

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Notice to Our Readers.—Any subscriber who removed on the first of April, should leave the number of his present residence, at our counting room, so that his paper may be left without interruption by the carrier.

Mayor Drum yesterday committed four vagrants to jail.

Returned.—Mr. Thomas W. Davis, the newly confirmed Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, arrived home from Washington yesterday, and will shortly enter upon his duties.

Seventeenth Ward school.—The school building in the seventeenth ward has been completed, and is now ready for occupancy, and the schools will open on Monday morning. The building is one of the finest in the city. It contains ten commodious rooms and a large hall. It cost about $40,000 to construct it.

Child Scalded.—Yesterday morning a little daughter of Mr. Joseph Warrington, residing on Point street, while playing around a tub of hot water, accidentally fell with its arms in the water, and was severely scalded. Dr. Phillips was called in, upon whom medical assistance in relieving the sufferings of the little victim.

Rev. Alexander Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Fifth avenue, will preach to-morrow morning at the Free Ministry of Jesus Christ—its Barriers and its Aids, in answer to the request of the Young Men's Christian Association, addressed to all the evangelical churches. Young men will be especially interested.

The Allegheny Police made a raid on the corner loafers in different localities of the city last evening and captured a large number, upon whom fines were imposed, which they paid to get released. The Allegheny authorities are making vigorous efforts to break up this offensive nuisance, but it seems like attempting to perform an impossibility, at least so it has been proved in this city.

Singular Accident.—On Wednesday afternoon last, John Johnston, a boiler maker, while engaged in repairing a boiler in Sweatt's mill, Birmingham, was severely injured by the breaking of his chisel, a piece of which glanced off and struck him in the neck, inflicting a painful wound. Dr. Roberts attended the injured man at his residence in East Birmingham. He will probably recover.

Something New.—Dr. Gillespie's improved laughing gas is pleasant to take, and entirely safe in every case. The nervous, as well as the strong, can take it with perfect safety. You feel no pain whatever, and by its use, tooth extracting is robbed of all its horrors. Then its prices for teeth are so reasonable that all can be suited.

No charge for extracting, when teeth are ordered. We advise all who need the services of an experienced and responsible dentist, to go to Dr. Gillespie, 245 Penn street.

Mortuary Report.—Dr. W. Snively, Physician of the Board of Health, reports the following interments in the city of Pittsburgh, from March 28 to April 4, 1889.

Diseases: Unknown, 1; old age, 1; infant, 1; pertussis, 1; eclampsia, 1; pneumonia, 3; bronchitis, 2; diarrhoea, 1; dysentery, 2; central congestion, 1; hemiplegia, 1; tuberculosis, 4; heart disease, 1; gastritis, 1; congestion of lungs, 1; aneurism of stomach, 1; fatty degeneration of kidneys, 1; drowning, 1; still born, 3. Males: 20; Whites: 31; Total: 52. Females: 20; Colored: 1; Total: 21.

Velocipede Contest.—Pittsburgh has made rapid headway in mastering the art of velocipede riding and our expert riders are numbered by scores. Last night a contest for a fine silver headed cane came off, in which some ten fearless riders were entered. The prize was carried away by Mr. Samuel H. Dunsheath, who made the stretch of one-half mile in one minute and forty-four seconds, remarkably good time, which secures for him, over Mr. Logan, the championship of Western Pennsylvania in this town and country, making the score in 1889; Mr. Howard Eaton was third on the list, accomplishing his half mile in 1:55. The seven other contestants made time close upon the latter figures. Pittsburghers are excelling abroad in the art, as Mr. Boyd Finck, carried off the prize of one thousand dollars, a silver medal and champion belt at a late velocipede tournament in Louisville while Mr. Hogle, of Chambers, carried away the laurels in a late contest in Philadelphia.

Sunday School Anniversary.—Sabbath afternoon last the third anniversary of the Sunday School connected with the North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, was held in the beautiful Sunday School room of the Church building. The occasion attracted a large attendance of the members and friends of the School and other workers in the cause elsewhere, all of whom manifested the liveliest interest in the proceedings. The exercises, which were of a varied and interesting character, were under the direction of the Superintendent, and evinced a proficiency on the part of the scholars creditable in the highest degree to the training they had received.

