

Pittsburgh Gazette

VOLUME LXXXIV.

PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1869.

NUMBER 127

FIRST EDITION.
TWELVE O'CLOCK, M.

NEWS BY CABLE.

Lord Clarendon's Speech in the House of Lords on the Alabama Convention.—The speech of Lord Clarendon on the Alabama Convention, which was read in the House of Lords on Saturday last, has been published in the Standard. It is a long and able speech, and shows that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy.

London, June 5.—The Daily Telegraph reports the speech of Lord Clarendon as being a strong and able one, and that it has produced a great effect in the House of Lords. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Royal Yacht Club has decided to award a prize of £100 to the first yacht to cross the Atlantic in less than thirty days. The prize is to be given to the first yacht to arrive in New York from London.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

London, June 5.—The Standard reports that the Government are determined to stand firm in their policy on the Alabama Convention. It is believed that the Government will be able to carry their policy through.

the country and would do nothing to save the Union. It would be better to accept the bill and modify it in Congress, than to renew ill feeling and excitement.

Lord Cardwell opposed the re-reading of the bill. He urged the Chamber of Peers that now it was able to make terms for the Irish Church; they might not have an opportunity hereafter. Lord Derby was in favor of the re-jection of the bill, contending that personal feuds should deter no one from doing right.

The majority of the Lords present approved of the views of Lord Derby, and it was agreed the second reading of the bill should be opposed. It is estimated that there will be a majority of eighty against the Irish Church bill on its second reading in the House of Lords.

London, June 5.—An immense public meeting of persons opposed to the Irish Church bill has been held in London. Nearly twelve thousand were present. A protest against the bill was adopted, and will be sent to the House of Lords.

BERLIN, June 5.—The Parliament of Prussia has elected Herr Simpson as President. The new President, Herr Simpson, has thanked the Chamber for the honor conferred upon him, and in his eyes, he has great political importance. The confidence shown in him would encourage him to proceed and persevere in the course he commences.

PARIS, June 5.—Washington, American Minister, is indisposed, and Hoffmann, first Secretary, in charge of the legation. Some arrests have been made in Paris within the last few days, in consequence of a report of a conspiracy. The details of the affair are as yet unknown.

VIENNA, June 5.—The Military Budget is published. The estimate of expenditures is $8,000,000 in excess of those of last year, and is calculated on the basis of an army of 800,000 men.

MADRID, June 5.—Direct taxes in the Spanish colonies have been reduced one-half, and a small export duty on sugar and tobacco has been imposed.

ALEXANDRIA, June 5.—A report has reached here from the interior that the Englishman and his family have been massacred by natives in Abyssinia.

LONDON, June 5.—Consols for money at 92½; account, 92½. Five-twentieths at 80½; 1857, 80½. Tallow at 43s. 6d. Sugar 38s. 6d. Petroleum at 47½.

FRANKFORT, June 5.—Bonds at 82½. Cotton active; middling upland, 11½. Orleans, 11½. Sales of 15,000 bales California white, 8s. 7d.; red western, 8s. 7d. West India, 22s. 6d. Coffee, 22s. 6d. Oil, 22s. 6d. Lard, 22s. 6d. Flour, 22s. 6d. Sugar, 22s. 6d. Petroleum, 22s. 6d.

FRANKFORT, June 5.—Evening—Five-twentieths closed at 82½.

FRANKFORT, June 5.—Bourse quiet. Renten 71½. 3½.

FRANKFORT, June 5.—Evening—Tallow closed, 14s. 6d. Cotton closed, 11½. Petroleum, 47½. Sugar, 38s. 6d. Flour, 22s. 6d. Oil, 22s. 6d. Lard, 22s. 6d. Coffee, 22s. 6d. Tea, 22s. 6d. Spices, 22s. 6d. Gold, 22s. 6d. Silver, 22s. 6d.

FRANKFORT, June 5.—United States Bonds dull. Five-twentieths quoted to-day at 82½.

SECOND EDITION.
FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

THE CAPITAL.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

Appointments by the President.—New appointments by the President: Secretary of the Treasury, William P. Foster; Secretary of the Interior, John P. Usher; Secretary of the War, William C. Chase; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the State, William H. Seward.

CHICAGO.

Heavy Suit Decided.—Large seizure of sugar—Military intelligence—Selling the Wheat—The Murder Trial—Select the Party for the Fair.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

Chicago, June 5.—The famous Whistler vs. Muhle case, involving the question of the ownership of property valued at $1,000,000, reached a decision in the Superior Court yesterday. The decision is to the effect that Muhle, the defendant, shall receive $120,000, and the balance of the balance, Muhle, confidentially, will be paid to Whistler at the time of his death, and after the occurrence of that event was found to be the same as the one which conveyed to the defendant, and he is now in possession of the property, leaving the balance of the balance to be paid to Whistler at the time of his death.

