Pic-Nic.—Providing the weather is fa-vorable a pic-nic will be held this day and evening, at Linden Grove, for the benefit of Mr. J. T. Harper, a one-legged veteran of the army. The arrangements are on the grandest scale, and no disreputable persons will be permitted on the grounds.

Boisterous.—Three "Nymphs" yesterday attended a picnic at Iron City Park, where they acted in a disorderly mrnner and were ejected from the grounds. On their way to the city they became boisterous, and were arrested in the vicinity of the Skating Park and conducted to the lock-up, where they remained for the might.

Cheap Shees.—Jane Black, residing at 16 Cherry alley, alleges Jennie Middle. ton, some time ago, purloined from her a pair of shoes valued at one dollar and fifty cents. In Demand.—The committee of ladies who kindly volunteered to procure flowers with which to decorate the graves of soldiers, request all persons having flowers to donate to send them to Masonie Hall Friday, as early in the day as possible. The demand for flowers will be heavy, and we fear will exceed the supply, unless persons residing in the country respond liberally to the request of the committee.

Obstructing the Street.—Street Com-missioner McFadden, of the Second dis-trict, yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Mr. Reno, the contractor for the construction of the Dia-mond alley sewer, with obstructing Diamond street. It appears that the accnsed has constructed a mortar bed on said street and refused to put up a proper barricade to prevent injury to person and horses. A summons was issued.

Assault and Battery.-Adolph Sallar made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Thomas Steel with assault and battery. The accused is a son of the proprietor of the Fagle Hotel, on Liberty street, and the prosecutor is a saleeman in a clothing store adjoining the Hotel. The parties had a difficulty about the purchase of a box of collars, and, as the prosecutor alleges, Steel attacked and beat him. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Steel.

In Great Danger.-The life of Mary Murphy, residing near the Opper Works, Soho, is certainly in great danger, if her statements can be relied upon. Yesterday she appeared before Alderman Lynch, and lodged information against four of her neighbors, named respectively Mrs. Zarner, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Galagher and Mrs. Davis, all of whom she punishment for some fancied affront that she is in continual fear for her life. Warrants for the arrest of the terrible quartette were issued:

Had no Permit .- Mr. Burkle, a dumber residing in Allegheny, opened Fulton street for the purpose of putting in a water pipe without a permit. Street Commissioner McFadden, on finding him at work, asked to see his permit for opening the street, and not having procured one, of course he could not exhibit it. He was then directed to go to the office and get one, and the work stopped, but after the Street Commissioner left, instead of complying with the city ordinance and procuring a permit, he proceeded with the work and completed the job. The Street Commissioner made complaint before the Mayor, and a warrant was issued.

Elopement. Tuesday evening a German farmer at Fleming Station, seven miles below the city, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, returned from his labor in the field to find his house deserted, his connubial partner absent, and his family treasury depleted to the amount of seventy dollars. Investigating further he ascertained the lady had disappeared in company with a youthful Tenton, one of his former employes, who had been recently discharged. After careful reflection, he accepted the situation philosophically, and has since attended his duties as though nothing had happened.

In Search of a Brother. James Gillam, a resident of Bridgeport, Braxton county, Alabama, arrived in the city yesterday evening in search of his brother, John J. Gillam. He states that his brother left home and came North in 1860. In '61 he enlisted in the Union army and was honorably discharged at the close of the war, after which he came to this city, where he remained until about a year ago, since which time he has not been heard from by his friends. SYNODICAL PROCEEDINGS. General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church at Cedarville, Ohio,

FIFTH DAY-AFTERNOON SESSION. Synod met at three o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator,

Rev. M. Harshaw.

Dr. Douglas presented in the name of the proprietors, a copy of the United Presbytery designated as the Reformed Presbyterian, of Pittsburgh, to each member

On motion of Peter Gibson, Esq., a vote of thanks was passed to the proprietors of the United Presbyterian for their consideration and generosity. Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the paper from the Sa-paranpur Presbytery and the resolutions Dr. McLeod.

