The Sunday Ldader.

give satisfaction to every purchaser.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Pittsburgh Leader on the fifth page of to-day's paper. A first class Sunday paper is essentially necessary, and the Sunday Leader fully meets the requirements of the public. It is edited by an experienced and able writer, who being independent and untrammelled, by either pendent and untrammelied, by either sect, clique or creed, is enabled to present fearlessly all quesitons of general interest, of either a political or religious nature, in their true light, thereby giving the public a view of the inside working of "Rings," &c., which connot be obtained through a journal of a different character. The Leader supplies a Medica. character. The Leader supplies a character. The Leader supplies a defici-ency long felt in this city, and the ex-tensive patronage it enjoys is an evi-dence that it is a first class paper.

A-non-est Man.

John Dale has been boarding at Soho with a chap named Walter. What his surname is nobody knows. Yesterday John awoke and found his coat and watch, together worth about a hundred dollars, and his room mate, gone. The
