

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Gazette is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $3 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Discharged.—John Laughey, agent who furnished information to the Mayor on Monday by Mrs. Campbell for larceny by bail, after a hearing yesterday, was discharged.

Tunneling.—The Diamond alley sewer has been completed to Smithfield street and a tunnel is now being driven under the street to connect with the drops at the upper side.

The Allegheny City Executive Committee will hold a meeting tomorrow night, at the office of W. P. Price, No. 21 Diamond. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Dr. Gleason lectures this evening at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny city, on the lungs, causes and care of weak lungs, etc., splendidly illustrated, with numerous French manikins and models.

Select School.—The attention of Professors who may wish to engage in school teaching is called to the advertisement on the fifth page under the above heading. This is a rare opportunity, such a one is seldom offered.

Called Her Names.—Sarah Gillespie alleged Catharine Raney acted in a very disorderly manner yesterday by calling her vulgar names and otherwise improperly conducting herself. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Yesterday morning John Larkins, a young lad employed at Brown & Co.'s rolling mill, Duquesne, was found with his thumb cut off while playing with the steam shafts in the establishment.

Cross Suits.—Ellen Horan made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, against John O'Brien, for assault and battery. This is a cross suit, John having preferred a similar charge against Ellen the previous day. Warrant issued.

Stock Sale.—The following stocks were sold last evening on the second floor of the Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer: Citizens National Bank, $38.50; Exchange National Bank, $9.00.

Threw Her Down.—Catherine McDevitt alleges she was standing by a hydrant in front of her house, yesterday, when Daniel Wilkinson came along and, seizing her by the arm, threw her with great violence to the ground, by which she was severely injured. Daniel was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Lynch, and held for a hearing.

Attorney of our merchants is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Furness, Brinley & Co., Auctioneers, Philadelphia, on fifth page of to-day's paper. They inform us that will be one of the grandest sales ever offered in this city. Our merchants, we have no doubt, can secure some rich bargains. Read their advertisement for particulars.

Sunday Liquor Selling.—Information was received before the Mayor yesterday against Anthony Whitaker, Daniel Strain, Bernard McRide, John Sullivan and J. C. Cren, for selling liquor on Sunday. The actions are to recover the penalty of $50, and a hearing will take place to-morrow.

Alleged Assault.—Rev. P. Alvis Oehler made information before Alderman Hofmeyer, yesterday, against Joseph Hofmeyer for assault and battery. The prosecutor states he is a pastor of congregation at Charles Creek, and that after services last Sunday morning he was assaulted by Hofmeyer who struck and severely choked him. Warrant issued.

New Oil Excitement.—It is stated that operations for oil are about to be renewed in the Mahoning Valley, between New Castle and Youngstown. One of the earliest fields of venture in the time of the oil fever, and several paying wells were struck near New Castle and in the vicinity of Lowellville but owing to the low price of oil operations ceased. It is believed that if revived again will be immensely profitable.

Larceny of Rope.—Simpson B. Horner made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Charles Smith with larceny, and Chief Hagan made a similar information, at the same time and place, against George Kehler. It is alleged that the defendants were carrying a large length of cable or rope from a barge lying at lock No. 1. Smith was arrested and is now in the lock-up awaiting a hearing, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Kehler. Kehler's dog probably had an attack of hydrophobia and he wanted a strong cable to him.

Thrown from a Horse.—Mr. Joseph Abel, a druggist, was severely injured yesterday morning by being thrown from a horse. He was taking a horseback ride about six o'clock yesterday morning, and when near Minersville his horse took fright and threw him off, breaking his thumb and seriously injuring his arm about the head of the horse. He was removed to the residence of Robert Arthur, Esq., where he was attended by Dr. Fleming. He is doing as well as the circumstances of the case will permit.

A Dance Interrupted.—On Monday night the Allegheny police made a descent upon a disorderly house on Main street, Fourth ward, and succeeded in capturing a party of ten young men, who were each required to pay a fine of five dollars and costs yesterday morning. Numerous complaints have recently been made against the house by the neighbors who allege it is the resort of doubtful characters of both sexes, who spend the night carousing generally to the great annoyance of all peaceably disposed folks in the vicinity. The authorities have taken the case in hand, and if possible will remove the evil.

