

Pittsburgh Gazette

VOLUME LXXXIV.

PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1869.

NUMBER 129

FIRST EDITION.
TWELVE O'CLOCK, M. M.

THE CAPITAL.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, June 8, 1869.

General Spitzer received another dispatch to-day from Santa Fe, announcing that General Getty, commanding the District, had been ordered to disband the Public Money, and had made an examination of the robbery of the United States Depository. The money stolen amounts to about $100,000. Gen. Spitzer says the robbery was in fact a large declassification of which the Treasury Department has a complete record.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.
The Commissioner of Indian Affairs to-day received the following telegram from Gen. Hoag, Quaker Superintendent of Indian Affairs at Atchison, Kan.: "I have the honor to inform you that the reports of hostilities in the northwest Kansas are exaggerated and conflicting. Eight or ten remote settlements are said to have been killed. The exposed settlements are preparing for defense. The Indians are supposed to be northern Cheyennes, and Sioux."

CEREMONIAL FORCES REDUCED.
Secretary Boutwell has reduced the clerical force of the Treasury Department and various bureaus thereof to the exact number authorized by law. Eight hundred and fifty men are to be discharged from the first Auditor's office to-day. On the 1st of July a number of temporary clerks will be dismissed.

THE NEXT SENATE.
The Sub-Committee is still in session, and may remain some weeks. Thus far they have come to no determination as to the terms and character of schedules for talking the Senate.

GOVERNMENT GOLD SALE.
The Secretary of the Treasury sold $2,000,000 in gold, receiving therefor $2,777,777 in currency. The total amount of gold in the Treasury is $2,000,000, and $2,500,000 in coin certificates.

ROMAN PORTLAND CEMENT.
The contest over the Mohawk position closed to-day by the appointment of F. G. Bromberg, vice Byron G. Pierce, suspended.

PRESIDENTIAL GRANT.
The President leaves Washington to-morrow evening for New York and will attend the Boston Peace Jubilee.

The Knight Templars at Erie, Pa.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

Erie, Pa., June 8.—At an early hour today, the evidences of preparation for a gala were apparent. At about 9 a. m. an escort body of the Sir Knights of the Grand Commandery, commanded by Sir Knight John H. Rogers, and preceded by Sherry's brass band, marched to the depot, where the Reception Committee was waiting to receive and act as an escort to their Masonic brethren. About seventy members of the order, many of them accompanied by their families, arrived on the Pittsburgh and Erie train. Among them were the following officers of the Grand Lodge: Sir Knight John Vallocham, Grand Commander; Sir Knight James H. Hopkins, Deputy Commander; Sir Knight E. McKean, Grand Generalissimo; Sir Knight Charles M. Howell, Grand Captain General; Sir Knight Abram Miller, Grand Senior Warden; Sir Knight James Grant, Junior Warden; Sir Knight John H. Dusenberry, Grand Beiler; Sir Knight E. Young, Grand Steward; Sir Knight Charles E. Meyer, Grand Warden; Sir Knight S. Smith, Grand Sentinel. The chief officers were escorted in carriages to the Grand House, the Mount Olivet Commandery, in full regalia, acting as a guard of honor and marching in procession. The lodges represented were those of Harrisburg, Lancaster, Reading, Columbia and York. These delegates were fortunate in finding plenty of rooms at the Reed House.

In the afternoon a large body of the Mount Olivet Commandery, under command of Sir Knight John E. Payne, proceeded to the depot to meet visiting Sir Knights from Pittsburgh, Reading, Washington, Greensburg and other places, the Masonic visitors alone numbering upwards of one hundred and twenty. After forming in line and marching to the Reed House, proceeded by members of the Mount Olivet Commandery. The visiting Sir Knights, with their reception of fatigue caps, were in full uniform, and made a fine appearance. What our hotel keepers will do for room, should a large delegation arrive to attend the State Military Convention, also to be held here to-morrow, we are at a loss to imagine.

