OFFICE: GAZETTE BUILDING, NOS. 84 AND 86 FIFTH ST.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1899.

WE PRINT ON THE inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE - Second page: Poetry, Verse, etc.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 53¢ per barrel.

THE Legislature of Pennsylvania adjourns to-day.

THE new Spanish constitution establishes Roman Catholicism as the religion of the State.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL error in yesterday's GAZETTE was so palpable as scarcely to need this correction.

THE Senate defers the ratification of the Berlin Canal treaty until next winter.

THE name of JOHN A. MYLER, Esq., of Allegheny, has been sent into the Senate by the President for Postmaster of that city.

AT the session which has just ended, the Federal judicial system was re-modeled by Congress in several particulars.

RHODE ISLAND will discard and disown the Senator who has recently libeled her best citizens.

SENEGAL, SUMNER's argument against the Alabama treaty was based upon the following points:

WE HAVE the first number of New Louisiana, a quarto journal issued by the Louisiana Board of Commissioners of Emigration.

THE MEETING TO-DAY.

There should be a very full meeting at the Mayor's office to-day, of those citizens who have one of the leading interests of the city at their hearts.

OUR NORTHERN SWAMPS.

It has been ascertained that the large tracts of swamp-land, in Crawford county, which are known as the Conneaut and Pymatuning marshes, contain respectively, six and nine thousand acres of area.

ONE FREEDOM THROUGHOUT CHRISTENDOM.

With one exception, all the leading European powers, with many of the inferior governments, have recognized and adopted the American view of the citizen's right of expatriation.
