

The Pittsburgh Gazette THE REGISTRY LAW.

AN ACT further supplemental to an act relative to the elections in this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript of the names of the voters in the county...

and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in each ward, borough, township or city, on or before the first Monday in the morning of the second day of October, and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is on the list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

Sec. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and who claims the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the purpose of attesting the fact that he is a voter, and shall also produce a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall declare near where the residence is, of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall declare near where the residence is, of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall declare near where the residence is, of the person so claiming to be a voter...

Sec. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held, in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if he assessor be not a judge of the court, to appoint two disinterested, sober and intelligent citizens of the county to act as overseers of said election; said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall be sworn to present with the officers of the election, during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out and signed by the election officers, to be countersigned by the overseers; and the overseers shall challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses, under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and said overseers shall be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, or if any person shall be present and attempt to prevent or obstruct the overseers, or if any person shall fraudulently vote, or attempt to vote, or attempt to tamper with the list of voters, or if any person shall be guilty of any of the offenses mentioned in this act, or if any person shall be guilty of any of the offenses mentioned in this act, or if any person shall be guilty of any of the offenses mentioned in this act...
