NEW PUBLICATIONS. THE MALLY ARCHIPELAGO; the Land of Orangutan, and the Bird of Paradise. A Narative of Travel, with Studies of Man and Nature. By Alfred Russel Wallace, author of "Travels on the Amazon and Rio Negro," etc. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pitts, press

This work is one of substantial merit, combining valuable information and pleasurable entertainment. It has the excellencies of a standard library work. The writer posesses the rare talent of rendering a subject usually not very interesting to the general reader, equal to sale in view of the attention directed to the most charming romance. Mr. Wal. The notes taken on the ground, and in connection with the preparation of the specimens, are here embodied in this volume, interspersed with graphic descriptions of that country. The wood engravings are very fine and quite numerous. To the general reader, as well as to the scholar, this work will be invaluable. It treats of objects that are interesting, and of a country of which but little has been written about. The author's admiration of Darwin, should not detract from the excellencies of the work. We look for a wide sale of the book, as it justly deserves. The Appendix gives specimens of words in fifty-nine different languages of the Malay Islands, and the copious"Index" will be highly appreciated by

TEDDY'S DREAM; or, Little Sweeps Mission. By Emma Leslie.
THE PEAT-CUTTERS; or, The Song of Love. By Emma Marshall. Published by Robert Carter & Brothers, New York. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., 119 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

These little volumes belong to the "Fireaide Library," an excellent Sunday School series. ! "Teddy's Dream" beautifully illustrates how God may be glorified by persons in the most humble walks of society. "The Little Peat-Cutters" is a story of the same type. Little folks cannot read about "Davie," "Rob" and "Effie." without feeling the tenderest interest. Such characters will aid much in lifting youthful minds up to do noble

These excellent truths are beautifully interwoven through the entire story. Young people may learn to profit by "Little Jack's Four Lessons." Anne Sevren. By Madame Augustus Crayen, author of "A Sister's Love." Published by G. P. Putman & Son, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Liberty Street, Pittsburgh. This novel forms one of Putman's "Library of European Literature," of which several volumes have already appeared. It has also been published in serireadable story. The book does not present the dogmas of Roman Catholicism in an offensive light, but in a sweet light fiction, whether favorable to the special plea of the book or not.

THE PHENOMENA AND LAWS OF HEAT. By Achille Cazin, Professor of Physics in the Lycem of Versailles. Trans-lated and edited by Elihu Rich. Published by Charles Scribner & Co., New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., 193 Liberty Street, Pittaburgh.

In noticing the "Wonders of Optics,". "Thunder and Lightning," the first two volumes of "Beribner's Illustrated Lifavorably commend, in strong words, this excellent series. Science is here made fascinating and attractive by the Lambert S. Fine, a clergyman of form, in which the principles are applied, and by the excellent illustrations. The laws which govern heat, the effects of heat, and such information are here presented in a clear and satisfactory manner. We are not surprised that such works own. There is a quiet yein of humor pervading it, even amid the narrative of the stern duties of life. Phases of their lives, especially of Meg's married life, are narrated in charming style. The story is also tinged with sorrow, because of the death of Beth, who is translated to a better home, than either Meg or Jo enjoyed. Perhaps Miss Alcott will gratify her admirers with a history of Jo's boys. We are assured she is now engaged on a work of actual experience, to form one of the capital "Handy Volume" series.

HILT TO HILT; or, Days and Nights on the Banks of the Shenandoah in the Autum of 1864. By John Esten Cook, author of "Fairax," etc. Published by G. W. Carlton, New York. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh. This is a story of the close of the war, and gives a picture of the closing days of the rebellion that cannot fail to give interest to the reader. The book is, however, a historical record of "the other side," as the author's sympathies were in that way, however much he may think he has written in the spirit of candor. It will be welcomed, if for no other reason, to enable persons to read the views of those who lived in Dixie, and were involved in the struggle on that side. Mr. Cook has the reputation of being well educated, and a brilliant writer, which will go far to give the book a cordial wel-

THE CLOUD ON THE HEART. A Novel.

By A. S. Roe, author of "A Long Look Ahead," "True to the Last," &c. Published by G. W. Carleton, New York.

For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh. The author of this work is well known, having written quite a number of capital stories, which have been received with much favor by the public. Mr. Roe usually writes in a high moral tone and caters less than most writers of fiction to the sensational style so much in vogue these days. The deliniation of character are vivid and natural, and there is an easy flowing style about the story that will be pleasant to the reader. No doubt the good reputation of Mr. Roe will be ustained in this volume.

What Has Been Done by the National It is too late to talk of the importance of insuring one's life for the benefit of those dependant upon him. What was, some years ago, accounted by many scrupulous and doubting ones as a "tempting of Providence" has become the recognized duty, as surely due to a man's family as the daily labor for bread, clothes and a home. The number of new insurance companies which are yearly started upon their course prove the extent of the popular feeling in favor of this beneficent provision. The two plans upon which insvrance is offered—the Stock and the Mutual—are industriously presented by their respective adherents. and the merits of both fully discussed. A significant indication of the popular choice is found in the great success of the National Life Insurance Company of America, which began business in August last, and has, since that time, been rapidly extending its agencies throughout form in the Catholic Magazine, the the country, as well as in the Dominion Month. It is written in the interest of Canada. Upon the first of May, only Month. It is written in the interest of nine months after its beginning work, the the Catholic Church, but is a quiet and Company has issued five thousand policies -a success unprecedented in the history of insurance. This is a purely stock company, for which there is this to say: that while it does not spirit, and at the same time favors the always makes as glowing promises to the idea that the Church of Rome is the true | insured as some of the companies organone. It may be read by all lovers of ized upon the other plan, it faithfully fullight fiction, whether favorable to the fills every letter of the plain business contract which it makes with its customers. It has also met losses by death of the insured, but these losses have been also for the insured, We have spoken of the large business brary of Wonders." we took occasion to but these losses have been of such a character and so promptly adjusted, that they have strengthened the Company, where the circumstances were known Rev. mode of illustration, and by the simplicity of style. Young minds can thus obtain a better conception of science by this simple form, in which the available and the style of April the $5,000, (with no deduction for notes) was paid to his family, this being the only provision which the deceased had been able to make for their future comfort. Could any other possible investment of one hundred dollars on his part have proved so judicious or profitable? Another case was that of Louis H. Plaget, of Franklin, Pa., who insured for $1,000, and died in six.