Dr. McLeod gave a short history of the Mission in India. He was sure that it would not be abandoned by the church now. He called on the Secretaries of the Board of the Old School in New York become became the second of the Secon fore he came to Synod. They assured him the Missionaries had not reported the act of their suspension to them. The Secretaries told him they believed the Missionaries had gone out of their sphere in suspending relations to Synod. They had been influenced by news "manufactured" in Pittsburgh, and sent broadcast over the world. They should have waited until they received the minutes of Synod. But he held there was a difference between a Presbytery among the heathen and a Presbytery at home. There was a Mission in India before there was a Presbytery, and there may be a Mission, even if there were no Presbytery there now. Rev. A. G. Wylie believed in calling things by their proper names. He did not wish to say they had a Mission when they had none. He would not compromise the Synod but would treat the Sabaranpur Presbytery as they had treated the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Mr. Stewart believed they had a Mission and should support it. The best thing they could do would be to pass the

Dr. McMaster would like more light before he gave his vote. He would like to hear the report of the Board of Foreign Missions before he gave his vote. They should treat the Sabaranpur as they had treated the other Presbyteries. The following are the principal resolutions in the paper:

Resolved, That the General Synad views the action of the Presbytery of Sabaranpur in the premises with pro-found regret; that they affectionately require them to reconsider said action, and return to their spiritual Mother who sent them to serve God among the heathen.

Resolved, That a Committee of Three be appointed to address a letter to the Presbytery of Sabaranpur, conveying a copy of these resolutions, and that further action in the case be suspended until they shall be again heard from. Resolved, That the Reformed Presby-terian Mission in India is hereby declared to be still the property of General Synod.

McMillan and Isaac Kirpatrick on the "Work of laymen in relation to the ministry," and the "Social Prayer Meeting." Resumed business. Minutes read and

Rev. J. Alford offered a paper favoring the National Reform movement, which centemplates an amendment of the Nacontemplates an amendment of the National Constitution so as to recognize God as the source of all power, and Jesus Christ as the Prince of the Kings of the Earth. Adopted.

Dr. McMaster presented an amendment to the paper offered yesterday by Dr. McLeod, in relation to the Sabaranpur Presbytery. It was as follows: Resolved, That inasmuch as the Sabaraupur Presbytery did, at its meeting, August, 1868, suspend relations to this Synod, and did, in their meeting in March of the present year, re-affirm their action in this regard, they are hereby declared by their own act to have laced themselves without the jurisdic-od of this Synod, and we do not, thereore, recognize them as the missionaries to contribute for their support in the meantime, until time be given to communicate with them and ascertain whether they will not reconsider and annul the hasty and obnoxious resolution by which they have placed themselves beyond the jurisdiction of this Synod.

Resolved, 3. That we still claim the mission as belonging to this Synod and enjoin upon our congregations to sustain the heathen orphans and the schools as heretofore. *

Resolved, 4. That should the resolution suspending relations not be rescinded, the Executive Committee of cur Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to take the steps necessary to possess the mission property, and to secure other missionaries who may go out in our name and carry on the mission as our representa-tives in Northern India. Rev. A. G. Wylie offered a substitute for the whole matter before Synod. Not entertained. Dr. McMaster withdrew his amendment, and said he would offer amendments as Dr. McLeod's paper was read.

praver. The Twenty Thieves-Bonds of Promise. For some time past residents in the lower part of the Third and portions of the Fourth wards, Allegheny, have been annoyed by the mysterious disappearance of articles from about their premises. The articles taken were generally found in halls connected with the house, and from the manner and frequency with which they disappeared, it became evident that a regular band of thieves were at arrived at until yesterday, when officer Fahr, of Alderman Bolster's police, arrested a young lad on suspicion of being the ringleader of the depredators. The boy, during Tuesday, sold a saddle to a resident in the vicinity, who this limit to the water there is a versel of water, and from the roof down The lad, apparently not more than thirteen years old, when taken before the Alderman, gave his name as Andrew Rutlinger. A number of rings of all sizes and descriptions were found upon his person, which tended still more to confirm the suspicions entertained of his character. Some four his person was unit at the fort Wayne. tertained of his character. Soon after his arrest it was discovered that the saddle had been stolen, and was accordingly held for investigation. Subsequently, four companions, named respectively Herman Miller, George Schmidt, George Wagner and Edward Rinecold, were arrested on suspicion of being impli-cated with him in the thieving operations. All the boys had been observed spending money free-ly, which first directed suspicion toward them. From information received it is believed they belong to an organ-ized gang, numbering not less than twenty, who are supplied with all the appurienances for carrying on burglarious operations. Some of those arrested made confessions, which resulted in the recovery of a number of articles, which were identified by the owners. These persons, however, owing to the youth of the prisoners, refused to prosecute, and rested satisfied with the recovery of their property.

