

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $3 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

The Diamond Alley sewer will soon be completed.

Is there no ordinance providing against wheeling barrows over the sidewalks?

The bills surrounding the city are beginning to look attractive in their spring.

Chas. Bradley was fined three dollars yesterday, by Mayor Drum, for fast driving.

The Sewer on Sheffield street, Fifth ward, Allegheny, is rapidly approaching completion.

The Committee on Fire Engines and Hoses, of the Allegheny Council, held their regular meeting to-night.

About two and one-half million bushels of coal have been taken to lower points within the past few days.

Work has been resumed on the North tower of St. Paul's Cathedral. It will be at least a year before completed.

The impurity of the Allegheny water is charged with being the cause of so much sickness in this city at the present time.

The hotels are doing a lively business, many country merchants being in the city to purchase their spring and summer stock of goods.

Beck Beer is the ruling German star just now. The emblematic sign of a glass over most of the saloons means, we presume, to get the beer and be knocked with two horses.

Committee Meetings.—The Street Committee and Committee on City Property of the Allegheny Councils met last evening. Nothing but the usual routine business was transacted.

Fifth Avenue was remarkably crowded with vehicles yesterday afternoon. The avenue was blocked up several times. The police were kept busy in endeavoring to clear the thoroughfare.

One solitary wight, suffering from the effects of an overdose of whisky, appeared to the clemency of Mayor Drum yesterday morning. He was provided with lodgings in jail.

Loading.—The Allegheny police arrested several boys for loading on Chestnut street last evening, on complaint of a storekeeper in the vicinity. They each fined three dollars and costs by Mayor Drum.

Cash.—Daniel Hino was before Mayor Drum yesterday, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, on oath of John Cash. The accused keeps a saloon on Laocok street, North ward, Allegheny. Warrant issued.

The enterprise of contemporaries in finding mad dog items is quite commendable, but we will wager a big apple that not a single case of hydrophobia has thus far been discovered in the canine tribe of the city.

Gov. Geary, Gen. Sickles, Gen. Burnside, and a whole host of distinguished military gentlemen are expected to be in the city next Monday night to participate in the dedication of the Lodge room of Post No. 3, G. A. R.

Wife Whipping.—John Smith, a resident of the Seventh ward, Allegheny, was brought before Alderman Arent yesterday, charged with beating his wife. He was held for a hearing this afternoon.

The Allegheny Fire Alarm Telegraph has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is now in perfect working order. Mr. Rodgers, who has been engaged for the last three weeks in making the repairs, will leave for home this evening.

Diamond Alley.—Diamond alley, between Smithfield and Wood streets, continues closed to all travel except by pedestrians, in consequence of the construction of the sewer, which has been completed to a point about half way between the streets named.

Ascension Thursday.—Yesterday, forty days after Good Friday, was, in the Church calendar, Ascension Thursday. It was observed as a holiday of strict obligation by the Catholics and as a festival day by the Episcopalian, Lutheran and other denominations.

At the next meeting of Councils the Market Committee will report favorably to the purchase of the Lyon property, on Fifth avenue, for a new market place. The report was withheld at last meeting in order to obtain the refusal of the ground in a legal manner before action should be taken.

Runaway.—Last evening a horse attached to a light buggy took fright on Western avenue, Allegheny, and ran away. The driver, Mr. James Cranshaw, was thrown from the vehicle but fortunately not seriously injured. The horse continued his flight and was finally brought up on Hand street, Pittsburgh.

Hotel Robbery.—Some enterprising hotel thief entered a room occupied by the barkeeper in Shaffer's Hotel, Birmingham, Wednesday night, and abstracted therefrom a new suit of clothes and a silver watch. The robbery was not discovered until yesterday morning, when the necessary steps were taken for the arrest of the thief.

For Recorder.—We direct attention to the communication elsewhere published in the interest of Mr. Augustus Becker for Recorder. Mr. Becker had his left leg taken off in the war, and presents strong claims on the sympathy of his party. He is honest, sober, industrious and capable, and would make an excellent officer.

Quarrel Ended.—Mrs. Tullie Mosser and Mrs. Sarah Franklin, of the Seventh ward, Allegheny, had a dispute yesterday afternoon. They adjourned to Alderman Arent's office to settle the dispute. The official, after hearing the case patiently, imposed a fine of three dollars and costs on Mrs. Franklin, she being declared the aggressor.

Cross Suit.—Arthur Martin, the drayman who had the difficulty with W. C. Matthews, the conductor on the Birmingham Passenger Railway, an account of which was published yesterday, made information before the Mayor, yesterday morning, charging Matthews with assault and battery. The accused was held to bail for Court.

An Intruder.—Jacob Swager, yesterday afternoon, being somewhat intoxicated, entered the house of Mrs. Williamson Sohlfuss, on High street, Seventh ward,

ALLEGHENY, and attacked that lady with ment by one of the German Army police, who happened to be passing, and arrested the defendant for his disorderly conduct.

American Builder.—We have received from Messrs. J. Washington & Co., literary depot, No. 71 Federal street, Allegheny, the May number of the Chicago American Builder and Journal of Art. It is a very interesting number and should be largely circulated. Washington & Co. are the agents for it in Allegheny.

A Morgue is badly needed in Pittsburgh. The body of the man found dead at the Point, yesterday morning, was left in the sun, and the filthy necessary of the Tombs all day long.

It is a very interesting number and should be largely circulated. Washington & Co. are the agents for it in Allegheny.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

FINE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McCullough, Erick Maul, two cases, Fredrickson and the following provisions of the law: Jas. Adler and Michael McCullough.

Common Pleas.—Judge Merritt.

THURSDAY, May 6.—In the case of United States vs. James Warden, previously reported, jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged.

On motion of E. J. Keenan, Esq., J. R. McAfee, Esq., of Greensburg, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in the District and Circuit Courts.

The case of the United States vs. John Sandela was called up. The indictment charged the defendant with removing a distillery warehouse, and of evading Carnahan's appeal for the United States, and E. J. Keenan, Esq., for defendant.

The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

The Grand Jury returned true bills against the following tobacco dealers for violation of the Internal Revenue law: James Murphy, William McC