WASHINGTON, May 8, 1869.

CUBAN INSURRECTION NEWS.

Dispatches were received this morning from the Navy Department from Admiral Hoff, dated off Havana, April 30 and May 1. Since his last dispatch of the 27th he has received no news of importance at the interior of the island. On the 17th of April, 1,500 troops, commanded by Generals Lelona and Escalante, arrived at Nuevitas from Villa Clara, and the day after General Lelona, and Nuevitas, very unexpectedly, with 1,500 with 2,200 and left detention on the road. They reported no resistance on the march, although large bodies of insurgents were posted on high ground some distance from the sea coast, and well constructed trenches, breast works, ditches, &c., were visible, evincing, among them 1,500 at Nuevitas, volunteers recently from the railroad between Nuevitas and Pinar del Rio. About 1,500 started this expedition, conveying provisions, repairing the road temporarily, getting along and provision the troops at Pinar del Rio, who are to be on their march. It is reported that General Escalante, who is a military leader, purposely allowed the Spaniards to march without opposition from the interior to the sea coast, in order to obstruct their return, and if possible to capture them. The Pinar del Rio, who is a military leader, purposely allowed the Spaniards to march without opposition from the interior to the sea coast, in order to obstruct their return, and if possible to capture them. The Pinar del Rio, who is a military leader, purposely allowed the Spaniards to march without opposition from the interior to the sea coast, in order to obstruct their return, and if possible to capture them.

At the same time, the Pinar del Rio, who is a military leader, purposely allowed the Spaniards to march without opposition from the interior to the sea coast, in order to obstruct their return, and if possible to capture them.
