A Vicious Cow. Maria Davis made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging Geo. Lutz with obtaining money under false and fraudulent representations. She alleges that she purchased a cow from de-fendant, for which she paid the sum of fifty dollars, and that defendant represented said cow to be quiet and gentle. The cow was delivered in the afternoon, and when the deponent attempted to milk the cow in the evening she found her victous and dangerous so much so that she would not allow the deponent to milk her. A warrant was issued for the strest of Lutz.

Attempted Burglary, Some time during Wednesday night, an attempt was made to rob the grocery store of Mr. John Hood, on Beaver Avenue, near Rebecca street, Sixth ward, Allegheny. The thieves forced open a antegreny. The thieves forced open a shutter in the rear part of the store, but after proceeding thus far in their work seemed to have been frightened off either by the approach of some person or the barking of a dog in the store. Yesterday morning a couple of carpet sacks, a brace and two sugers were found beneath a pile of logs on the side-walk in the vicinity. There is no clue to the would-be burglars.

The Bartal of Lane A Point Dispused Of-Where the Murderer Rests. As we stated, Louis Lane, previous to his execution, requested Father Kerr te take charge of his body and have it to take charge of his body and nave it buried in St. Mary's Cemetery. Sheriff Ciuley had previously made arrangements to have the remains interred in Hilldale Cemetery, but upon Lane informing him of his preference, he immediately assented and changed his arrangements.

Diving the afternoon Dr. Le Moyne on rangements.
During the afternoon Dr. Le Moyne, on behalf of the medical fraternity of Pitts. burgh, requested that the body be delivered to them for "the advancement of medical science," under the provisions of the act of the 18th of March, 1867.

Sheriff Cluley declined to accede to the request until he had consulted his attorney, Thos. M. Marshall, Esq., and the body was retained in the county jail until yesterday morning.

The act above alluded to pravides the provides of the county of the coun that any public officer in the city of Philadelphia and county of Allegheny, having charge thereof, or control over the same, shall give permission to any physician or surgeon, of the same city and county, upon the request made therefor, to take the bodies of deceased persons, required to be buried at the public expense, to be by him used, within the State, for the advancement of medical science, preference being the same control of the same can be control of the same can be control of the same can be control of the same city and city in the Siate, for the advancement of medical science, preference being given to medical schools, public and private, and said bodies to be distributed to and among the same equitably, the number assigned to each being apportioned to that of its students. Provided, however, that if the deceased person, during his or her last sickness, of his or her own accord, shall request to be buried; or if any person claiming to be, and satisfying the son claiming to be, and satisfying the proper authorities that he is of kindred to the deceased, shall ask to have the body for burial, it shall be surrendered for interment; or if such deceased person was a stranger or traveler, who died sud-denly, the body shall be buried and not handed over as aforesald." The Sheriff was of opinion that as Lane had previously made a request as to the disposition of his body, he was not bound by the law to grant the request of Dr. Le Moyne.

He consulted Mr. Marshall, and the result of the interview was that Mr. Cluley directed Warden Scandrett to deliver the remains to Father Kerr ever he should call for them. At about half past ten the Rey. Father came to the Ross street entrance with a carriage and and a hearse, and had the body convey-ed to St. Mary's, he himself, in company ed to St. Mar7's, he himself, in company with another gentleman, accompanying the hearse, in the carriage. The body was interred with appropriate ceremonies. The fatal gibbet was removed yesterday morning.
