On motion of Maj. J. F. Slagle, a committee was appointed on contested seats from the Tenth ward. Messrs. J. E. McKelvy, Charles Jeremy, Frederick Riddle, J. P. Brown and J. H. McElroy were appointed the committee. Mr. Sla-gle declined acting as a member of the committee.

While the Committee was deliberating, Mr. R. H. Davis moved that Major A. M. Brown be selected as permanent chairman. C. W. Robb, Esq., nominated W. C.

Moreland, Esq. for Chairman.

Mr. Moreland, in a graceful speech, declined, preferring that entire harmony ahould prevail in the Convention.

Whereupon Major Brown was innaniously chosen chairman, and having en conducted to the stage by Mr. mously chosen chairman, and having been conducted to the stage by Mr. Moreland, and formally introduced, returned thanks for the honor conferred and made a few cloquent remarks.

F. C. Negley, Esq., moved that two tables be procured and that four Tellers and the control of th

The voting having been concluded, was about being announced, when Mr. F. C. Negley moved that the nomination of Gen F. H. Collier be made unanimous.

The vote stood, Collier, one hundred and eighty-one; Negley, twenty-one.]

The Committee on Contested Seats reported through their Chairman, Mr. J. E. McKelvy, that Joseph French and David Wilson were entitled to seats from the Tenth ward, Pittsburgh.

Mr. F. C. Negley said he was pretty well acquainted with the facts of the case, and believed Dr. H. Manchester and W. H. H. Rutledge were entitled to seats, and made a motion to that effect.

Mr. Slagle thought it at least due to the Committee to receive their report.

the Committee to receive their report.

The report was received.

Mr. Negley renewed his motion.

C. W. Robb moved as a substitute that the report of the Committee be adopted.

Carried.
Nominations for delegates to the State Convention were next in order, and some forty names having been suggested, the Convention, at half past twelve, adjourned for one hour.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Convention re-assembled at a quarter past two o'clock, delay having been occasioned in the preparation of printed lists of delegates.

Before the voting commenced, Mr. F.
M. Edmundsen, moved that the dèlegates chosen to the State Convention be instructed to vote for Gen. Geary for Geary, he desired the delegates to go uninstructed, in order that nothing might be thrown in the way of Judge Williams as a candidate for the Supreme Bench. the way of Judge Williams as a candidate for the Supreme Bench.

Major J. K. Slagle thought the resolution impolitic and hoped it would be withdrawn. He, too, was not unfavorable to Gen. Geary, but did not wish to interfere with Judge Williams's chances.

Capt. C. W. Batchelor opposed the resolution for a like reason. He came to the Convention a Geary man, but be-lieved it pest the delegates should go un-

There was no other candidate for Supreme Court beside Judge Williams, and his nomination was a foregone conclusion. The majority of the counties in the State had instructed for Gen. Geary, and he could see no reason whatever why Allegheny county could not do likewise, and lead the van in his support. He had been a good Governor, was an excellent soldier, and should be re-elected.

Just before the vote was announced, Hon. Russell Errett, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, reported and read the following:

1st. That the Republican citizens of Allegheny county recognize, with feelings of just pride, the inauguration of ings of just pride, the inauguration of sound political principles, and the already decisive illustration of a national policy of wise statesmanship, of pure integrity, of a capable efficiency, and a patriotic devotion to the highest and truest interests of our once more united people, under the Administration of President Grant. They point with equal satisfaction, to the marked expression of their confidence in the new Chief Magistrate in November last, and to the species. ber last, and to the spotless fidelity with which he has, in his high idelity with which he has, in his high office, maintained the justice of his title to their regard. They now renew the assurances of their cordial support to his government, in the great domestic work government, in the great domestic work of completing the national padification, of upholding the national credit, and of developing and protecting the leading national interests, as well as in maintaining abroad the national rights and honor before all the peoples of the world.

2d. That we heartily endorse the Reconstruction policy which has been shaped by Republican Congresses, and which has at last found a faithful Executive, in the head of the present Administration, and we earnestly urge upon the tration, and we earnestly urge upon the XLIst Congress, the imperative need for such further legislation, in the case of such further legislation, in the case of the people of Georgia, as shall systemat-ically perfect the National policy in one harmonious whole, finally healing the last open wound of all those which a causeless robellion inflicted upon the Republic. 3rd. A delegate moved that the Secretaries be instructed to have the names of the candidates printed in alphabetical order, the Convention in the meantime taking a recess until two P. M.

The motion was amended, directing the names to be printed as they oc-curred on the Secretaries' lists and the Convention to adjourn until half past one o'clock.

After considerable discussion and The result of the some confusion, the motion was further nounced as follows: amended and the Convention took a recess until half past one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION. Re-assembled at the appointed hour. Mr. Joseph Hartman, from the Com-aittee on Credentials, presented the fol-mittee on Credentials, presented the forlowing report:

GENTLEMEN: The Committee on Credentials respectfully report that Messrs.
Friday and McCreary, of the Tenth ward, having been voted for at the regular place of holding elections, and having received a majority of all the votes cast, are entitled to seats in this Convention.
Also, that Louis Straub, of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, is entitled to a seat inward, Allegheny, is entitled to a seat instead of Louis Moul.

Mr. Ferguson made a motion for the reading of all the papers handed to the Committee in the contested cases.

Mr. John W. Riddell objected. He thought the Committee was the proper authority to decide upon the matter. If one side was heard by the Convention, then the other in fairness should be similarly treated, and time would be thus uselessly consumed.

A point of order was raised by a delegate that the vote was raised by a dele-gate that the vote was upon the adoption of the report, and not upon a consider-ation of who was entitled to the seat. The Chair decided the point well taken, The Chair decided the point well taken, when the question was put, resulting in the adoption of the report by a large majority.

CHANGE IN DELEGATES.

The Chairman read a communication from John Anderson, delegate from Robinson township, asking that Isaac Wal-

On motion, the communication was received and the change agreed to.
A motion was made that the election be next proceeded with by marking, delegates, to vote at the same time for Senate and Assembly candidates. Carried.

The list of the nominees was read over, when the name of James McBriar, of Allegheny, was withdrawn as a candidate for Assembly.

The delegates from the dies then, as their names were called, stepped fortheir names were called, stepped forward and recorded their vote at a table on the right, while those from the toroughs and townships voted on the left. This arrangement was made to facilitate the husiness and prevent confusion.

LETTER OF WITHDRAWAL.

While the young was in progress, the chairman stated he had fust received a communication from Hon. George Wilson, which, if it was the pleasure of the Convention would be read.

Mr. Oliver.—Mr. President I object to having the paper read. It's out of order during the progress of the ballot. Such a practice has never been heard of before.
