STATE SENATE, THOMAS H. HUNTER. ASSEMBLY, MILES S. HUNTER, ALEXANDER HILLAR, JOSEPH WALTON, JAMES TAYLOR, D. N. WAITE, JOHN H. KERR.

CLERK OF SUPREME COURT, ALEXANDER HILLAR. DIRECTOR OF POOR, ABRAHAM M. MULLER.

U. S. Bonds at Frankfurt, 85 1/2. PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 47 1/2.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 159 3/4.

CAMBERG COUNTY has instructed her delegates to support Governor GRAZAR for re-nomination.

The State Republican Convention will meet at Philadelphia on the 23d, and not the 29th of the present month, as generally supposed.

It is conceded on all sides that Hon. H. W. WILLIAMS will be the unanimous nominee of the Republican State Convention for the Supreme Bench.

A SPECIAL election for Judge in the Mankin district, of Ohio, has resulted in a close vote, with the odds in favor of Wood, the Republican candidate.

Old iron rails are largely imported from England, etc. Baltimore, for re-manufacture in the mills of this State.

The recent lease of the Fort Wayne road to the Pennsylvania Central will be submitted to the stockholders of the first, after their approval, at a meeting to be held in this city on the 24th of June.

An interview, of some length, between Governor J. W. GRAZAR and the President, at Washington, on Wednesday, inspired a restless and ambitious reporter to telegraph to a Philadelphia journal an impending change in the Cabinet, the Governor taking, ere long, the post now held by Secretary BORN.

Gov. RAKER, of Indiana, does not accept the sufficiency of his Attorney General's opinion in favor of the validity of minority legislation.

There can be no sellers without buyers. If a legislator sells his vote, a business man buys it, in favor of a scheme out of which he expects to make money.

Speculation carried prices bounding up in Wall street a week or two ago; the reaction has now set in, and the "bears" have their triumph.

WE HEAR the names of Senator SPRAGUE, Ex-Governor CURTIS and Mr. J. W. FORNEY mentioned as the "Republican leaders" who counsel a partisan adoption of the Alabama issue with England.

Our wisest friends in Tennessee concur in favor of a liberal policy on the question of suffrage.

REPUBLICAN FREEDOM. Our wisest friends in Tennessee concur in favor of a liberal policy on the question of suffrage.

INADVERTENTLY we permitted a sentence to appear in our article on Life Insurance yesterday, which might have been construed to mean that our local companies are not as safe or secure as foreign rivals for public confidence.

The twentieth annual meeting, at Erie, of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, was largely attended, and as usual with convenings of that very respectable body, the greatest degree of harmony, pleasantness and good feeling prevailed.

The Republican nominations were made on Wednesday in the city and county of Philadelphia, the results being on the whole satisfactory to the party generally.

What if a public journal, in view of the conviction, here and there, of ministers of the gospel for unlawful sexual intercourse, should denounce all clergymen as abominably licentious?

COMMON DEFAMERS. What if a public journal, in view of the conviction, here and there, of ministers of the gospel for unlawful sexual intercourse, should denounce all clergymen as abominably licentious?

Are not men in the public service entitled to be judged by the same rules as other men? That there are corrupt politicians, we know.

For many years, it has been our lot to mingle a good deal with politicians and persons in public employments.

MISSOURI, West Virginia and the four States yet unconstructed. In those States which have been reorganized since the collapse of the rebellion, this question of amnesty and suffrage must be left to their respective constitutional adjustments.

The Albany Evening Journal says: While we acknowledge that full enfranchisement must come, and that the time for its promulgation ought speedily to arrive, yet we cannot overlook the fact that there are grave dangers in such a course—dangers threatening to the peace and security of life and property.

The disturbances in Georgia have no proper relation to the domestic policy of the organized States. For the continuance of those disorders, the Federal Government must be held responsible, just so far as that government has, and the State authorities have not, the power to repress them, and shall fail to exercise it.

REGARD the Federal responsibility for the domestic peace of these States as measurably at an end, from the hour that we recognize their complete restoration to the Union.