Mayor of Jackson, Mississippi, Killed—A Tragic Murderer.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MEMPHIS, June 8.—A dispatch from Jackson, Mississippi, says Col. J. G. Crane, U. S. A., acting Mayor of Jackson, was shot and killed by E. M. Yarger. The affair grew out of the action of Col. Crane in seizing property of Yarger for taxes. Yarger was arrested by the military.

Mike Maloney, a notorious desperado, while walking down Anselm street last night, discovered an old infirmative negro, named Pleasant, sitting on a curb stone, and without speaking to him, put a pistol to his head and fired, killing him instantly. Maloney then fled. This is the third murder he has committed.

ABOVEKID DEPARTURE.
JACKSON, Miss., June 8.—Brevel L. Col. J. G. Crane, commanding the Fourth Military District, and acting Mayor of this city, was killed to-day by E. M. Yarger. It is officially announced by an official order of the Mayor levying on the property of Yarger in default of corporation taxes. The affair had no reference whatever to politics. Col. Crane entered the volunteer service from Dayton, Ohio, in 1861, and was held in high esteem by the community. Yarger was arrested and confined at the barracks.

The steamer Tyler, detained at New York in consequence of being overloaded, was cleared and sailed yesterday, flying the Dominican flag.

ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, June 8.—Thomas Allen, President of the Iron Mountain Railroad, has gone to Cairo to meet gentlemen from Memphis and make an arrangement for the construction of a railroad from Cairo to New Madrid to Memphis on the west side of the Mississippi River.

The Italian Society of this city had a parade and picnic to-day in honor of the anniversary of the establishment of the State Constitution.

The huge ferry boat Dunleith, which formerly belonged to the I. O. R. R., was to-day in transferring loaded cars from the St. Louis & Chicago Railroad across the river to the North-Missouri Road. The approach to the water's edge on each side of the river was completed, and in two or three days the work of transferring freight, without breaking bulk, between the above roads, will be regularly and speedily accomplished. The experiment was a success. A Dubuque special to the Democrat says a fine feature in the grain movement has been developed. G. Siller has arranged to ship grain in barges to the elevator at East St. Louis, thence by the Wheaton, Fort Union, and other bulk, at seven cents per bushel lower than the Illinois Central Railroad charges from here.

James H. Lucas, the richest man in St. Louis, was struck with paralysis to-day.

CHICAGO.
Verdict in the McConnell Heald Case.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, June 8.—The arguments in the McConnell murder trial were closed this morning at about eleven o'clock. At twelve o'clock the jury retired, and at two brought in a verdict of not guilty. The verdict was received with frantic expressions of joy, and the prisoner was discharged and received the enthusiastic congratulations of his friends.

The case of Miss Amanda Craig, of Chicago, charged with the murder of her husband, was on trial before Judge Wilcox at Wheaton, for several days, and a verdict was given to-day and a verdict for the plaintiff, Miss Craig, was rendered awarding her the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and she claimed by her for damages. The verdict was received with applause. The counsel for Sprague will apply for a new trial.

Woman's Rights in Indiana.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

INDIANAPOLIS, June 8.—A Woman's Rights convention convened in this city this afternoon. Miss Amanda Way, of Indianapolis, was chosen President, and Mrs. Longly, of Cincinnati, Miss S. Wank, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Cole, of Dayton, as Vice Presidents. Resolutions were adopted setting forth that the platform of the Indiana Woman's Rights Association, organized in 1841, is identical with the movement of to-day, and that the best consideration of the national Woman's Rights Association of Indiana, a Business Committee, with Rev. E. P. Tageroll as Chairman, was appointed. The Convention was addressed by Mr. J. J. Belleville, editor of the Woman's Advocate, at Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Dr. Thomas, Mrs. Longly and others. The business to-day was of a general character, and harmonious. It is announced that Mrs. Wank, of Chicago, Mrs. Owens, of New York, and Mrs. Cole, of Dayton, will address the Convention to-night.

