Attention is called to the advertisement on our fifth page, giving notice of a meeting to be held at Dr. J. B. Clark's Church, Allegheny, on Thursday evening June 17th.

We start University Alumni.—The regular semi-annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Western University will be held on Wednesday, June 22, at 7 1/2 o'clock, p. m., at the University Building, Pittsburgh.

The Headquarters of the Republican County Executive Committee will be for the present, and until further notice, at the office of Morgan & Roberts, 14 Fourth avenue, where the Secretary, Col. G. F. Morgan, will be in attendance.

An Unsuccessful Threat.—Christiana Meyer states that Nicholas and Catharine Baugh called her very vile names yesterday, and threatened to kill her if she ever attended church hereafter. Alderman Mullen issued a warrant for the arrest of the threesters.

Severe Accident.—Saturday afternoon a son of Henry Rehr, proprietor of a grocery store in East Liberty, had his thigh broken by the falling of a pile of coffee bags, along side of which he was standing at the time. His injuries were attended by Dr. Perchment.

Spicy.—Louis Redinger was brought before Alderman Taylor yesterday morning at the instance of City Spectator, who charged him with striking his son, a youth of some fourteen summers. The parties were on Penn street, near the ward. The case was settled by a compromise at the magistrate's office.

Festival.—The ladies of the Smithfield Street M. E. Church will give a strawberry festival and supper Thursday and Friday evenings, June 17th and 18th, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the organ fund. Supper will be served each evening from five to seven o'clock for the small sum of fifty cents.

The first horseman of the age, James Robinson, with his troupe and Little Clarence, in combination with Gardner & Kenyon's Menagerie, the most perfect in the country, are to perform to-day in East Liberty. Tomorrow the companies enter Pittsburgh in grand procession and proceed to Allegheny, where they are to perform three days on the Diamond.

Immersion.—Ellen Donovan and Annie O'Brien, two young girls in Hamilton's Court, off Wylie street, near Washington. Yesterday as Ellen was ascending the stairs with a bucket of water she encountered Annie, who she alleges pushed her back and caused the bucket of water to be upset, immersing her completely. Alderman Mullen issued a warrant for the arrest of Annie.

Worthy Presentation.—Our colored citizens belonging to Dr. W. E. Williams' congregation, John Wesley Chapel, presented their worthy pastor with a valuable gold watch and a beautiful very-headed cane. The presents were certainly due to the D. D., as he has labored hard for the cause of being a man of wonderful mind, and having a finished education, we are glad to see his flock appreciate him.

Two Men Cut.—A row occurred Monday afternoon, at a picnic held at Eberhardt's Garden, Troy Hill. Knives and clubs were in full play, and several parties carried away remembrances of the harmonious occasion, in bruised heads and general soreness of body.

Two men were cut, one of them Mr. Llesler, custodian of the garden. No warrants have as yet been issued, and no arrests have been made.

Social Session.—The election on the day delegation to the convention of the Ed. Heazleton, Esq., presided as teller, in the Liberty street M. E. Church, Rev. W. H. Locke, last evening was made the occasion of a very pleasant social reunion, which was largely attended by the members of the congregation. A beautiful supper and general confectionery added no little to the enjoyment of those present.

Two Meetings.—Christian Ludecker and John Neulauer met on Liberty street, yesterday morning, and had a little passage at arms. They met again at Alderman Taylor's office, where Christian had ordered the former to appear against his opponent for assault and battery, the alleged offence consisting in a vicious shove against the chest of the latter, who appeared at the hearing that John was not the aggressor, and he was accordingly discharged.

Inhuman Treatment.—Alderman McMasters yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of John Jackson, residing on Water street, charged with shamefully beating his wife. The accused is said to have kicked her down, torn nearly all the clothing off her person, kicked and beat, and finally thrown her into the street. Her appearance at the magistrate's office, in a neighbor's dress, which she was compelled to borrow, and exhibiting cuts and bruises, gave evidence of the treatment she had received.

The Latest Returns.—The voting in the M. E. Church, in this vicinity, on the question of Day Delegation still progresses quietly. Added to those already reported, we have returns from three other churches in which the vote was taken last evening, as follows:

Liberty street—94 votes cast; for Day Delegation 90, against 4; majority in favor 86.

Smithfield street—187 cast; in favor 62; against 75; majority against 18.

Union Church—110 cast; in favor 86; against 74; majority against 86.

Was It Larceny?—Alexander McMillan, proprietor of a livery stable on Sixth avenue, made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against J. D. Berry for larceny. The accused is charged with driving a horse and buggy from McMillan on Monday evening, which he was to return in half an hour, a promise which was not kept. It is further alleged that he was discovered yesterday morning near the outskirts of the city, accompanied by a young lady, and driving along in a buggy at a furious rate. He was arrested and gave bail for a hearing this morning at ten o'clock, at which he disclaims any intention of stealing the property.

Supposed Challenge Man Arrested and Discharged.

A young man, giving the name of Charles Paulson, was arrested at the Monongahela House last evening on suspicion of being a confidence operator.

Some two weeks since Zachary Whitting, a young man from the Eastern part of this State, having been in Jefferson county, Ohio, was on his way home and met Mr. Paulson on the train, and traveled with him to this city. While traveling together the young men became quite friendly and Mr. Paulson, representing himself to be connected with a western railroad, proposed to Whitting to get him a situation on the road, which Mr. W. agreed to accept and gave him his friend's address.

A few days since he received a letter from Paulson, stating that the situation was ready for him, and requesting Whitting to meet him at the Monongahela House at his earliest convenience. Mr. W. arrived in the city yesterday and met his friend Paulson at the Monongahela House.

When he asked about the situation Paulson informed him that he would have to pay him one hundred dollars with which to pay the man who now held the position. Whitting, thinking that there might be some mistake in the matter, declined to pay the amount at that time, and went to the Mayor's office, where he made known the facts as stated. He then returned, accompanied by two of the officers and was in their presence accosted by Paulson, who again asked him for the $100.

Whitting refused to give him the money, and as soon as he received the money the officers arrested him and took him to the police station, where he was locked up. On searching him passes were over forty different railroads were found in his possession and a number of notes and checks, but there was nothing which would justify the Mayor in holding him and he was accordingly discharged.
