Out of Repair.—The side-walk on the Out of Repair.—The side-walk on the south side of Third avenue, between Market and Ferry streets, is slightly out of repair. We are informed by persons residing in the locality, that the few bricks now visible were placed there about thirty years ago, and have been allowed to remain undisturbed until the present time. If the street commissioner will put himself to the inconvenience of taking a walk over that notion of the taking a walk over that portion of the avenue, he will not question the truthulness of this statement.

Severely Intured.—Saturday evening Alonzo Stanley, a young man, while running along Carson street, Birmingham, fell into an excavation made for a cellar (which had been left entirely ungarded) and sustained injuries which will likely render him a cripple for life, his thigh being literally crushed and his knee dis-located. Having been conveyed to the Homeopathic Hospital, Second avenue, it was decided to endeavor to save the limb, and to this end four and a half inches of the bone were excised, including both condyles. The operation was performed by the attending Surgeon, Dr. J. H. McClelland, sesisted by Drs. Hotman and Burger.

Held for Court,-Frederick Beckerd made information before Alderman Humbert, yesterday, against Jacob Frank for larceny as bailee. The prose-cutor alleges he was appointed custodian of the property of the accused's wife, who, a short time since, became insane and was taken to Dixmont. In pursuance of his duties, he alleges he de manded of Frank the property, consist-ing of valuables and money to the amount of about one thousand dollars, but was refused, hence the suit. The "Church Home," a most admirable charity, maintained and supervised by the Episcopal Church of Pittsburgh and vicinity, held its tenth anniversary at Trinity Church on Sunday evening. The children of the Home were present, all apparently in ruddy health and with happy faces. The usual evening service of the church was read, the first part, including the Psalter, by Rev. Mr. Slattery, Rector of St. James, the lessons by Doctor Page, and the creed and following prayers by Rev. Mr. Egar, Rector of St. Peters, after which the meeting was organized for business by calling to the Chair (the Rev. D. C. Page, Senior Presbyter of the Diocese, Rev. Proposed Street Extension. Some time since a petition was presented to the Allegheny Councils for the extension of Rebecca street from its present eastern terminus, at Craig street, to Federal street. The petition was not acted upon at the time, but the matter has since been under discussion by residents in the vicinity, and will likely again be brought before Councils at their next meeting. Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphans' Assylum—Anniversary Meeting—Interes-ing Exercises—Condition of the Insti-tution—Board of Managers Elected.

Yesterday afternoon the anniversary neeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphans' Asylum was held in the beautitul chapel of the asylum building, on Ridge street. The chapel had been tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers for the occasion, which. with the neatly dressed and smiling children, and the throng of interested visitors and patrons of the cause filling every available inch of room.

formed an exceedingly happy scene pleasurable to look upon.

At the appointed hour, three o'clock, the meeting was organized with F. R. Brunot, Esq., presiding, when Rev. J. R. Kerr opened the exercises with an appropriate and ferrent prayer. The children then sang in a remarkably effective manner a song antibled 1979. iective manner a song entitled—"We Come with Songs to Greet You." Mrs. Thomas McFadden presiding at the organ. After the conclusion of this exercise
Hon. Robert McKnight read the following report of the Secretary, Miss H. S. Lothrop.

SECRETARY'S REPORT. Another year has passed away, and as Another year has passed away, and as we come tegether to report the progress of the work, your Board of Managers desire to present their earnest congratulations on the increasing usefulness of the nstitution.

A much larger number of orphans are ow under our care than ever before During the past year more than 280 children have found shelter for a greater or less period of time in the Asylum. About 226 are at present in the institution. Of these nearly 206 are old enough to be regularly in school. Of this number 139 are soldiers' orphans under State con trol, which contracts for their support.

The health of the children has been remarkably good. Except in the nursery, where a little baby, suffering from want and neglect, was brought in too late to derive any material benefit from all the efforts to restore its broken constitu-tion, we have but one death to record, that of a young girl fourteen years of age
—a soldier's daughter, whose remains were laid in the Orphan's lot at Union-dale Cemetery.

The report next refers to the domestic arrange nents of the institution, and peaks in the highest terms of the efficiency and faithfulness of the Matron, Mrs. Sterling, and her assistant Miss

Henry.
The resignation of Mrs. Brooks is much regretted. The managers succeeded in regretted. The managers succeeded in temporarily supplying her place by the selection of Miss. East Birmingham Council.

A regular monthly meeting of the Councils of the borough of East Birmingham was held vesterday (Tuesday) evening, May 11th, at seven o'clock, at the Walton Engine House, Sarah street. Members present: Messrs. Beck. Miller. Sheppard, Jones and Burgess Ammon. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. A report from the Finance Committee was presented by Mr. Beck, embracing bills to the amount of $60.40. Warrants were ordered to be drawn for the payment of the bills.