Newspaper Changes—Press Association.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NASHVILLE, June 8.—A report is current to-day that the Press and Times, the radical, metropolitan organ of the Stokes party, about to change ownership, and will in a few days put up the Senior flag.

The Southern Association, having completed its business, adjourned this afternoon. This evening the members of the Association, at the Merchants Exchange, tendered them by the Nashville members.

The National Typographical Convention.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ALBANY, June 8.—In the National Typographical Convention Isaac D. George was elected President, receiving forty-eight votes to thirty-two for Daniel W. Flynn, and three scattering. Peter A. Crowley was elected First Vice President, W. R. Goodenough, Second Vice President, and W. A. Shields Corresponding Secretary. The Committee on Springfield contested case reported in favor of admitting Mr. Higgins.

Georgia Citizens Arrested.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

HARTWELL, June 8.—In the House of Assembly, last night, Dr. Murray moved the Annexation Resolution, which was seconded by Joseph L. McDonald. The Government resolved to avoid discussion and prevent a vote being taken. Seven members opposed to the Government voted to have the question taken, but the vote of the House, twenty-six members, voted against it, thus throwing the resolution out of doors. The House will be prorogued Thursday.

The Peace Jubilee.
(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BOSTON, June 8.—The city is fast filling up with strangers in anticipation of the Peace Jubilee. Upwards of three thousand men in private houses, belonging to our best citizens, have been engaged to the Executive Committee of the Jubilee.

SECOND EDITION.
FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

NEWS BY CABLE.

The Irish Church Crisis—The Threatened Conflict Between the Lords and Commons—Gladstone's Denunciation by the Tories—Probability of the Lords Being Frightened into Submission—The Alabama Controversy—The French Elections—Tranquillity in Spain—Call for Reinforcements for Cuba Commanded.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

GREAT BRITAIN.
LONDON, June 8.—The announced determination of the House of Lords to reject the Irish Church bill creates the intense excitement, and threatens to bring about a conflict between the Lords and Commons. It is rumored in some quarters that the announcement is only made to feel the public pulses and ascertain how far the Lords dare go. The general impression is the bill will be thrown out on its second reading.

The Standard, Tory, admits the peril of the present position, but is not to be deterred by thoughtful or conscientious hereditary legislators, but says the Lords are not to be frightened into submission by the House of Commons. If crushed, not only the Church and the Constitution will be sacrificed to the ascendancy of that Democratic principle which is the basis of all personal and political freedom. It is not for them to give up their place in the ranks and fight for all they hold dear, in the full certainty that all is lost to them if they do not stand by their rights.

The Standard, Tory, admits the peril of the present position, but is not to be deterred by thoughtful or conscientious hereditary legislators, but says the Lords are not to be frightened into submission by the House of Commons. If crushed, not only the Church and the Constitution will be sacrificed to the ascendancy of that Democratic principle which is the basis of all personal and political freedom. It is not for them to give up their place in the ranks and fight for all they hold dear, in the full certainty that all is lost to them if they do not stand by their rights.

FRANCE.
PARIS, June 7.—M. Thiers, Ferry, Jules, Garrier and Page have been elected by ballot.

The Senate scene at Mont Martre and arrests were made by the police. It is reported that some persons were wounded during the disturbance.

PARIS, June 8.—The result of the elections where a ballot is necessary to decide the result, is as follows: Official candidates, twenty-one; unofficial, one; independent, one; opposition, fifteen; unknown, seven.

PARIS, June 8.—The results in fifteen additional elections by ballot have been reported. Seven official and eight opposition candidates were elected. Among the successful candidates are M. M. Picard, Letour and Dumont.

THE WAR AGAINST AWNING.
There is an old ordinance on that very unobscure auxiliary to the municipal government called the city code, which provides against the erection of awning posts on the sidewalk. It was framed many years ago to provide against awnings in the shape of wooden posts and sheds thrown up on the principal thoroughfares to guard windows from the rays of the sun. In late years a style of awning frames of iron, light and graceful, has come into vogue, and a large number of arrests made last night in consequence of their erection. A number of awnings were also made, and the people finally returned to their homes and quiet was restored.