A Point Complaint.—By request of two citizens residing in the locality, we call the attention of the Mayor and Board of Health to the annoyance which is occasioned in the vicinity of the river by the dumping of the contents of cess pools on the river bank in the day time. The "unpleasantness" is said to be very serious, and those occupying it seem to disregard the protestations which have been made to them. We have not a copy of the city ordinance and therefore cannot say whether there has been any change in the ordinance respecting the "night-soiling" business, but heretofore those engaged in it were confined to certain hours in the night time. Perhaps the Board of Health, under an act of the last Legislature, are empowered to make such regulations as may be requisite. At all events, the complaint referred to should receive prompt attention.

BONDED WAREHOUSE ACCIDENT.

Coroner's Investigation.—Interesting particulars relative to the construction of the building, investigation to be continued to-day.

The Coroner's jury empaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of Geo. Caven, who was killed by the fall of Finch & Co.'s bonded warehouse, on Friday last week, a full account of which was published in the Gazette, met yesterday pursuant to adjournment, at the office of Justice Barker, in South Pittsburgh, when the following testimony was adduced:

Alec. Wilson, sworn—I am a builder of the firm of A. & S. Wilson. Have examined Finch & Co.'s bonded warehouse since the accident. Would say that the pier on which the posts stood were defective, as the stone did not cover them.

The center was the weakest part. The piers were of brick capped with stone. The piers were two feet eight inches square, and the stone on top was eighteen inches square. The piers were built round with a four inch layer of concrete and filled in with loose brick, so far as I could see. All the weight of the building rested on these posts and so on. Both kinds of business cannot be performed under one bond and special tax except where there is one interchangeable with the other.

A manufacturer of tobacco and snuff made reference to the Habitation of persons and firms who manufacture tobacco and cigars in the same building where they have a saleroom, and where they sell not only their own products but also goods manufactured by other persons. I have to say that the act of July 20, 1897, relative to the manufacture of tobacco and cigars is one interchangeable with the other.

Mr. Kerr, who was the witness to Mr. Kerr, to seal the walls could be avoided, and Mr. Kerr substituted another party, and the center down it was intended to tear down. At this point the inquest adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock, at the same place.

AMUSEMENTS.

An exceedingly large and fashionable audience, assembled at the Academy of Music last evening, at Ole Bull's grand concert. The reputation of Ole Bull and his company naturally created high expectations in the public mind, which, we regret to say, were not entirely realized.

Their entertainment could have been unexceptionable, but for the failure of Mr. Owen, the piano accompanist, who marred the enjoyment of every piece in which he had a conspicuous part. The singing of Miss Barton was highly appreciated by the audience, as were all the other performances, save the piano accompaniment. The second concert takes place this evening, when, for the credit of the excellent company to which Mr. Owen is attached, we hope he will improve upon his efforts last evening.

OPERA HOUSE.—Humpty Dumpty still rules the hour at the Opera House. The audience last evening, exhibiting no falling off, either in numbers or enthusiasm. To-night Harry Leslie takes a benefit, and as he is well known and quite a favorite with Pittsburgh theatre goers, a crowded house may be anticipated.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—A Matinee for the benefit of the Red Cross will be given at the Pittsburgh Theatre this afternoon. The Forty Thieves occupies the boards and will be presented at the matinee and evening events. It has had a very successful run. To secure seats persons are compelled to be in attendance early.

GRAND OPERA.—The Grand Opera since the people of Mrs. Black Davis' school gave an exhibition in the Academy of Music, which rendered every audience to those in attendance that, at the request of many, it will be repeated next Tuesday evening, at the Academy of Music. The performance is one of considerable merit, and will afford an enjoyable evening to all who may attend.

HOUSEHOLD AFFAIRS.

No other defect in the household arrangements is more observable or annoying than a deficiency in the supply, or the inferior quality of quensware. So well is this understood by the perfect housekeeper that, one of the most important matters in her domestic affairs is in relation to the purchase of these articles. Heretofore all choice goods in this line were received by importation, and the city consequently placed them quite beyond the reach of a great majority of persons. Since the establishment however of the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. S. M. Kier & Co. proprietors, trade has changed, and now the finest articles of quensware, or Bristol ware, equal to any importation may be obtained at an expense which places them with the reach of the most moderate income. Messrs. Kier & Co. at their ware-rooms No. 363 Liberty street, have on hand constantly a large and varied assortment of these goods, which they feel satisfied will bear examination, and give satisfaction to every purchaser.
