Live Stock Market. New York, May 26.—The weather is very hot, which depresses the dead meat market and causes all kinds of live stock to sell slowly. Strawberries are so plenty, and selling at 20 cents per quart, stock to sell slowly. Strawberries are so plenty, and selling at 20 cents per quart, that they draw away from meats. Of beeves we have 1,690 fresh and 160 held from Monday, or bought on speculation that day. They have barely all been sold at the rates of Monday, or 14@160 per pound, with a very few extra fine selected at 16%c. The bulk of the good droves went at 15c in a dull and dragging market; the H.
