[From the London Times, March 12.] * * There are those, of course, who have always regarded a North American Confederation with suspicion and distrust. Stated without reserve, their objection is that a territory which must, according to their view, be absorbed sooner or later by the United al in France was forbidden. Much delay, States, is hereby retained a little longer in allegiance to Queen Victoria, at a sacrifice of its own true interests and those of sand, and in raising the amount required, Great Britain. With an objection of this $800. The medal was finally executed kind we can not pretend to feel the least in Geneva, by Franky-Magniadas.
