Killed.—Monday afternoon, a little daughter of Mr. Siebold, Third ward, Allegheny, was severely bitten by a large dog belonging to Mr. Schloper. The animal was immediately dispatched.

Lecture for Gentlemen.—Dr. Gleason lectures this evening to gentlemen only, on the Origin of Animal and Vegetable Life, in Excelsior Hall, Allegheny city. Splendidly illustrated with paintings, etc.

Postponed.—The hearing in the case of Mrs. Douglas, charged with keeping a common bawdy-house at No. 77 Virginia alley, which was to have taken place yesterday, was postponed until Friday, at two o'clock. p. m.

Any person in want of a large, convenient and comfortable house, in a delightful location, near the City and Allegheny Railway, and at a moderate rent, would do well to call on Mr. G. S. Bates, corner Penn and Butler streets.

Alleged Larceny.—Keeler Tabor yesterday made information before Alderman Fickler, of Allegheny, against Andrew Badinger and George Schmeiser for larceny. The accused were arrested and in default of bail committed for a hearing.

The poem accepted for Decoration Day, from the gifted pen of Mr. Oliver T. Bennett, of the Commercial, is highly spoken of, and said to be even finer than many of the already popular verses that gentleman has furnished the public anonymously.

Held for Court.—U. Johnson, against whom an information was made before the Mayor several days since for larceny of a quantity of rope from the bank of the Monongahela river, had a hearing yesterday, and was held to bail for his appearance at court.

Discharged.—Mayor Walsh discharged two of his officers, on Monday, for drunkenness while on duty, and another yesterday for incompetency. He is determined to have no more of the kind who are not competent and efficient, and is taking the proper method of reaching that end.

Troublesome Prisoner.—Monday evening John McGrath, while in the Allegheny lock-up for drunkenness, attacked himself by tearing up the floor of his cell and smashing every thing in reach of him. Yesterday morning the Mayor imposed a fine of ten dollars and committed him to his conduct.

Burglary.—The boot and shoe shop of Wm. Barnes, of Bridgewater, Pa., was broken into by some person or persons unknown, on Tuesday night of last week, and about two hundred dollars worth of boots, shoes and leather taken therefrom. The burglars made their entry into the room by means of false keys used in opening the rear door.

Assaulted a Woman.—Information was made before the Mayor yesterday, by Ella Reno, residing on Marion street, Allegheny, charging James Porter with assault and battery. She alleges that Porter came to her residence and with provocation assaulted and beat her, leaving her in the face with his fist. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The accused, after a hearing, was committed in default of bail for trial.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—Jan. Campbell made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Chas. Brennan with aggravated assault and battery. He alleges that the accused attacked him Monday night near the corner of Penn and Seventh streets, and without provocation struck him on the back of the head with a board, inflicting a serious injury. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

More of Them.—The crusade against the Sunday whisky sellers still goes on, and we are informed that it will be continued until every victor brought to justice and learns from experience that it is the duty of all citizens to conform strictly to the law. Information was made before the Mayor yesterday against Mrs. Murphy, Fred Mueller and Leopold Harz, to recover the penalty of $50, the criminal prosecution instituted. Warrants were issued.

Decorating the Graves.—On Friday afternoon, 23d inst., Mr. E. G. Krehau, who has been appointed to designate the graves of soldiers in the cemeteries on the South Side, will visit the Germania Cemetery at one o'clock, the Methodist at two o'clock, Hitzberger at three o'clock, the German Catholic at four o'clock, and a service of devotion will be held at the designated places at the hours named.

The Quartette Club will also be present, and discourse some of their sweetest music. The concert, of course, will be greeted with a full house.

The Pirate's Legacy is the title of a novel recently written by our distinguished fellow-townman, Professor Rudolph Leonard, of the Western University. The author has no previous paths of fiction, as the many readers of his former books, both in English and German, can testify, and this last is said to be much the best of his works. It is a sensation story, as from its title, some might be led to believe, but a simple, picturesque tale of high adventure in America and Italy. The story was written in English, but its accomplished author has translated it into German and sold the translation. The English edition will be sold by subscription only, and parties wishing to procure an interesting work by a well-known fellow citizen, can find the subscription list at the bookstore of the Messrs. Backofen, on Smithfield street.

At the Triennial Convention of the School Directors of Allegheny county, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the President of the Convention be requested to appoint a Committee of ten members, to be composed of the members of the Board of Education, together with the Chairman of this Convention, to constitute a Committee for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for choosing a site and raising funds for building a house for the use of the School Directors of Allegheny county.

In pursuance of said resolution, I hereby appoint the following gentlemen as that Committee: James Kelly, Esq., of Wilkins township, Wm. Espey, Esq., of Scott township, James B. Lyon, Esq., of Dilworth, Wm. A. Thaw, and John H. Balaon, Esq., of the city of Pittsburgh, R. E. Brant, James C. Farkle, and A. T. Doublitt, Esqs., of Allegheny city, and Moses Ches, Esq., of Chartiers township.

The Committee will meet at Curry's Normal School on Sixth ward, corner Clair street, in the City of Pittsburgh, at ten o'clock, a. m. of Monday, May 31st, 1886.

Col. Joseph Browne. Messrs. Editors: Please announce for me, through your columns, that I am confined to my room, and have been so some time past, by sickness, the drugs last by army life, and of course have been unable to see my friends in reference to my aspirations for the office of Clerk of Court. I am still in the field for the nomination, and will have my friends to guard and protect my interests before the Convention if I am not convened.

