The Board of Health meets this afternoon.

Our Aldermen are complaining of a lack of business.

Mayor Drum committed three parties to jail, yesterday morning, for drunkenness.

Street improvements in Allegheny are unusually active. Most of the work is being done in the new wards.

The Allegheny Board of School Controllers will hold a regular meeting this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Yesterday was one of wind, dust and disagreeableness generally, out of doors, alleviated occasionally with a few flashes of sunshine.

The irrefragable "Daddy" Dellinomaned the Allegheny lock-up last night. Officer Gebby was instrumental in placing him there.

Fined.—Mayor Drum yesterday morning fined A. Lynch thirty dollars and costs for engaging in a fight and creating a disturbance in the Second ward, Allegheny, on Sunday afternoon.

The members of the Odd Fellows' Lodge at Brownsville, at the head waters of the Monongahela river, last week, presented Judge Demara, of that place, with a magnificent gold-headed cane.

Henry Selsley, the present worthy and efficient Recorder, will be a candidate for re-nomination at the hands of the Republican Convention. He has an excellent record, and occupies the position with credit and ability.

Decorative Day.—There will be a convocation of all the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic of Allegheny county, held at the hall of Post No. 3, of this city, Nos. 102 and 104 Fourth avenue, this evening, at eight o'clock.

The Friend Rifles.—The few remaining members of this brave company who nobly sustained the old flag throughout the rebellion, will celebrate their eighth annual anniversary by a social reunion and banquet to-morrow evening.

Alleged Larceny.—James McCallough made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Thomas Mellon with the larceny of five dollars' worth of plate, which was issued for the arrest of the accused.

A Fizzle.—Extra police were called last night by the late Sheriff Lawrence, by a frightened officer who was intimidated by a parcel of book-bird drinkers, who were drunk and disorderly. When the reinforcement arrived all was quiet.

New Desk.—A handsome new cabinet desk now adorns the office of the Clerk of the Allegheny Park Commission, Mr. J. R. Oakley. The new desk is finished in heavy walnut, carved and finished in the most complete manner. It cost seventy-five dollars.

Our worthy friend John H. Hare, Esq., who counts his friends by hosts was awarded the elegant name cup at yesterday's election, the most popular candidate for Sheriff, at St. Agnes' Church Fair. May he be long to carry this mark of his friends' favor and respect.

Dr. Gleason's Lectures.—Lafayette Hall was crowded last evening by a delighted and intelligent audience to listen to this gentleman's opening lecture. He will continue his course every evening upon "Heart Blood," &c. Every one should hear these admirable lectures.

Fire from Lightning.—A Correspondent writes that the Hamilton House, situated at the corner of Allegheny and Duquesne streets, was struck by lightning one day last week and completely destroyed by fire. Two valuable horses were burned to death, loss $2,000. No insurance.

Mrs. Barely, of Chicago, will continue her seventh series of health lectures to the ladies, every afternoon this week (Wednesday excepted) in the U. P. Church (Rev. Coleman's) on Wilkins street, Birmingham, commencing each day at 8 p. m. Subject—"Health, How to Obtain and How to Keep It."

Still They Come.—The police continue the work of taking up horses found on the streets unattended or unhit. The last case was a horse and cart belonging to a coal hauler, who was being led standing on Smithfield street for when caught by the officer, the cart was required to pay the usual fine of one dollar and costs.

For Recorder.—Mr. Thomas S. Hunter, a member of the 9th Pennsylvania Reserve corps, who was wounded in the service, almost entirely losing the use of an arm, is announced as a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to the nomination of the Republican Convention. Mr. Hunter is a courteous gentleman, fine education and a large business experience, and would make, if elected, a creditable officer to the county and the party which elected him.

Committed on Three Charges.—William Marshall was committed to jail yesterday, by Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, on three informations. In the first he was charged with committing an assault and battery upon Frederick Stackman; in the second it was alleged he had feloniously assaulted George Schmidt, and the third set forth that he had committed a felonious assault and battery upon the body of Andrew Sager. If all the statements made are true, William is better inside than outside the walls of his present home.