A scene of disorder also occurred during the night in front of Hotel de Ville. Many persons were injured and a large number arrested. The total number of arrests made last night in consequence of their erection was one hundred and twenty.

SPAIN.
MADRID, June 8.—It is reported that the Duke of Genoa is a prominent candidate for the Spanish throne. The Regency Bill was read for the first time in the Cortes yesterday.

ITALY.
FLORENCE, June 8.—There has been some excitement in Florence recently. No particulars have been received, but at least accounts are being restored.

MAINE NEWS.
BOSTON, June 8.—The steamer St. Laurent, from New York, arrived to-day.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.
LONDON, June 8.—Evening—Consols for money 92½. Three months, 92½. Five months, 92½. Six months, 92½. Seven months, 92½. Eight months, 92½. Nine months, 92½. One year, 92½.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Edwin Booth was married on Monday to Miss Mary McVicker.

The strike of the brakemen on the Erie Road has resulted in the men obtaining the advance demanded.

The Chester county Republican Convention yesterday unanimously instructed their delegates to vote for Geary.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

A cartman named Roth, in trying to load his cart on a train on the Erie Road, was struck and killed.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

John Scharstein fell from a scaffold, in Clinton, while painting yesterday, and fractured his skull. He will die.

ANNIVERSARY.

Sixth Avenue Mission Sunday School—Third Anniversary—Annual Reports—Interesting Exercises.

Last evening was an occasion of great interest and enjoyment to the young folks and friends of the Sixth Avenue Mission Sunday School. It has been the custom at the commencement of each new year in the history of the organization, to celebrate the event by appropriate anniversary exercises, which have heretofore been of such an attractive character that they are looked forward to with many pleasant anticipations and have become a yearly feature in the operations of the school. Hence the return of the third anniversary occasion last evening created quite a buzz of excitement and activity among the scholars and attracted an audience which filled to overflowing the large auditorium of the Second U. P. Church, in which the exercises were held. The church had been beautifully and profusely decorated with evergreens and flowers of the rarest perfume. The wall in the rear of the pulpit was draped in large festoons of evergreens, while upon the chandeliers, pendants and sconces were hung appropriate emblems of purity attracted the attention of the spectators. The audience and happy throngs of children, with their bright and beaming countenances, were gathered in the main body of the church, the remaining space and an average attendance being fitted to the utmost with those who assembled as interested friends and visitors.

After all had become quieted the exercises were commenced with the singing of a hymn, followed by prayer by the Rev. John G. Brown, D. D.

The address of welcome was then delivered in a neat and effective style by Master Alfred Roepke, who developed considerable elocutionary talent. Mr. T. J. Gillespie now read the secretary's annual report, which embraced a brief sketch of the school from its organization three years ago, and the progress made during the past year. This report, after a few introductory sentences, was read so thoroughly that the audience of the most attentive and interested listeners, Miss Emma Clark, who during the year was called away from our midst, to participate of the most blissful enjoyments of Heaven. Reference is next made to the special progress of the school during the year, which has been of the most gratifying character. At present five hundred and eighty-two scholars are enrolled, with an average attendance of about three hundred and seventy-five. Prayer meetings, singing classes, an elocutionary class, taught by Miss Maggie McNight, the "Hanna Literary Society," a class of Honor, numbering about one hundred members, are pleasing and encouraging features in the annual routine of school exercises, and tend to make the school a more interesting and profitable place to the teachers.

The report further refers to the teachers' meetings, the system of lessons taught in the school and similar matters connected with its government, which have during the year been of great benefit to both teacher and scholar.

