known him as a careful and attentive business gentleman.

Watch Stolen-The Thief Arrested and

Monday evening Christ France visited

saloon on Smithfield street and there fell in, as he states, with a young Frenchman, who was exceedingly attentive and friendly to him during the evening. His new friend treated him several times and evinced his friendship by embracing France occasionally. At length France missed his watch, and on looking around for his new friend, to inform him of his for his new friend, to inform him of his loss, missed him also, and was led to believe that the watch and the Frenchman had departed together. The description given of the Frenchman created the impression that the Frenchman who had decamped with the watch was none other than Charles Roberts, and France, accompanied by an officer, visited his place of rendezvous in an alley off Seventh avenue, with a warrant for his arrest. They found Roberts in bed, and the hook that had been attached to France's watch chain was found lying upon a table in tion with Bell two weeks before the fire; went to Bell to see where Duffey was; Bell told me that Duffey had gone to Cleveland, and that he (Bell) was going away I saked Bell for money and he gave me five dollars.

James S. Pancoat, proprietor of the Commercial Duffing Salcon, on Wood street, was next called. He testified that at the time of the fire he had a man named Shes in his employ, and that This property in timate. The parts of the holds are proceeded for the part with his captors. They started, but had proceeded but a short distance when commercial Duffing Salcon, on Wood that at the time of the fire he had a man named Shes in his employ, and that This process is being arranged for, to be held on the way in the process of the holds. The performances are on the proceeded but a short distance when construction with the entertainment. We under the fire he had a man named Shes in his employ, and that grand fashionable mather than the time of the fire he had a man named Shes were very intimate. The transfer Duffey's arrest Bell came to Such a treat should be largely patronized. Bound for England.

Monday morning the wife of a coal miner, at Walker's Mills, a short distance from Pittsburgh, made her appearance at the Union Depot, on her way to New York from whence she was, according to her statement, to start to England back to her friends. She had a strange story to tall. ell. Her husband was sober, industrius and kind. She had four children, the youngest being about four years of age.
All her domestic relations were of the All her domestic relations were of the most happy character, but still she was not contented, because Walker's Mills was too countryfied a place, and she couldn't live there. This was her story. Soon after she had arrived at the depot, her husband also arrived, in pursuit. They two met. He tried every possible inducement for her to return, but all were unavailing. She didn't like Walker's Mills, and wouldn't go back. At length the dejected man seized her carthe dejected man seized her carpet sack which contained her clothing, and sorrowfully departed. The lady still held out, and avowed her determination counts she was walting the train to carry her to New York. Strange, but true.

Laugh and Grow Fat. Coming up Wood street vesterday we met a very elegantly dressed and handsome young lady, mouth and cheeks as tempting as red apples in an orchard, and langhing all over at one time. Being slightly acquainted with her she stopped us and said: "Dogon Knows, I feel as happy as a baby in a sugar barre!" Of course I asked her why, and imagine our surprise when she said, "Well, Pa gave me one hundred dollars to buy a trunk, satchel and some other articles."

That Spring is here is evinced brilliant display of hew goods if brilliant display of hew goods i trunk, satchel and some other article trunk, satchel and some other articles necessary to take my usual spring trip, and by good luck I dropped in at Joe Liebler's and got the handsomest outfit in his line in this city for less than half what I formerly paid other houses, consequently have the balance saved, which, of course, I'll return to Pa." To the reader: Liebler, at 104 Wood street, does sell you all kinds of trunks for traveling for one-half what you formerly paid, and warrants them to be the very best. Go and see for yourself.

Queensware, Bristol-ware, &c., &c. We have heretofore called the attention of our readers to the wares manufactured at the Keystone Pettery, S. M. Kier & Co., proprietors. We desire, Kier & Co., proprietors. We desire, however, to do so again, from the assurance we feel that in no other establishment in this city can they be better suited, either as regards price or quality. The Queensware and Bristol-ware on exhibition, and which is being daily disposed of at their warehouse, No. 363 Liberty street, is fully equal to that heretofore imported, and for which much higher prices, in many instances, have been paid. Those who may doubt this statement should visit the warehouse, whether they wish to purchase or not, and satisfy themselves by a personal inspection of the wares manufactured. Remember the place, 363 Liberty street.