The closing part of the programme consisted of the reading of the annual report of the Secretaries, Messrs. G. D. Riddle and Thomas W. Carr, from which it appears that during the year nineteen teachers and 17 scholars have been added to the roll, nearly two hundred volumes added to the library, and over twelve hundred dollars collected for school purposes, a result which is certainly very flattering to the energy and zeal of those having the enterprise in charge. The exhibit throughout on the anniversary occasion encouraged the hearts of the officers and teachers to renewed exertions, and revealed an outlook for the future full of promise.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Thomas Baskwell; Assistant Superintendent, Henry Frantz; Secretaries, W. Frantz, James Gordon; Treasurer, F. A. Estep; Librarians, John W. Riddle, Alfred Slack, John M. McCallen, Farmer Ingman, Thomas Elmer, Alfred Scott; Superintendent of Infant Department, Miss Sallina Ackley; Assistant, Miss Frank R. Graham; Postmaster, J. B. Phillips.

Sale of Garden Seeds and Agricultural Implements.—The stock of the late firm of Beckham & Long, of seeds and implements is one of the largest, freshest and most varied in the city. By order of the assignees, Mr. Joseph Beckham, late of the firm, will conduct the sale of this extensive stock, at No. 127 Liberty street. Our numerous readers, in town and country, will find it to their interest to embrace the opportunity now offered to purchase any of the seeds required for planting or sowing in the Spring or Summer months. They can also find nearly every approved and popular variety of agricultural implements. The seeds comprising Landreth's and other standard qualities. The implements and tools being only those that have been tested and approved, and the sale being imperatively ordered to go on until all are disposed of, even at reduced prices, afford a tempting chance for the farmer and gardener to purchase, as well for future, as present use.

We understand that when the present stock shall be closed out, Mr. Beckham will resume business at the old stand of the late firm, and have always for sale the celebrated "Russell" and "Buckeye" Reapers and Mowers so generally preferred by farmers, also a complete stock of horticultural and agricultural implements, seeds, &c., for the selection of which his long experience peculiarly qualifies him.

Important Information.—The wonderful increase in the amount of tobacco consumed, during the past few years, has created such a demand for the article that manufacturers were induced thereby, owing to the scarcity of the crop, to manufacture an inferior article of both tobacco and cigars, and the result was that the country was flooded with trash, and it was almost impossible to procure a good quality of either tobacco or cigars. It is a matter of importance to the public at large to know that some establishments manufacture and keep on hand a prime and merchantable article, one of which is that of John McGraw, 46 Hand street, where there is a large assortment of the best brands of tobacco and cigars, pipes, and in fact everything to be found in a first-class tobacco house. Retail dealers will find it to their advantage to give him a call.

Resignation of Chief of Police Joseph A. Butler, and its Acceptance by Mayor Brush.

It will be seen by the following correspondence that Joseph A. Butler has tendered his resignation of the position of Chief of Police, and that the same has been accepted by Mayor Brush, to take effect on the 15th inst.

CHIEF'S OFFICE, April 9, 1889. To His Honor, J. M. Brush, Mayor of Pittsburgh: Sir: As you are aware, the position of Chief of Police of the city, both of which positions I hold, are thought to be incompatible with the duties of the office, and I have concluded that one must be relinquished. After due deliberation, with advice of friends, I have concluded that I should continue in the office of Chief of Police, to take effect at the earliest convenient day. With the kindest feelings I am, very respectfully, yours, truly, JOSEPH A. BUTLER, Chief.

PITTSBURGH, April 9, 1889. Dear Sir:—Appreciating the circumstances which occasion your withdrawal from the duties of Chief of Police, I appreciate your resignation, although regretting to lose your services. I will endeavor to fill the position by the 15th inst. Respectfully, yours, J. M. BRUSH, Mayor.

For the brief period Mr. Butler has held the position of Chief he has, so far as we can ascertain, rendered entire satisfaction to the public authorities as well as to the public at large. As an Alderman, an officer Mr. Butler has filled for a number of years in the old Sixth ward, he had the entire confidence of the public and as it is his intention to resume the business of that office in the seventh ward, the public will be particularly benefited at least for the loss of his services as Chief of the Police force.

There are several persons spoken of as Mr. Butler's successor, among whom are Mr. Robert Hagan, the veteran detective, whose chances for the position, we are readily informed, are the most favorable at present.

Christ's Church, Allegheny. We learn that Rev. Benjamin F. Brooks, of Tennessee, formerly of Baltimore, has accepted the call of the vestry of Christ's Church, Allegheny, to the Rectory of that Parish, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. H. J. W. Allen. Mr. Brooks is not able to make his journey before the first Sunday of May. Meanwhile, the former Rector, Rev. D. C. Page, D. D., has consented to occupy the pulpit. The Doctor has also been invited to officiate in this, as in all other churches where he is now invited. His health, we are glad to know, seems to be much improved, and his recent labors evince his full retention of the mental vigor and youthful freshness and energy of his youth. He has been always distinguished by his many friends and admirers in both cities. We are glad of the opportunity which is now presented to the people of good men's eloquence for the next three or four Sundays, at Christ's Church, Allegheny.