A report from the Fire Committee, together with sundry bills, was read. Regether with sundry bills, was read. Report accepted and bills ordered to be paid.

A petition from the citizens on Fox alley, between John and Harmony streets, was presented by Mr. Jones, of the Street Committee, asking for the grading and paving of said alley. Referred to Street Committee.

A petition for grading and paving Caraca, alley, between Lorenh and John rey alley, between Joseph and John streets, was also referred to the Street Committee. Mr. Jones reported that the Committee had received some proposals for grading Page street, and for the construction of a temporary wharfat the foot of said street. The Committee asked for further time, which was granted.

A bill of Stolzenback, Reese & Co., for paying Harmony street, was pre-sented, and ordered to be paid. The monthly report of the Street Commissioner was read, showing expenditures during April of $168 04. The report was approved, and the bills ordered to be paid. An additional amount was order-ed to be drawn in favor of the Street

Commissioner, for improvements to treets during the month. An order was drawn in favor of Wm. Finch, Jr., for $3,500 for paving done.
The above matter gave rise to some discussion. Wm. Finch, Sr., was present, and claimed that he was in partner-ship with Wm. Finch, Jr., and was enti-tled to a share of the money.

Mr. Brown, Borough Solicitor, was called upon for a solution of the difficulty. He read the articles of agreement between the borough and Wm. Finch, Jr., for paving. The name of Wm. Finch, Sr., did not occur in the articles, but it appeared upon the bond. He was not, therefore, a party to the contract.

Mr. Finch, Sr., said that his name had been inadvertently omitted from the articles, and he hoped Council would not give this money to his son, William, Jr., until they had made further inquiry. Mr. Jones said the Council had nothng to do with the business affairs of the rig to do with the business anairs of the Finches. They could settle outside of Council. This ended the discussion. A bill from the contractor for the erec-tion of the Walton bell tower, was presented. The bill was referred to the Fire Commutee.

... The Solicitor presented an ordinance granting the right of way to the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company, along Josephine street, from a line in the middle of Harmony street, to the asstern boundary of the borough, which is Mc-Clurg street. The ordinance grants to the Railroad Company the privilege of constructing either a single or a double track along said Josephine street, to be placed as nearly as possible in the middle of the street, the company to conform to the grade as estab ished, or as it may hereafter be established by Council: the company to pave and keep in repair said street from Harmony to McClurg streets. The railroad company will be required to refund to the borough the money expended for grading and paving said street. The trains of the company shall not travel at a greater speed than four miles an hour.
The ordinance was passed and the Burgess instructed to furnish a copy of he same to the President of the Railroad Company.

Mr. Brown also gave an opinion conarr. Brown also gave an opinion con-cerning the question as to the liability of the Ormsby heirs for the curbing of both sides of Railroad street. The gentleman thought that insamuch as the said heirs whed twenty feet in the center of the street, they were not liable for the curbing on either side, except where their property abutted on the street.

Mr. Jones informed the Council that citizens had complained of a nuisance at the mouth of the John street sewer In warm weather an intolerable stench avose therefrom. A motion was adopted instructing the Street Committee to inquire into the expediency of extending said sewer so as to carry offal away from the residences of said street. Mr. Smith, a resident on Meadow street complained of the Union Planing Mill Company for maintaining a nulsance by using said street for a lumber yard. The Burgess stated that a criminal ac tion had been instituted against the par-ties, and the case would be decided by the Adjourned till May 25th.

The Immortality of the Soul.

To the Editor of the Gazette:-Sin: I am informed by a friend that a gentleman claiming to be a minister of religion, known as Elder Wendel, addressed, some time ago, the Christian public in an article inserted in the newspapers, in which he unblushingly denied, strange as it may seem, the fundamental principle of all true religion—the immortality of the soul—and that at the same time he invited any minister of the Gospel holding an opposite view to a discussion of the subject with him. I did not see the article in question, but am told that a minister, after consenting to discuss with Mr. Wendel, declined for reasons not stated. Now, lest the cause of truth should suffer at the hands of those who are commanded to "contend earneatly for the faith which was once delivered to the saints," I, as a minister of the Gospel, believing implicitly in the teaching of the Word of God, and, therefore, in the immortality of the soul, take the liberty of respectfully inviting Mr. Wendel to lay his views on this subject before the public in the columns of the GAZETTE, (with your kind permission.) or any other of the Pittsburgh papers he may elect, when I shall deem it an incumbent duty—although not fond of polemical disputation—to present in reply what I consider to be the teaching of Inspira-tion on this all-important subject.
