PITTSBURGH MARKETS. OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 5, 1869. (The markets, in a general way, are de-void of anything that is really new or important. There is a general complaint inclusion of business hears important. There is a general complaint in commercial circles of business being dull and times hard; money tight and business weak We still in control of the same time were 12,246 barrels of flour, 9,684 bushels of wheat, 41,956 bushels of corn, 8.745 bush-els of oats, 943 bushels of rye, 400 bushcollections very hard to make. We still els barley and 1,881 hogs. collections very hard to make. We still entertain hopes, however, that there will be an improvement before long, as usu-ally business generally improves at this particular season of the year, and we see no reason why this should be an excep-tion. APPLES—Are coming in more freely, but with a steady demand, prices are maintained, ranging from $4@6 per bbl, as to quality. APPLE BUTTER—Is quiet and un-changed, at 90@$1 per gallon. positively take her departure for St. Louis and Fort Benton to-day, and she will be followed by the Nick Wall, Capt. Sugar-sales of prime New Orleans at 15% Molasses, 80c. Whiskey, 92c for Tom Pos.

BALTIMORE, April 5.-Flour quiet and Capt. James Hamilton, of the illfated Armenia, arrived home on Saturday. Clork Shepard was expected to reach here yesterday. The St. Marys arrived about noon Prime New Crop New Orleans Sugar and yesterday from Cincinnati with a very good trip. She returns again to day at 12 M., and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The St. Marys Provisions unchanged. Lard is a commodious and elegant side-wheeler, and having all the modern im-provements and conveniences, offers superior accommodations to passengers. Capt. T. C. Sweeny is in command with Morris Dorsey in the office. The Collossal, Capt. M. A. Cox, a bran new boat, built especially for the moun-tain trade, is filling up rapidly, and will leave to day for. Fort Benton. The Nick Wall, Capt. Tom Poe's new mountain boat, is also announced for Fort Benton.

Fort Benton.

-The Glendale arrived at St. Louis on Friday last.

-The Peninah and Andrew Ackley were to have left St. Louis for Fort Benton on Monday.

-The Glasgow and Messanger arrived at Quincy on Friday last, enroute from Pittsburgh to St. Paul.

-Passengers and shippers will bear in mind that the Kate Putnam, Capt. G. NEW YORK, April 5-Callle Market.-The receipts for this week were 7,172 W. Reed, leaves for Nashville to-morroy without fail. SPRING

-The Great Republic was to have left St. Louis for New Orleans on Sunday. The arrest of Capt. Donaldson, may have delayed her departure.

-James Kerr, Jr., has taken charge of the office of the Great Republic. Mr. Kerr is an old Pittsburgher, but for many years has been in the South.

-The Galatea arrived at St. Louis on Friday, the report of her sinking to the contrary notwithstanding. She met with an accident, but it was not serious as reported. -The St. Louis Democrat says: Capt.

Wm. Conley, having resigned the com-mand of the steamer Commonwealth, that boat left yesterday in commonwealth, that boat left yesterday in command of Capt: Tom Rogers. formerly of the Selma, W. H. Osborn, &c. We support that Captain Rogers' may be considered now and hereafter a St. Louis man.

-We were pained to learn on the arrival of the Arkansas that when the boat was twelve miles below Pine Bluff, her commander, Captain Shaw, met with a serious accident. He slipped near the bottom of the front stairs, and striking an bottom of the front stairs, and striking an upright spar, his knee pan was broken. The accident of course has kept him in bed ever since. In a few days he will start for his home, Wheeling, accom-panied by his daughter. The fracture is slowly healing. Capt. A. C. McConnell will no doubt be in command of the Ar-kansas while on her Benton trip.
