PITTSBURGH TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1869.

NUMBER 90.

FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

HARRISBURG.

Proceedings of the Legislature—Final Adjournment Resolutions—General Bill Allowing Interested Parties to Testify Passed by Both Houses—The Registry Bill Goes to a Conference Committee.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SENATE.

HARRISBURG, April 12, 1869.

MR. GRAHAM introduced bills incorporating the Sharpshooters, New Castle and Butler Railroad Company; authorizing Councils of Allegheny City to purchase the right of any, or all chartered road companies, whose roads are wholly or partly in the corporate limits of said city.

BILLS PASSED.

Both of Mr. Graham's bills, just introduced, passed finally.

OFFERING REWARD.

The bill from the House, authorizing the Governor to offer two thousand dollars reward for the capture of the Broadhead murderers, passed.

INTERESTED PARTIES TO TESTIFY.

The Conference Committee on the bill allowing interested parties to testify in certain cases reported in favor of a general bill, and the report was adopted.

THE REGISTRY BILL.

The Senate non-concurred in the House amendments to the Registry bill and appointed Messrs. Eriess, Council and Davis as a Conference Committee.

RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SEARIGHT had the Westmoreland Agricultural bill re-committed to the Judiciary Committee for examination as to the power of Courts over the subject.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MASONIC BANK SOCIETY.

Mr. MORGAN called up the Senate bill incorporating the Masonic Bank and Savings Bank of Pittsburgh, which was opposed by Mr. Brown, of Clarion, and favored by Messrs. Wilson and Morgan, and passed finally.

MR. WILSON'S REMONSTRANCE.

Mr. WILSON presented the remonstrance from Pittsburgh against the bill for the removal of the dead from the First Presbyterian Church yard.

MR. MILLER'S REMONSTRANCE.

Mr. MILLER's remonstrance from Bradocks borough against a prohibitory liquor law for said borough.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WILSON reported from the Ways and Means Committee, affirmatively, the joint resolution from the Senate for final adjournment next Friday.

SEVERAL INFRACTIONS WERE MADE.

Several infractions were made, to call up this bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. WEBB introduced a bill requiring a majority of the directors of corporations for a quorum.

Mr. FOY introduced a bill authorizing mechanics, journeymen and laborers to sue for their mutual aid, benefit and protection.

Mr. ELAHEK, of Warren, introduced a bill amending the three dollar exemption law to life estates. Passed.

The Philadelphia Police bill passed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

In the evening the special order was the bill from the Senate allowing interested parties to testify.

Messrs. Niles, Brown, of Huntington, Rogers and Hunter, were in the passage. It was opposed by Messrs. McCullough, Playford, Beans and McMiller.

Mr. WILSON, of Allegheny, supported it in a lengthy second reading—yeas 54, nays 35.

WILL NOT PASS.

The bill regulating licenses in Allegheny county, granting the District Attorney two dollars for each case in which he appears before the court, will doubtless not pass, the feeling of the Allegheny delegation being against it. It was introduced only through courtesy to the District Attorney.

TO DEVELOPE COAL, IRON, &c.

Evening Session.—Mr. STRONG called up the Senate bill authorizing railroad and canal companies to take the development of coal, iron, lumber and other material interests by the purchase of stock and bonds and guarantee of principal and interest.

Mr. DUNCAN moved an amendment exempting oil operations from the provisions of the bill. Disagreed to.

The bill then passed second reading.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. PLAYFORD called up the Senate joint resolution for final adjournment next Friday. Passed finally.

CONFERENCE REPORT.

The Conference Committee reported in favor of a general bill allowing interested parties to testify. Adopted.

Thus having been adopted by both Houses, the bill goes to the Governor for approval.

TESTIMONY.

The bill granting pensions to James Thompson and David Bolivar, soldiers of 1812, reading in Fayette, passed the House.

TAX BILL.

The House passed the general tax bill.

Elevating Business at Buffalo.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BUFFALO, April 12.—At a meeting of the Western Elevating Company this afternoon, which was fully attended, two resolutions were discussed, the first to dissolve the present Association and to reduce the rates of elevating to one-half cent per bushel. Both points were fully discussed, and the prevailing sentiment was that elevating can be done more cheaply by an Association than by individuals, and the feeling was general that the proper course to pursue is to reduce the rates to one-half cent per bushel. The meeting adjourned to meet on Thursday for a decision of the point discussed.

CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 12, 1869.

The Senate met at noon, Mr. Anthony presiding. Messrs. Hamlin and Cassery were appointed a committee to inform the President that the Senate was ready for business.

An order was adopted to meet at twelve o'clock.

The standing committees continue as at the last session.

The Senate then went into Executive session.

After about two hours spent in Executive session, the door was reopened and Mr. HAMILIN, from the Committee appointed to wait on the President, reported they had performed their duty and the President replied he would send in a communication immediately and others as occasion might require.

A number of nominations were then received and the door again closed. Senate adjourned at 2 1/2 o'clock.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

New York, April 12, 1869.

Propeller for Cuban Insurgent.—Germans and the Excelsior, a vessel reported they had performed their duty and the President replied he would send in a communication immediately and others as occasion might require.

A number of nominations were then received and the door again closed. Senate adjourned at 2 1/2 o'clock.
