

The Pittsburgh Gazette

NEW PUBLICATIONS

ADVENTURES IN THE WILDERNESS OF Camp Life in the Adirondacks. By William H. Murray. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston.

Recently we gave two extracts of one column each, which are fine specimens from this capital book. It fairly glows with beautiful sentiments, and is unlike so many of the rambling books issued from the press.

THE SHAKESPEARE TREASURY OF WISDOM AND KNOWLEDGE. By Charles W. Stearns, M. D. Published by G. P. Putnam & Son, New York.

Very few are willing to give much time to the study of the great dramatist's work, unless for some special purpose.

THE CURSE OF GOLD. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. Author of "Wives and Widows," "Mabel's Mistake," "Doubly False," etc.

It is conceded that Mrs. Stephens is a popular writer, especially by that class of readers who enjoy the serials of certain extensively read weeklies, published in New York.

THE INGHAM PAPERS: Some Memorials of the Life of Capt. Frederick Ingham, U. S. A., sometime pastor of the First Sandemanian in Naguadavick, and Major General by Brevet in the Patriot service in Italy.

These "papers" are in fact the "recreations" of a city "parson," from the severer duties of the pulpit.