Result of a Hearing. Last evening Barclay and Kennedy, two of the parties charged with aggravated assault and battery upon Jacob Slentz, a saloon keeper in Pleasant Valley, Second ward, Allegheny, had a hearing before Mayor Drum. It will be remembered that the case was heard Monday afternoon and said to have entered the saloon, raised a row with the property, and came again into the street. At one time it was feared that Slentz's injuries would prove fatal, but he has somewhat recovered, and was able to be present at the hearing. A number of witnesses were examined, and at the conclusion the parties were held for trial.

Almost an Accident. Yesterday afternoon a colored man, driving a cart and hauling dirt from a sewer on Diamond alley, was backing his cart up to an excavation for a sewer drop at the corner of Smithfield and Diamond streets, in which two sons of the "Emerald Isle" were at work, and not having the necessary stop blocks the cart dropped in upon them. One of them was slightly bruised on the top of the head, and the other escaped uninjured. The latter immediately jumped out of the excavation and "went" for the colored man, who was using his utmost endeavors to get the cart out of the excavation. Owing to the state of affairs, he was compelled to suspend operations, and the poor fellow in the drop under the cart was compelled to remain there until his brother workman had chassed the negro. After a few cuts and kicks, which the poor fellow quietly submitted to, the cart was removed, and the man who was under it wanted to further chastise the negro for not extracting him sooner. He was prevented, however, by an explanation.

Wooden Buildings. Last evening the Committee on Wood-on-Buildings, of the City Council, held a meeting, at which a number of petitions for privilege to erect wooden buildings, were presented. But one of the positions was favorably received. It was reported that several parties had in defiance of the municipal authorities, erected iron-clad buildings within the city limits, and the City Solicitor was instructed to proceed at once with legal measures against them.

The Street Commissioner of the Second District was instructed to have the iron-clad buildings erected by Messrs. Hays, Wells & Co., on Seventeenth street removed. The Commissioner of the First District was also instructed to have the frame building erected by Messrs. Fride, Strick, & Co., and to further inquire of the City Solicitor what steps were necessary to have the building of Mr. Colby, on Webster street, removed.

The Street Commissioners were directed to notify the City Solicitor of all violations of ordinance relative to wooden buildings, that the proper legal measures might at once be taken against the offenders.

MEETING OF STREET COMMITTEE.

A regular meeting of the Street Committee of the City Council was held last evening, at which the following ordinances were favorably reported upon: For grading and paving Twenty-Seventh street, from Butler street to Allegheny river; for opening Flatfield street, from Forty-Fourth to Fifth street; for grading and paving Willow street, from Forty-Third to Forty-Fourth street; for opening Valley street, from Fortieth to Forty-Ninth street; for grading and paving Pleasant alley, from Forty-Third to Forty-Fourth street; for grading and paving Twenty-Ninth street, from Penn to Smithfield street; for grading and paving Forty-Eighth street.

The Street Commissioner was instructed to have flag stone crossings laid down at the intersection of Fifth avenue and Grant street, and at the intersection of Sixth avenue and Smithfield street. Several other important matters were discussed, but no definite action taken in any aside from those here recorded.

State and County Taxes. Although the County Treasurer has been ready to receive the taxes since the first of the month, comparatively few persons have called to settle their accounts and save the ten per centage. To many persons engaged in business, who have a large amount of tax to pay, it is quite an object to use the money until the last of grace but there hangs the dread of persons who have the amount lying idle, who would find it much to their advantage to save the ten per centage by paying the tax as early as possible.

A Superb Specimen. Mr. W. W. Wallace has just finished at his establishment, Nos. 319 and 321 Liberty street one of the most superb specimens of marble mottos ever made in the country. The marble is of the finest quality, and is of the most rare and valuable marble found in the South America, and the workmanship is of the most perfect character that the eye can detect. The marble is of a rich color of blue and gold and crimson, and has been accompanied with such remarkable fidelity to nature, that the slabs of which the motto is composed, seem to the eye as though just cut from the quarry and highly polished. It is on exhibition at the residence of Mr. Wallace, where all our readers, so desiring, can have an opportunity for a few days to examine it.

Books for the Million. Col. J. D. Egan, at the popular and well stocked book and stationery store on Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street, is prepared to supply the wants of all who are in need of books and every other description at prices which defy competition. His stock comprises all the late publications and old standard works in text books for schools, Sunday school books, and he has also a large assortment of second-hand books, in which are many rare and valuable works from standard authors, which he is selling at remarkably low prices. On his counter are also found all the late magazines and periodicals and a full stock of stationery.

Keystone Pottery. Notwithstanding the recent advance in prices on Queensware in the East, Messrs. St. Kier & Company, proprietors of the Keystone Pottery, No. 303 Liberty street, continue to sell their excellent ware at the same low prices as heretofore. The ware manufactured by this firm is pronounced by competent judges to be equal in point of strength, durability and finish to the best Liverpool ware, and is sold at less than one-half the cost of the latter. As an evidence of its superiority over earthen ware, it is only necessary to refer to the rapidly increasing business of the firm. Dealers and purchasers should remember the place, No. 303 Liberty street.

To Purchasers. Purchasers should always make it a point before making their purchases, no matter what their nature, to first ascertain an establishment of a reliable character, where the article they desire is kept for sale, and then it is their duty to learn where they can get the best article for the least money. Those in search of lace goods, trimmings, hosiery and gloves will find the establishment of W. W. Barker & Co., 29 Market street, and the place to make their purchases. Their stock is large and fresh, and he daily receives new goods from the Eastern States. Prices at this establishment are put down to the lowest figure.