Calhoun & Co. vs. McKim & Co. McKim & Co. vs. Smith. Bartlett vs. Truett Bros. McGinnis vs. Bradley.

Nixon et al. vs. Fleming. Carson Bros. vs. Burns et al. Hughes vs. Farry. Williams vs. Howard.

Frevoigne & Gilmer vs. Donahue. McNulty vs. Double et al. The Dissecting Rooms of Pittsburgh—How Medical Knowledge is Obtained.

In view of certain circumstances of late occurrence, it will not much surprise our readers to announce that here, in this city of magnificent beauties, a first-class and well-kept dissecting rooms have been established, affording the young ladies of the medical profession an opportunity to acquaint themselves thoroughly with the secrets wrapped up and hidden in the human form. It is perhaps eminently proper that such schools should exist, for physicians cannot too well acquaint themselves with the secrets of anatomy and physiology. Manly men do not pretend to find fault with the matter how cleverly made do not fill the room of requirement and the real flesh and blood and bones are necessary for the successful attainment of correct medical and surgical knowledge. Hence, in seeing the dissecting rooms we have made do not pretend to find fault with the matter how cleverly made do not fill the room of requirement and the real flesh and blood and bones are necessary for the successful attainment of correct medical and surgical knowledge.

A Villainous Carpet Bagger. Yesterday afternoon a young German girl arrived in Pittsburgh from her native land, in quest of a brother-in-law who she stopped at a boarding house in which she also had been directed to get dinner. At the table, eating with her, was a man who soon introduced himself, and finally learned her destination. Her brother-in-law, he said, resided in Allegheny, he would show him and would conduct her to his home in Allegheny. She thought she was as she supposed from an earlier trouble, she accepted the kind stranger's offer, and proceeded with him to a depot for her baggage, and then to a place, but it seems that she was misled, and she was lost to view. Her companion waited some time for her reappearance, but she did not return, and endeavored to find her relative herself, in which she unfortunately proved unsuccessful. Alone in a strange land, and without friends, she was a poor creature, and she was left to her fate.

South Pittsburgh Council. An adjourned meeting of South Pittsburgh Council was held yesterday (Monday) evening, May 3d, at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of considering an ordinance granting the right of way to the Monongahela Valley Railroad to traverse certain streets in said borough.

In the absence of Burgess Roberts, Councils organized by calling Mr. Hains to the Chair. Present—Messrs. Brown, Hains, Kuno, Lorenz and Sheargold. Justice Barker, Clerk of Council, read the minutes of the preceding meeting, which were approved. Mr. Hains, Chairman, stated the object of the meeting, and that an ordinance had been prepared by the City Solicitor.

The Clerk then read a communication from E. C. Schoyer, Esq., Borough Solicitor, accompanying which was the ordinance referred to.

After considerable discussion, Mr. Sheargold moved to refer the ordinance back to the committee, appointed at a previous meeting to prepare an ordinance, with instructions to alter or amend the ordinance so as to conform to the laws of Council, and to report at an adjourned meeting to be held Monday evening, May 17th, 1892.

The motion was adopted. Council then adjourned.

Horrible Accident—Child Burned to Death. An accident of a most horrible nature occurred in the Sixteenth ward on Saturday evening, resulting in the death of a little girl three years of age. A Mrs. Froeh, residing in the Sixteenth ward, was taken up yesterday afternoon, and was found to have been burned to death. She was taken to the hospital, but she died there.

That Square.

The Third Ward Square of the Allegheny Diamond, for a number of years past has attracted the attention of the City Fathers, who at sundry times made spasmodic attempts at agreeing upon a plan to render it somewhat more pleasing to the eye, and profitable to the city exchequer. The fact, however, all efforts have proved abortive, and it remains an unsightly, unimproved and unprofitable but exceedingly valuable piece of land right in the heart and centre of the business and traffic of the city. Had it been properly improved two or three years ago by this time all the funds expended would have been doubtless returned, and the city considerably richer in her yearly revenue. The three other squares have returned in this manner, and why should not this one?