spection of the wares manufactured. Remember the place, 363 Liberty street Good Appointments. The new Cabinet appointments are received with general favor throughout the country, and the appointments at the well established and largely patronized Continental Dining Salcon; over which our worthy friend and fellow-citizen Mr. Holtzheimer presides with so much ease, grace and dignity, are superior to those of any other establishment of its character in the city. Everybody and everybody's friends who have ever visited the Continental and taken a meditary than care. Continental and taken a meal there are fully aware of this fact, and those who have not yet been there have only to call and take a square meal to be convinced Everything is kept in the most perfect order, and meals are served at all hours at the most reasona-

What They Will Do. Dr. Ross' Remedies are purely vegetable preparations, and are doing more good to the people than any other medigood to the people than any other medi-cines ever offered to the public. They are sold at one dollar per bottle, and generally one or two bottles have the de-sired effect. We make a specialty of the following diseases, and warrant a cure in every case: Acute or Chronic Rheuma-tism, Catarrh, we have cured hundreds of cases, some of long standing; Dyspep-sia, we believe we have the best remedy for this disease ever compounded. For for this disease ever compounded. For diseases of the Throat and Lungs our Tar Compound is doing wonders. Dr. Ross' Remedies are manufactured and for sale wholesale and retail, at Nos. 28 and 28 Sixth street, (late St. Clair.)

Where to Purchase. W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market screet, has opened up a large, and varied stock of dress trimmings, fancy goods, &c., do., at his establishment, to which he invites the attention of ladies purchasing vites the attention of ladies purchasing spring outfits. The stock embraces everything usually offered for sale in a first class trimming and fancy dress goods store, and in price, quality, and style will be found fully equal to anything ever offered in Pittsburgh. Those of our readers who desire anything in this line should remember 81 Market street, and not forced to dell before nurchasing elsenot forget to call before purchasing else-

Chapped Hands, face and all roughness of the skin, certainly cured by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hagard & Co., New York. It surpasses all other remedies ast will prevent roughness of the skin if used during cold weather. It is easily applied, avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used. avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used by ladies with the most tender skin, without irritation or pain, making it soft. and clear. Sold by the druggists gener-

Truth is Mighty and will Prevail. If you don't believe us when we say Lei-bler, at No. 104 Wood street, sells the best trunks, valises, satchels, &c., for less money than any good house in Pitts-burgh, go and examine for yourself. He is at all times pleased to show his stock, and have you compare his prices with other houses.

Reader have you ever tried the Aromatic Coffee put up in pound packages, browned and ready for use, by Strickler. & Morledge, proprietors of the famous Iron City Spice Mills, Fifth avenue, near High street. "It is the best and purest Coffee in the market, and after once using the housekeeper will have no other.

number.

Ask Your Greers for pure mustard and spices and take none that does not bear the brand of Strickler & Morledge, Iron City Spice Mills, Bifth avenue, near High street.

"Black and Colored Silks selling cheap at J. M. Burchfield & Colos, No. 52 St. Clair street. Liebler's No. is 104 Wood street.

Eagan, at his book and stationery store, Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street, has one of the largest and best selected stocks of books and stationery that can be found or books and stationery that can be found in the city, which he is selling at wonderfully reduced prices. All the latest periodicals and magazines will be found on his counter. Persons in need of any articles in his line will do well to call examine bis stock.

Books and Stationery.-Col. J. D.

Whitman's Celebrated Commercial, Breakfast, Double Extra. Vanilla, Tourists, and Great American Chocolates, Fine Jordan Almonds, Iceland Moss Paste, Flag Root, Coltsfoot, Rock, Crystalized and Smooth Licerice Drops, Hard and Soft Gum Drops, Marshmallow Drops, and all kinds of pure Lozenges, and extra-fine Cream Bon-Bons, at 112 Federal street, Allegheny.

3t. George Beaven.

