Money to Loan.-We have $10,000 to loan on first class city property. Brown and Lambie, 114 Fifth avenue.

A Children's May-day party was held at Alpsville, yesterday. There was a large attendance from the city and the occasion was very enjoyable. The Streets, Wharves and Landings, and Market Committees of the Alle-and Market Committees of the Alle-gheny Councils held their regular meet-ings last evening. Nothing outside of routine business was transacted. The work of filling in the trestle work at Port Perry, on the Connellsville road, progresses very favorably. The road is in splendid condition and enjoys a large share of travel and freight patronage. R. T. C.—Mr. A. N. McGonigle will address the Rabe Temperance Club, at their temporary Hall, Duquesne Way, near Ninth street, on Friday evening at eight o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

Nuisauce,-Adam Haley, a night-soiler, was arrested in Alegheny, yesterday, for depositing the contents of his cart on the wharf, near the railroad bridge. He was fived five dollars by the Mayor, and upon payment discharged. The Democratic Primary Elections of Fayette county will be held on Saturday. Much local interest and excitement pre-vails among the politicians, and we really heard that there was a mythical ring to be broken by somebody. The Youghiogheny river has a good stage of water, but owing to the general wreck of its dams and locks, is not navigable. It seems singular that the heavy coal operators on its banks do not make an effort to have it restored to good condition for carriage.

Wanted-Situation.-By a young man as book-keeper or assistant book-keeper, good penman, and has had several years experience in store and bank. Can furnish good reference and security, if required. Address box A GAZETTE office, or call at the GAZETTE Counting Room.

Handbills posted up in the First, Second, Third and Fourth wards, Allegheny, notify owners of horses, cows, hogs, &c. that hereafter these animals will not be allowed to ornament the thoroughfares in these sections of the city. This is in accordance with an orlinance recently passed by Councils.

Disorderly Passengers. - Wednesday evening a couple of Alleghenians, whose names are familiar in the community, were arrested for creating a disturbance with a conductor on a car of the Manchester Passenger Railway while passing up Federal street. They were fined ten dollars and costs by the Mayor for their unseemly conduct.

Chastising His Wife,-Philip Luter, constising His wife.—Philip Luter, a resident of the Third Ward, Allegheny, undertook to chastise his wife with an iron bar, about one o'clock yesterday morning. The cries of the victim attracted the police to the spot, and caused Luter to be placed in the lock-up. Last evening the Mayor in the lock-up. Last evening the Mayor fined him twenty dollars which he was unable to pay. He is now in jail.

The Mail Train coming to the city yesterday on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, had no less than five bridal parties aboard. Conductor Boulton, with his usual courtesy, placed them all together in one car, and made quite a happy party, which attracted the attention of all passengers, inasmuch as so many newly made Benedicts grouped together with their blushing brides was no ordinary aparterla. ordinary spectacle.

How it Goes .- Yesterday the vote on the question of Lay Delegation was taken in the Christ M. E. congregation, this city, resulting in one hundred and seventy-seven votes for and two against the measure. The election was conducted by the pastor, Rev. John A. Gray, and two laymen, Messrs. William Vankirk two laymen, Messra. William Vankirk and G. N. Hoffstott. As authorized by the General Conference, the privilege of the ballot was granted the lady members of the church, about sixty of whom availed themselves of the right to vote.

Assault and Battery.-James Ormand, yesterday, made information before the Mayor charging Robert Blair, George McCarthy, and others, with assault and battery. It appears that the deponent is battery. It appears that the deponent is a stranger in the city and stopped at the Greenwood Hotel, and while standing on the steps Saturday evening last, he alleges that the accused shoved him off. His leg was broken by the fall, and he is now lying at the hotel named, where the Mayor went and took the information. A warrant was issued for the accused.

The recent storm assumed the shape of a tornado above Alpsville, on the Yough. iogheny river. A strip of country was embraced in its range, fully a mile long and a half mile wide. Trees that had withstood the storms of a half century were snapped in twain, and in some in-stances, tern up by the roots and hurled a hundred feet from where they grew up. At one point, a fine orchard of apple trees was completely destroyed, every tree being shattered and torn up by the roots. At another point a large tree was carried by the storm and thrown

THE COURTS.

District Court Judgo Kirkputrick THURSDAY, June 3.—The first case taken up was that of Langfith vs. Deitz. action to recover damages for malicious rosecution. In April '67, the plaintiff burgh to Lawrenceville, and on the 6th day of that month the car having made a trip was returning to the city, while near the corner of Butler and Wain-right street, the car ran over and killed Adam Boust, a boy about three years of age, a nephew of the defendant in this case, whereupon the defendant, at the suggestion of the parents of the child made information before Justice Jauncey, of Lawrenceville, charging Langfitt with "willful, malicious and negligent kill-ing," A warrant was issued and Lang-uit arrested and committed to the county jail, where he remained two days. Upon an examination of the case by the Grand Jury, the bill was ignored and this suit was brought to recover damages to the amount of five thousand dollars. Jury versary Meeting...What Has Been Accomplished...What is Proposed...The Exercises—Annual Report—Board of Managers.

Yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, was driver of car No. 31 on the Citizen's the patrons and friends of the "Home ted occasionally to meet with other Sab-for the Friendless," assembled in the bath schools, and we are happy to say, Union Baptist Church, Grant street, to they have always gained credit to them participate in the eighth anniversary exladies and gentlemen, among whom we noticed a number of the leading spirits in most of our benevolent enterprises. The children of various ages, from two to fourteen years, were seated upon a platform in front of the audience, and looked so neat and attractive in dress and manner, and seemed so pleased and interested in the exercises, and, altogether, appeared so helpless in their innocence and youth, that the sympathies of the spectator could not but be strongly aroused in behalf of the institution and of the noble efforts of the benevolent ladies having it in charge. An additional attraction to the scene was the fresh, bright flowers and evergreens, which, in wreaths, boquets and baskets, profusely decorated the platform and pulpit pillars and pervaded the air with an agreeable and odoriferous perfume.

Rev. Wm. M. Young, D. D., pastor of the Church, presided, and announced as the first exercise the Twenty-third Psalm, which was repeated in concern the church of the shiften followed by the shiften followed by the shiften followed by the children, followed by the anthem "Glory to God in the Highest," by four girls and ten boys, Airs. Levi Wade playing an accompaniment on the organ. Rev. Dr. Douglass then led the audience in prayer.

Rev. Dr. Young followed in a brief address, in which he touchingly referred to the children present, and the scene as claiming the sympathies and worthy the most devoted energies of the benevolent and humane everywhere.

Mary Adams, a little girl and soldier's orphan, next delivered a poetical address, entitled, "The Spring has Come Again," which was very well rendered. Rev. J. R. Newell, by request, then read the following annual reports:

MANAGERS' REPORT. The Managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny "Home for the Friendless" meet to-day to celebrate their eighth anniversary. We feel, as on all former occa-sions, that we have great cause for grati-tude to our Heavenly Father for His sustaining care and many mercies bestowed upon us. That watchful eye that notices the sparrow's fall has been over this institution, and these little ones have been clothed from His bountiful hand.

There is great cause for gratitude that such good health has been vouchsafed to us. But few cases of sickness and only one death (and that of a delicate babe,) have occurred during the year. This speaks well for the sanitary condition of the institution. All is done that is in our power to promote this end. In reviewing the operations of these years that are past, we cannot help feeling that some good has resulted from the efforts put forth to benefit these children of sorrow and want. Hundreds of neglected and friendless little ones have been shel-tered by us, and it may be have received instruction that will be the foundations for a life of usefulness here, and of happiness in a future world.

Asthere are many charitable institutions in these cities, it may not be amiss again to specify the nature and object of this one, as it does not seem to be fully nderstood, even by some who contribute to its support.
It receives all friendless children_that it can accommodate, those who have been bereft of parents, or those whose parents are unit, or unable to provide for them. There are many cases where one parent is removed by death, one parent is removed by death, perhaps the mother, and the father finds while to care for the little ones | Dr. Douglas that on the 4th day of May last the ac as he would like to do. He places them with us, pays what he can for them and feels happy, that the loss of the mother, is in a measure supplied to his children. A mother is left with a family dependent on her, the labor of her hands is insufficient to provide for all their wants, and even if she could, who is to care for them, while she is absent from her home laboring to procure the means for their support.

Such children are placed with us, and the niother can go to her labor with a cheerful heart, knowing that the children will be watched over and kindly cared for.

Who will not say this is a great blessing. and be happy to contribute to such an end? Some are here because their pa-rents are addicted to the dreadful vice of intemperance. A little girl was brought to us some months ago, by a kind hearted gentleman, who found her in a pitisble condition. Parents were drunk, arbiconductives and the conductive sent to rested for disorderly conduct, sent to jail, and poor Mary was left to the charity of others. She is still an inmate of the Home.

These cases might be multiplied, but These cases might be multiplied, but it is unnecessary. We have twenty-nine children of our deceased soldiers, for which the State pays us $105 each per year. To our receiving these children we have heard objections, but we think they are unjustly made. Many of these are as friendless as any others, and as dethey are unjustly made. Many of these are as friendless as any others, and as deserving of our care. Should we not rather feel that they are a sacred legacy entrusted to us, and just now, while the nation is honoring the memory of those that have fought, bled and died for us, show our regard for them by caring for their children? We have received during the year sixty five children, and six things of the season have been yout to them in abundance, which they have en-joyed very much, and for this manifestation of interest, we as well as they, extend to the denors our hearty thanks.