CUBA.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

Departure of the Ex-Captain General.—The Ex-Captain General, General Dulce, sailed to-day for Spain. He was accompanied by the military officers of high rank now in Havana and by the Colonels of military regiments.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The arguments in the Danby revocation of pardon case were commenced at New York on Saturday.

The application for the filing of bonds to secure the release of the Quaker City has gone over till to-day.

Joseph Loftus, six years old, was found on the street in Cincinnati on Saturday night, apparently intoxicated, and died before midnight, without speaking.

Governor Bullock of Georgia, congratulates the City Council of Cincinnati by telegraph on their action in reference to the Southern railway.

The ceremony of decorating the graves of Confederate soldiers at Loudon Park Cemetery, near Baltimore, will take place on Saturday afternoon.

Robert Boyd and George J. Delaney, postoffice clerks at New York city, were sentenced respectively to ten and three years in prison for embezzling money.

Chief Justice Chase rendered several decisions in the United States Circuit Court at Charleston, South Carolina, and leaves to-day for Raleigh, North Carolina.

Samuel Bixby, of Boston, and Miss Malach Colby, of Hingham, were drowned Saturday evening at Hingham, by the upsetting of a pleasure boat. The bodies were recovered.

Another Arctos corpus was obtained in the case of Moses C. Ludington, of Chicago, arrested in New York, and charged with obtaining goods by false representations, returned to-day.

Dr. T. Day, who had been on trial several days at Marshall, Mich., charged with child murder by producing abortion on Saturday night, was acquitted. To conclude the trial, the Doctor took morphine and died on Sunday.

H. J. Barrow, a notorious horse thief, was found hanging from a tree near Shelby Depot, Tenn., Thursday morning last. It is supposed he was originally from Newark.

The Philadelphia Beneficial Savings Fund, which was robbed a few months since of the amount of a million dollars, has succeeded in recovering all of the money, but how the recovery has been effected is not stated.

Robert Spencer, a sub marine diver, was drowned at southwest pass, at the mouth of the Mississippi, on Friday last. While working the steamer Pantheon, he was struck by a log, and his body became fast in the timbers so that it was impossible to haul him to the surface.

Dennis Reene, who was convicted at Boston of murdering his brother-in-law, by shooting off his head while the two were at a table in a large saloon, some months since, and who was sentenced to life imprisonment, committed suicide Sunday afternoon by hanging in his cell in jail.

Two policemen of Philadelphia, named Noonan and McLaughlin, have been arrested and held to bail since $1,500 for trial, on a charge of carrying two houses and beating the inmates of the same. The sufferers were colored people. The assailants were newly appointed policemen.

Thomas McIntee has been arrested at New York and committed to the custody of the Governor of Nebraska, on a charge of committing forgeries at Omaha to the amount of $20,000 or $30,000. It is also asserted he deserted from Michigan, and stopped with a young girl from Michigan, whom he had seduced.

The saw and grist mill belonging to McKee & Bingham, in New Jersey, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The fire originated in the rear of the saw mill and spread rapidly. A large amount of flour and grain seed in the grist mill was destroyed. Several piles of lumber in close proximity were dried, and before the fire could be extinguished, 900 worth of property was destroyed. The buildings and stock were partially insured. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

At Dutch Kills, Long Island, on Thursday, a dispute terminating in a fight occurred between two men named McNally and Kellahan, who were employed on the Astoria Railroad, and a man named Morrow, and a companion, among the merits of their respective claims. Having beaten Morrow in an Indian style, McNally and Kellahan, who were intoxicated, tore up the track for nearly a mile, and injured the bridge. The grist mill was destroyed. Several piles of lumber in close proximity were dried, and before the fire could be extinguished, 900 worth of property was destroyed. The buildings and stock were partially insured. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Dr. T. S. Bell, of Louisville, giving some reminiscences of the Breckinridge family of Kentucky, relates that, years ago, when the Rev. John Breckinridge was living in the North and had arranged for a controversy with the Rev. John Hughes, of the Catholic Church—then not as well known as afterward, but represented as of a rare, overbearing character—nearly all of the family were gathered around the home-hearth, when, after the assumed characteristics of the Rev. John Hughes had been fully discussed, the venerable mother opened her snuff-box, seized a large pinch of snuff between her thumb and finger, and, as she did so, remarked that "she wished it was—"

naming one of her other sons, who was to be named John, and it is to be remembered that the name of the same moment, "John is too much of a gentleman for this controversy with John Hughes."

When we look to the New Hampshire Legislature, which has just assembled, and gone at business in a business, for a prompt ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment. There is no danger that the course of Rhode Island will be imitated either by the New Hampshire Legislature or the New Hampshire Senators.