The "Father" of this time it is to be hoped with some show of action. It was appointed to consider a committee composed of some of the most progressive and energetic of the most progressive of the city, and the result of their deliberations will doubtless lead to some decisive action.

A meeting of the committee was held on Monday, May 3d, at 11 o'clock, and was held in the office of the City Engineer. The committee was organized by the City Engineer, and the result of their deliberations will doubtless lead to some decisive action.

From the Pittsburgh Medical News.

Standard Principles. There should be standard principles in medicine as well as philosophy. Without a "zero" to start from, or a "standard" from which to calculate the deviations, the principles and practice of medicine, in fact the principles of any art or science, cannot be satisfactorily elucidated or properly understood.

The art and science of medicine is divided into several special departments, each having their standard principles, which form the basis for their scientific elucidations.

Every particular part of the human body has had its average natural properties, contents, quantities, &c., reduced upon scientific principles to a standard of nearly definite proportions in health.

This serves for the more correct elucidation of disease by comparison and measurement of the deviations from the average standard. Thus the average proportionate constituents of the blood in health being reduced to a standard, any considerable deviation from this standard quality of the blood is disease.

The same in the urinary excretion; the average natural proportionate constituents of the urine in health form the standard, any considerable deviation from which basis, either in proportion or contents, exhibits disease.

Really standard is a practical fact which we are daily demonstrating at our office, No. 123 Grand street, and which any one can be tested to their entire satisfaction, by sending a standard specimen (morning urine) for scientific analysis and standardization.

If we fail to detect the "morbid condition" if any; or to determine the nature of the disease, or the organs affected, as the liver, stomach, brain, kidneys, womb, &c., there shall be no charge made.

Be sure to give the age of the patient at the same time, as the urine varies in proportionate constituents in the different ages of infancy, childhood, manhood and old age.

The name and residence of each patient should be given also, in order to avoid confusion of cases with medicines are taken.

Some time since we mentioned the circumstance of a rather serious charge having been made before a justice of the peace against a gay ducky Lothario, by a young white girl employed as chambermaid at the Union Depot Hotel. The matter was compromised at the time, and the charges withdrawn.

Since then a wedding has taken place between the parties, but how, or where, or when, is one of the mysteries. The only really laughable fact known in the announcement, made yesterday, by the parties interested, is that the mysterious ceremony had been performed some time since—six months, according to the bride, and six weeks, according to the groom. That fact, however, started out in the voyage of life together seems to be one of the certainties, as much so as the fact that when the announcement was made it had the effect of procuring for them both a summary dismissal from employment. And so the matter rests at present. "All's well that ends well."

Sudden Death at the St. Charles. Monday morning about eight o'clock Mrs. Emmerson died very suddenly at the St. Charles Hotel, in this city. She had been stopping at the hotel for some time, with her husband, Mr. R. H. Emmerson, oil merchant, and two children. Mrs. Emmerson had a severe fall from a carriage, and was quite ill in consequence, although nothing of a serious nature was apprehended. At the time she was heard to call for servants, who hastened to her bedside and found her in the agonies of death. She died very suddenly, and before her husband reached the room. Mr. Emmerson is from Massachusetts, and Mrs. E. from Troy, N. Y. The body of Mrs. E. will be taken to her friends in New York by express.

Followed. Yesterday morning about three o'clock one of the Allegheny night watchmen, while passing in the vicinity of Beaver street and North alley, second ward, observed a man in the cellar of a dwelling in the vicinity of North alley, second ward, industriously endeavoring to effect an entrance to the house. Finding himself noticed, the burglar quit work, and scurrying off as fast as a pair of exceedingly nimble feet could carry him, far out distancing the guardian of the peace, who attempted his arrest. A subsequent investigation made the fact evident that the fellow had just commenced work on the roof of the house, and consequently had made no headway. The watchman could not identify him again.