Two of the boys, Rutinger and Schmidt, were committed, and the others gave bail for a hearing. Warrants are out for a number of others, suppose to be members of the gang, and it is probable the whole affair will be sifted in a few days. None of the boys thus far known are over thirteen years of age, but they are said to be considerably older than that in crime. The value of the property taken cannot be estimated, as it was stolen at intervals extending through wo or three months.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE: I have have bought vegetables under the nose of the Constable, to sell again, in our city markets. Inquiring of Mr. Messner, the Market Constable, for the reason why he did not interfere with such outrageous proceedings, he told me that the Mayor would not entertain any suit against a hawker or grocery keeper until a suit pending before the Court is de-cided. In the meantime he (the Constable) should note down the offenders against the law. The Constable told the Mayor this was a wrong course. The offender should be taken before the Mayor and bound over for the offence. but His Honor thought otherwise and the citizens have to suffer. What is to be done in this case?

A TRAUMPH.

Palace on Wheels—An Elegant Car from the Fort Wayne Rallway Shops. The day for riding in close box cars with little or no ventilation, rudely furnished and uncomfortable, has gone by, and a new era has dawned for travelers. Each returning year finds our railway great objects of comfort and convenience in their carriages, and to render traveling pleasant and agreeable rather than monotonous and tedious. The ordinary coaches of the present day, which are whirled along the smooth iron tracks of compared with those in vogue scarcely a full decade of years ago; but even these grow dim and ordinary when the line of comparison is drawn between them and the luxu-riant palaces on wheels which are used as sleeping coaches for long stretches of travel. Yesterday we were kindly permitted by Superintendent Layng, of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road, to examine and inspect what may justly be termed the fluest railway carriage in the world. It stood in its quiet grandeur all day in the yard of the company, and attracted the largest attention, hundreds of visitors crowding into it to admire its handiwork and share in the triumph of American mechanics. The exterior of the car is finished in magnificent style, painted bright and beautiful, and so highly finished as to faithfully mirror objects about it. The car rests on two staunch six wheels trucks, supplied with the best of elliptic springs, made ont of Pittsburgh steel by the Pittsburgh Cast Steel Spring Company, for which Mr. A. French is the agent. The trucks are as pretty twin pieces of mechanism as we have ever of this Church.

Resolved, That still recognizing them as ministers of Christ, and as doing the work of missionaries among the heathens, we recommend to our people the axles, rails or trucks being forced upward into the car, as has frequently happened in railway accidents, double protection is afforded by heavy iron rods designed to resist the trucks if forced upward. On the side of the car is a golden allegorical medalion of night, be-neath which is the great word Pullman, which is regarded with reverence and respect by all who have "been to the West." Not to know Pullman is to be unacquainted with the western monarch who presides with so much grace and ability over the destinies ability over the destinies of the model sleeping and dining cars of the world. He is in the West what Woodruff is, in the East, and together they both engage in friendly competition as to which can surround the traveler with most luxury, or come the nearest to converting the swift moving sleeping car into s palace fit for kings.

