Deborah keeps a small sathat Syncd meet in Cincinnati .by loon, which Thomas complained af as bedecided vote on the third Wednesday of ing the resort of a set of noisy unruly characters, who trespassed upon his property adjoining and caused hi m considerable annoyance. Deborah felt dis-pleased at these complaints of Thomas, and according to his allegations, threatened to scald his eyes out and burn his house down. Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Deborah at the instance of Thomas.

More Trespassers.

Yesterday afternoon officer Nixon arrested three more trespassers on the Allegheny Park. They were boys. Not content- with walking through the grounds by the regular paths, they were detected tramping over the flower bdds and dearing up the plants. They were fined five dollars and costs by the Mayor. As has been heretofore said, we think the fine in a case of this kind should be much heavier.

East Liberty Concert.—We are told that the four pieces of Rossini's "Masse Solennelle," which will be sung at Mr. C. Tetedoux's Concert next Thursday, Tune 3d, and the found June 3d, are among the best to be found in the great work of the great Maestro: Domine, solo for tenor; Quoniam, solo for bass; qui tollis, duet for sophrano and contraito: Grasias. trio for contraito, tenor and bass. Interpreted, as they are to be, by splendid voices and highly cul-tivated talent, they will certainly meet in the appreciative public of East Lib-erty with something of the enthusiastic s which they are now achieving in all the large cities of Europe."