A gentleman exhibited to them a pan-orama of scripture and other scenes, which was both interesting and profitable to them. They have also been invielves and their instructors, by their ercises of the Institution, The church questions propounded to them. Our was well filled with an audience of matron, Miss L. J. Blair, is ever ready to promote the happiness of the children, caring for them in health and tenderly watching over them in sickness, and thus endeavoring to discharge the responable duties devolving upon her.

The day school is under the charge of Miss A. Neel, whom we regard as an excellent disciplinarian, and the scholars generally have improved as much as could be expected, considering the large could be expected, considering the large number (seventy-five), and the diffi-culty of classifying them. Our sincere thanks are rendered to our kind physician, Dr. Wm. B. Hezlep, for his constant and valuable services so cheerfully rendered without pagnises.

For a few months past the Sab-bath School has been conducted by Mr. Moore, a Theological student, who, by his earnestness and variety in teaching, has given a new impulse to the school The Scriptures are the text book here. and we would fain hope that like Tim-othy, these children may be made acquainted with them from their youth,

By order of the Board, Mrs. M. R. Thevor, Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT. The Treasurer's report show that during the year the bequests, less taxes, were $1,090: Annual subscriptions, $2,-303; cash for the maintenance of soldier's orphans, $3,697.53; donations, benefits abildren interest of $2. dier's orphans, $3,697.53; donations, boarding children, interest, etc., $1,517.66; balance on hand commencing the year, $3,915.82; total, $12,524.01. The expenses were, salaries, $980.54; cash to Visiting Committee, $5,918-17; repairs, insurance, medicine, etc., $1,441.71; total, $3,340.42. Leaving a balance in the Treasury of $4,183,59, three thousand dollars of which is in 5-20 bonds.

Resolved. That we most cordially commend this excellent institution to the sympathies and liberality of our people.

Adopted unanimously.
The exercises closed with a benediction by Rev. Dr. Douglas.

A Grateful Acknowledgement. Our readers will remember that among those participating in the exercises of Decoration Day were a number of children from the Soldiers' Orphan School at Uniontown. The children were taken in charge by the members of the Monumental Association and a number of other patriotic ladies in the vicinity, who made great exertions to render their visit to the city pleasant and memorable How well they succeeded may be learned from the following:

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 31, 1869. Ladies of the Monumental Association:
I take the earliest opportunity, after our return, to express, in behalf of the teachers and scholars of the Uniontown Soldiers' Orphan School, our grateful acknowledgments for the very kind and hospitable manner in which we were enabered Thursday night, at No. 41 Fourth avenue, by ten of the Mayor's police, for hospitable manner in which we were en- avenue, by ten of the Mayor's police, for hospitable manner in which we were entertained while on a visit to your city on Decoration Day. Church Bells.

We gladly make room for the following letter from the Building Committee of a new Methodist Church at Portamouth, Free from any injurious substances, and Ohio. It is, however, only a sample of so nicely compounded that the contents hundreds of similar testimonials re- of each box will make light, sweet, ceived from all parts of the country, and proves that the high reputation of Ful ton, Son & Co.'s bells, long since earned, is still maintained, and that the last products of their foundry are like the former, of such excellence as to defy competition:

Several months since I was delegated to buy a large bell, 2,800 pounds, for the Sixth street Methodist Episcopal Church of our city, and having noticed for several years that all of the fine toned bells on the steamboats landing at our wharf were from the Fulton foundry, I at once decided to give you the preference. The bell cast by you for us has now been in use several months, and is entirely satisuse several months, and is entirely satisfactory. For rich mellowness of tone and volume of sound it has no equal in this part of the State. One of the city churches having a Cincinnati bell that cracked twice, have sent to your city for one of your bells, and another church will do likewise shortly. We take pleasure in recommending your bells to all inquirers, feeling confident that they will recommend themselves wherever introduced.

Please accept this unsolicited expression, and refer to our bell with confision, and reversed dence. Yours, &c., W. S. McColm, Of Building Com., Sixth st. M. E. C.

Ladies Attention! Price Reduced. We are pleased to be able to inform our readers this morning that the prices of dry goods-at least of a very desirable class of dry goods-have been reduced. Reduction of prices is never initiated save in a first-class house—an enterprising house—a house where the sales are so large that reduction can be afforded, and the proprietors so judicious as to give their customers the very best bargains attainable. In the present instance it is the popular firm of Bates & Bell, 21 Fifth avenue, which relieves the pur-chasing public. Messrs. Bates & Bell have lowered their rates on many of their
