He has evidently had some practice in the business, and became reckless through continued success. Yesterday afternoon about one o'clock the dwelling of Mr. Morah Koch was broken into, during the absence of the family, and a silver watch valued at thir-ty dollars, a revolver worth fifteen, and a quantity of edibles from the larder carried off. This marauding party, it is supposed, consisted of four men who had been loltering around the neighborhood for a short time previous, and were after-In the time of Moses, when idolatry was almost universal, and the thoughts and effections of men were immersed in evil effections of men were immersed in evil effections of men were immersed in evil and abominations of the most debasing character, there may have been a neces-sity for a severe law to restrain the peo-ple, by operating on their fears, and the law of, "eye for eye, tooth for tooth," * wound for wound, strine for stripe." iaw of, "eye for eye, tooth for tooth," * wound for wound, stripe for stripe," taught them that the law imposed upon them just such cruelties as they admini-istered to others. "Cruel are the tender mercies of the wicked." They were thus, compelled by their fears of retallation to refrain from severe punishments. But this severe law is not suited to the new discensation established by Christ, for a short time previous, and were after-wards observed in company eating some of the victuals caplured. They were not arrested, however, the person noticing arrested, nowever, the person noticing them being afraid to attack four villains single-handed.