The report of the Missionary of the School, Mr. Edwin Sherratt, was next read, which exhibited in a marked degree the benefit and blessing of the school, and was followed by a dialogue by Masters Thomas Moore and David Maxwell, in which the lady acquitted themselves noticeably well.

Another anthem was rendered in happy style by the Singing Class, after which the Superintendent, Mr. Thos. H. Hays, taught a model blackboard lesson, the children answering the questions by applause and displaying great aptitude and proficiency.

After another hymn by the singing class, brief addresses were given by the Major William Frew, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hanna, and the Superintendent, Mr. Thos. H. Hays. The Secretary read his report, from which it appeared that four hundred dollars had been collected during the year for the missionary fund. Rev. J. G. Brown made a few remarks, while each of the children was being presented with a testimonial from the Superintendent as a memento of the occasion. When the service was supplied, Rev. Warner Long closed the exercises with prayer and the audience was dismissed, all departing with bright and happy remembrances of the manner in which the evening hours had been passed.

Trial of Hay Furks.
MUSKOGEE, Okla., June 8.—The farmers of Upper St. Clair and adjoining townships had quite a lively time on Friday, 28th, in the trial of the best hay forks before the people. The place of exhibition was in the barn of Alexander Gillilan. Five forks were entered for competition by the extensive fork-makers A. Gillilan and F. L. Marshall. The Sprout's Fork, entered by John Gillilan, Esq., the Screw Fork, represented by Wm. E. Fife, and a fork manufactured by Mr. J. H. Bridgeway, the original inventor of the improved set of prongs, and also Hawley's improved prongs for attaching to forks, which is certainly of great practical use to farmers. The last named fork and prongs were represented by D. G. Bowers and Scott, Donnelly, who have bought the copyright of Hawley, Upper St. Clair and South Fayette townships. The forks were all thoroughly tested and tried in every way, and gave general satisfaction.

General Agent A. J. Nells, of the Harpoon, was present. Being an expert in the business and a clever talker, he did well for his employers, and no doubt will succeed in introducing his very valuable fork and prongs to the farmers. Such contests, where conducted on and honorable grounds, are just what the farmers want, and when such Sherratt, John Gillilan on the 28th, can be got up, agricultural implements will be received, and the whole neighborhood greatly benefited, and we wish such contests were more numerous.

JOHN GILLILAN.
June 8, 1869.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The War Against Awning.
There is an old ordinance on that very unobscure auxiliary to the municipal government called the city code, which provides against the erection of awning posts on the sidewalk. It was framed many years ago to provide against awnings in the shape of wooden posts and sheds thrown up on the principal thoroughfares to guard windows from the rays of the sun. In late years a style of awning frames of iron, light and graceful, has come into vogue, and a large number of arrests made last night in consequence of their erection. A number of awnings were also made, and the people finally returned to their homes and quiet was restored.

A scene of disorder also occurred during the night in front of Hotel de Ville. Many persons were injured and a large number arrested. The total number of arrests made last night in consequence of their erection was one hundred and twenty.

SPAIN.
MADRID, June 8.—It is reported that the Duke of Genoa is a prominent candidate for the Spanish throne. The Regency Bill was read for the first time in the Cortes yesterday.

ITALY.
FLORENCE, June 8.—There has been some excitement in Florence recently. No particulars have been received, but at least accounts are being restored.

MAINE NEWS.
BOSTON, June 8.—The steamer St. Laurent, from New York, arrived to-day.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.
LONDON, June 8.—Evening—Consols for money 92½. Three months, 92½. Five months, 92½. Six months, 92½. Seven months, 92½. Eight months, 92½. Nine months, 92½. One year, 92½.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF HOMOGENEOUS CHEMISTRY.
The American Institute of Homogeneous Chemistry, having elected the following officers: Reuben Latham, of Chicago; President; D. E. Beckwith, of Cleveland; Vice President; J. W. Thompson, of New York; Secretary; and E. M. Kellogg, of New York; Treasurer. The Institute is composed of one hundred and fifty-three new members were admitted.