The interior of the car is so grand and gorgeous that we hesitate before attempting to describe it even in general terms. The floors are carpeted with the riches moduct in bright light colors, in keeping with the elegant upholstery of the silver armed seats. Along the ceilings are bars of silver the full length of the car, and here and there are ornamental signs in silver to please and relieve the eye. The lamps are all silver, and of finely cut glass. In an instants time the finely cut glass. In an instants time the seats are converted into soft downy couches, supplied with the beat of bedding and covering. Every inch of space is economized and made serve a useful and ornamental purpose. The entire wood work is black olled wainut, with gold trimmings. The windows are of fine plate glass, and between every pair there is an adjustable table which can be set is an adjustable table which can be set which they disappeared, it became evident up firmly for writing purposes, reading, that a regular band of thieves were at work. Detectives were placed on watch, and sucreted in getting a clue to the suspected parties, but nothing definite was e vicinity, who, thinking it to the water there is a large pipe for ventoo cheap to have been procured hon-estly, at once informed the officer of the circumstance, which lead to his arrest. ing its dust therein, reaches the passengers pure and refreshing. The car has a state room which will close compactly. It has a fine saloon attached, and well ar-reflects the highest credit to the builders.

The car was built at the Fort Wayne shops of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company, under the immediate superintendence of Mr. William Waddington. The capacity of these shops to turn out fine cars has always been recognized, but in the present instance it is demonstrated that nowhere else in the country has greater perfec tion in caribuilding been attained. Mr. Babcock, the gentleman who accomp nled the car to this city, and to whom was entrusted the execution of the details of its workmanship, informed us that the twin mate of the car left the shops at the same time and was at once place by Pullman on the Union Pacific road.
Two more of the same sort are now build ing at the shops and will soon be com-pleted. It is a matter of congratulation with the Pattsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Company, that they have within themselves the means and ability to compete with the world in car building, and the care and excellence displayed in all parts of the new car is full guarantee of the proficiency of their workmen. Amusements, OPERA House .- Notwithstanding the extremely unfavorable weather a very respectable audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to hear the Chapman Sisters in the burlesque entithed "Fra Diavolo." Mr. Bishop's "Beppo" was unexceptionable, and not-withstanding that the author has sacrificed all the remaining characters for the sake of Beppo, concentrating all the amusement in the one, it is MESSES, EDITORS GAZETTE: I have seen that hawkers and grocery keepers by no means the cream of the entertainment when the roles of "Fra Diavolo" and "Zerlina" are filled respectively by Blanch and Ella Chapman. The singing of the former is exquisite, and the vivacity of the latter is particularly vivacity of the latter is particularly en-tertaining. If Ella Chapman is not the peer of Lotta, who has heretofore been without a rival in her line of characters, she is certainly a dangerous rival, and having the advantage of youth by several years at least, pramises to be the bright-est star in the constellation. To-night "Alladin, or the Wonderful Scamp," will be presented, on which occasion Ella will play a banjo solo and dance a clog hornpipe.

A Fend. The colored population of Church alley have been considerably agitated, of late, by a feud existing between Mrs. Jane Black and Mrs. Betty Snively. Affairs at times have been quite exciting, and on various occasions the public tranquility has only been maintained by the interposition of the law's strong arm, managers more anxious to attain the After a quiet of several days, the quarrel was renewed yesterday morning with unusual fierceness, and promised severe results, when Mrs. Black, thinking "discretion the better part of valor," with becoming wisdom retired to the magisterial office of Alderman Strain, and made complete the strain of the discretion of the discret complaint against her opponent for dis orderly conduct. Mrs. Snively accordingly was compelled to attend a hearing ore the magistrate, at the conclusion of which she was bound over to keep the peace, hereafter, towards her rival.

Alleged Unprovoked Assault. Robert E. Jackson, a colored man, made information before Alderman Mo-Masters, yesterday, against Wm. Jones, of the Mayor's police, for felonious assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that he was standing on Wylie street, near Fulton, when Jones came up in an intoxicated condition and commenced an unprovoked attack upon him. In the scuffle, Jackson alleges, he was knocked down three or four times, and when he attempted to away, was shot at by Jones—the shot for-tunately not taking effect. Warrant issued vesterday.

We desire it understood that we do so without any solicitation or promise of benefit from the proprietor or other interested parties, 4 We simply do it as an act of duty towards those who are laboring under physical disabilities, weakness, and the various complaints arising from impurities of the blood.