Those who desire to make selections and sorrowfully departed. The lady still of choice dress patterns for Spring held out, and avowed her determination to carry out her original design of going to her friends in England. At last accounts she was waiting the truly to grare.

spring Goods have just been received at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue! Ladies will find in their large stock all the novelties yet introduced in Eastern market. That Spring is here is evinced

A fine assortment of houldry goods is included in the sistock of new spring goods just opene. Bates and Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

All the latest novelties in dress goods for Spring wear, direct from the import-ers, just opened at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

Beautiful new styles of fresh Spring goods have just been received and opened at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth

Have you examined the fine stock of new dry goods fresh from the importers and manufacturers, at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

The attractive stock of fresh dry goods just opened at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenne, should be seen by all our lady readers. The selections and assortments are very fine.

ment of new Spring dry goods, embracing all the latest styles and patterns in domestic and foreign goods, at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

Ladles will find a magnificent assort-

A Grand Opening of Spring goods he been made at Bates and Bell's dry good store, No. 21 Fifth avenue. Full assortment of new Spring god ust opened at Bates & Bell's dry goo house, No. 21 Fifth avenue. The Spring fashions are now opened Bates & Bell's dry goods house, No. 2 Fifth avenue.

Every lady should have one of those nice shopping satchels, for sale at Lieb-ler's, 101 Wood street.

Ladles go to 104 Wood street when out to-day promenading and see somethin handsome. We know you want one. J. M. Burchfield & Co.'s, No. 52 St. Clair Plain, Pink, Buff and Blue Percleos, just received at J. M. Burchfield & Co.'s, No. 52 St. Clair street.

New Table Linens, Towels, Napkins and Prints just opened at J. M. Burchfield & Co.'s, No. 52 St. Clair street.

New Styles Cloaks, walking coats and sacques just introduced at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

DIED. SOMERVILLE - Near Stockton, California, March 8, 1969, MARY H. SUMERVILLE, for-mer.y of Allegheny City, aged thirty-three years.

UNDERTAKERS.

ALEX. AIKEN, UNDERTAKER, No. 166 FOURTH STREET, Plusburgh, Pa COFFINS of all kinds, ORAPES, GLOVES, and every description of Funeral Furnishing Goods fornished. Rooms open day and night. Hearse and Carriages furnished.
BEFERENCES-BEV. DATIO KETT, U.D., BEV. M.
W. Jacobus, D. D., Thomas Ewing, Esq., Jacob
H. Miller, Esq.

CHARLES & PEEBLES, UNDERTAKERS AND LIVERY STABLES, COURSE 1. 6 AND UNKY STREET AND CHURCH AVENUE Allegheny City, where shelf COPFIN ROODIS as e constantly supplied with real and imitation he ewood, Mahogany and Walunt Coffins, at prices varying from $2 to $100. Bodies prepared for intrment. Hearses and Carriages farmished: also, ill sinds of Mourning Goods, if required. Office of en at all hours, day and night.

DOBT. T. RODNEY, UNDER-DOBT. T. RODNEY. UNDER.
TAKER AND EMPALIMEN, No. 45 OHIO STREET. Allegheny, seeps constantly on hand a large assortment of residy-made Coffins of the fillowing Rinds: First, the celebrated American Eural Cases, Metallio Self-sealing Air-tight Cases and Caskets, and Rosewood, Walnut and Rosewood 'Initiation Coffins. Owner, of the from $35 upwards, and no pains will be spared to give entire satisfaction.' Crape and Gloves furnished free of charge. Best Hearses and Car riages furnished on short notice. Carriages furnished to funerals at $4.

HENRY G. HALE,

MERCHANT TAILOR. Would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that his

SPRING STOCK OF GODDS IS NOW COMPLETE.

SOLICITING AN EARLY CALL Corner of Penn and Sixth Streets.

mis . W HESPENHEID & CO. No. 50 SIXTH SPREET, (late St. Clair,) have just received from the East the best Are you going to be Married ! If so go to Liebler's, 104 Wood, street, he can sell you the trunk you want. The nicest and best trunk for the least money of any house in the city. 104 Wood street is his number: dil assortment of GENTLEMEN'S TURNISH. ING GOODS are at all times to be found at this house, Our Number 18 50 SINTH STREET.

> THOS, F. DALL, M. Different R. B. SUTTON, M. D. THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE ASSOCIATED themselves together for the PRACTICE OF MEDICINE

Office, No. 16 STOOKTON AVENUE, Allegacy City, THOS. F. DALLE M. D.