The Reported Garrying Case—Hughes Held to Bail for Court.

A hearing in the case of Thos. Hughes, charged with felonious assault and battery, on called of Thomas Miller, took place yesterday, at eleven o'clock, and resulted in the accused being held to bail in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance at Court.

The prosecuting witness, Miller, was first examined, and underwent a searching cross-examination, but as the information had been made upon information received, his testimony did not throw much light on the case. He testified to the fact of having been attacked and beaten, but could not identify or describe the parties who committed the assault.

William Lindsay was next called and testified to the fact of hearing the cry of murder and seeing two men run out of the hall door bare-headed. He could not identify either of them positively, but said that he saw one in white pants, and in looking through the crowd he pointed to Hughes, who, he said, looked like the man.

John Willard was next called and testified substantially the same as the previous witness. He could not identify the man who ran out of the hall door, but said one wore light clothes and the other dark.

John Marks also testified to seeing the man who ran out of the hall door, and ascribed them as the other witness had done, but could not identify either of them.

Mollie Brooks was next called and stated that Hughes came to her house last night and seeing two men run out of the hall door and eleven o'clock very drunk, and that he was bleeding. He wore a silk hat and a dark coat, and when he came in the house, Hughes stayed in the room until he was arrested Sunday morning, and she sent and borrowed a hat and coat for him. She said that she saw Hughes in a jail, and that she was in bed when the officers went in. He had no hat, and a young man went out and brought him in a hat and a dark coat. Saw a light coat lying on the table. Hughes stated that he had a fight with a man named Miller, and lost his eye, and that Miller was next sworn, and fully corroborated the testimony of Mr. Miller.

The testimony for the prosecution here closed, and Mr. Gibson, defendant's counsel, moved for a continuance, on the ground that he had failed to make out a case, and did not think the defendant should be held, and asked that he be discharged.

Mr. McCarthy, who also represented the defendant, desired to offer testimony in order to clear any suspicion that might be cast upon Hughes from the circumstances in the case.

Two or three witnesses were called, who testified to the fact of having seen with Hughes on the night of the assault, and that he was very drunk. Found Hughes in the street, and he started to take him home. He refused to go home, but proposed to go up on the roof, and the party started up Wyllie street, and when Hughes saw some persons coming down, when Hughes broke away from the party, ran across an area knocked down. They left him then and went home.

As the case will be fully investigated in the courts, comment on us at this time would be out of place.

Spring Styles.—We do not propose to go into a lengthy dissertation on styles or fashions, for the simple reason that in many instances style changes so frequently that we have not been able to keep pace with them, but having great confidence in the judgment of many of our lady friends, we are content to take their opinion as to such matters, and in the present instance, we have version among the ladies, this is the splendid stock of trimmings and lace goods at W. Superior Queensware.—One of the best evidences of the superior qualities of the queensware manufactured in the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors, is the fact that many households it has taken the place of that heretofore purchased from importers, and for which much higher prices were paid. The fact that we are no longer in receiving the articles manufactured from home manufacturers, and that those of our friends who are purchasers of such articles would compare with the goods of Kier & Co., and see the quality of their wares, an examination of which is solicited by persons whether purchasers or not.

The Mammoth Cave.

Extract from a Private Letter. We groped about for hours in this wonderful place. I never saw anything like it. The feasts of nature displayed here are very strange, and strike the beholder with awe. But the air in some parts of the cave is close and stifling, and when we came out, I found myself saddled with a terrible fever, and little by little, but finally, I was able to get on my feet. My life was despaired of by Mrs. Wilson, with whom I was residing, had in the house a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS, and she insisted that I should try it, for she said she knew it to be a certain cure in all cases of fever, debility, ague, dyspepsia, &c. I tried it as a last resort, and less than three hours after the first dose my fever subsided in two days I was sitting up, and before Saturday night I was as well as ever. I tell you all this that you may know how to act in any case of fever, or any similar disease. I firmly believe PLANTATION BITTERS saved my life. * * * * * In my next I will tell you about the cave in detail. A. J. P.

A remarkable stock of dry goods has also just arrived, and is offered at the unusually low prices which have long made the house popular.

A correspondent complains against a practice sometimes adopted in the local columns of the GAZETTE of introducing advertisements with foreign matter so as to attract the reader's attention.
