Union Pacific Ralitond and Fisk-Confict of Jurisdiction Between Federal and State Courts—Circular from Agents of the Central Pacific Company - Murdered and Robbed-Convention of Railroad Ticket Agents.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.) New York, April 8, 1869. Judge Biatchford this morning refused to grant a stay of proceedings in the to grant a stay of proceedings in the Union Pacific Railroad case. In the Supreme Court Judge Barnard announced he had received a letter from one of the counsel of Messrs. Durant and Cisco, stating they had concluded to act on the opinion of Judge Blatchford and not appear Joefore the Supreme Court. Mr. Field, of the counsel for Fisk, characterized Judge Blatchford's decision as a more flagrant case of extra-judicial oninmore flagrant case of extra-judicial opinion than the well known case of Dred Scott, and argued that the absorption of State powers into the Federal authority had already proceeded far enough. had already proceeded lar enough. Judge Barnard rendered an opinion acknowledging no superior but the upper courts of this State, and the Supreme Court of the United States, and anough a position of the United States. nouncing he would submit to no other. He then directed a reference in each of the contempt proceedings to ascertain Fisk's damages, and report to the Court on the 23d inst.

Messrs Fisk and Hatch, the wellknown bankers, have issued a circular for the benefit of their customers, stating for the benefit of their customers, stating that their firm is in no way concerned or interested in the litigation pending between Jas. Fisk, Jr., and the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The Central Pacific Railroad Company, for which they are agents, is a distinct and separate corporation, having distinct and separate property, and distinct and separate property, and whose standing and financial affairs have no connection with the Union Pacific Company, or the Credit Mobilier. They claim also that that the subsidies throughout the country met to-day. Forty-seven delegates were present. C. P. Clelland was chosen President. Without transacting any other business adjournment took place till to-more an adjournment took place till to-mor-row, when the reports of committees will be submitted. The main business before the convention is the adjustment of the convention is the adjustment of freight and passenger rates between New York, the west and other sections.

The mails for England, by Hamburg steamers, will hereafter be landed at Plymonth, and those for France at Cherbourg.
