by the Government-Continued Retrenchment. [By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 16, 1869. RATIFICATION BY FLORIDA. Information has been received here that the 15th amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been ratifined by both Houses of the Florida Legislature. The vote in the Assembly was twenty-six to thirteen, and in the Senate thirteen against eight.

FINDINGS OF MILITARY COMMISSIONS. The Military Commission that convened at Austin, Texas, on the 19th of September, 1868, under orders of the War Department, to try James Weaver, civilian, for the mnrder of another a civilian, for the marder of another civilian named Kuowles, having completed their labors by finding the accused guilty of murder in the first degree and sentencing him to be hanged, the finding has been submitted to the President, and by him approved. He directs the sentence to be carried out on the 24th of September.

The finding of the court martial which convened at Atlanta., Ga., July 15th, 1868, wherein Private Henry Mayatt, of Co. B, 16th U. S. Infantry, was tried for the murder of a colored man named Henry Gillesole, and found guilty, has been submitted to the President, and by him disapproved. The prisoner is ordered to be discovered. him disapproved. The prisoner is ordered to be discharged from custody and from the service of the United States.

BOND PURCHASES BY GOVERNMENT. The Sacretary of the Treasury has diected Mr. Van Dyke, Assistant rected Mr. Van Dyke, Assistant Treas-urer at New York, to make his pur-chases of bonds for the last week in this month on Tuesday, the 29th, instead of Wednesday, that the account may be returned here before the first of July. He has also instructed the Assistant Treasurer to purchase hands to the amount of urer to purchase bonds to the amount of $620,000 at either of the next two weekly purchases, in addition to the regular purchase of a million a week, in order to increase the sinking fund by the close of the fiscal year to the proportionate amount for the four months of the present Administration, the law requiring one per cent. of the entire debt to be purchased during each tiscal year.

purchased during each fiscal year. MORE RETRENCHMENT. Thirty watchmen and laborers were yesterday dismissed from the Treasury. Department, on account of the reduction appropriation bill. Four h Auditors', Secretary's and Register's offices, will be dismissed about the last of the month. The Postmaster General has apppointed seven clerks to supply vacancie caused by removals. ILLICIT DISTILLING IN VIRGINIA. Intelligence was received to day at the Revenue office of the existence of large numbers of ill cit distilleries in Led county, Virginia, on the Kentucky border, and of a combination among them to resist the laws. Commissioner Delano has taken measures to enforce the Revenue laws there, and compel the payment of tax, even if it should be necessery to call on the military for aid.

Although they were comparatively few in numbers, with God on their side they were in the majority. It mattered not how men regarded them. Their success depended on God's blessing. They should onliviate a constant spirit of devotion, without which they would be greatered in the which they would be weak; with it they which they, would be weak; with is they were strong, even if all the church rulers were against them. He said that a few weeks ago he saw in the New York papers the statement that there was to be a Convention at Chicago. That statement had been repeated again and again. It was a device of the enemy. He had been more anxious to be a member in order that his voice might be raised against such a proposition. This was no meeting for keparation; it was a meeting of those who loved the Church and were shocked at the tendency to pervert its packed with fully into the tousand people. Every seat was taken, and thousands were glad to find standing room. The weather being fine, the ladies were in full dress, and the scene was novel and impressive beyond description. They meet to consult how the Church should be called from destruction. He hoped their deliberations would be calm, and that no words would be spoken which that a namifes could use against them.

that no words would be spoken which their enemities could use against them. A Business Committee was appointed. Mr. Cheny, of Chicago, asked what constituted membership of the Conferconstituted memoeranp or the Conferences. It was simply a Conference to discuss freely the attitude of certain officers and rulers in the Church, who are endeavoring to promutate certain doctrines of noxious to the evangelical portions of the Church. The members there proceeded to discuss "What shall we do?"

Mr. Nash, of Illinois, said the first thing to be done was so put themselves right on the record. He insisted that it was not a Convention to divide the Church, but a Conference to protect it. In regard to the revision of the Prayer Book. He thought the subject should be touched tenderly. He thought the be touched tenderly. He thought the fight on the word "regeneration" was a very small one. He doubted whether this was the proper time to act on the Prayer Book, he signed the call for the meeting and district the signed the call for the meeting, and did not intend to ask pardon, if they were compelled to ask pardon, if they were compelled to ask leave of their Bishop to meet and discuss issues. If so, they had better go some FRANCE.

where else or yield up the ghost.

Mr. Cooper had been a minister of the Air. Cooper had been a minister of the Church twenty-four years—was born in the Church, bred in the Church, and did not propose to leave it. Mr. O. spoke at considerable length in denunciation of the evangelical charges in this diocese.

Dr. Bowen said that when a clergyman said to his Bishop that his conscience would not let him use a service, the Bishep would have to go on and exercise his authority. Many could not use the world regenerate." He would not strike it out. Mr. Newton said the Bishop should not attempt to depose Mr. Cheney, but the prayer book. There was no alternative for those whe had conscientious scruples but to be forced out of the Church.

Dr. Andrews deplored any mention of the coming trial of Mr. Cheney. All al-members thereof have heretofore, individually, so now, in their collective capacity, recognized as unsound, and unprotestant the statements and teachings against which the protest, alluded to in the resolution passed this morning, was directed, and now solemaly reasirm their opposition to them.

Resolved, That this Conference, recognizing the present as a time of imminent. danger to the purity of the worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, does hereby pledge itself to use all proper efforts for the preservation of the same in its integrity.

The resolutions were passed, the first with a few dissenting voices, and the last unanimously.

The Business Committee decided that the revision of the preper book would be discussed from eight to nine this evening, and "How to do it?" from nine to ten.

and "How to do it?" from nine to ten.

Mr. Cheney said he could not be present to night. He consequently wanted to say something about the revision of the prayer book. Were they to go on in using a prayer book which inculcated false doctrine and untrue meaning? He hoped the time would come when they could 'have a pure liturgy with your same and they have the same and they will be same to the same and they are they are the same and they are the same and they are the are they a could have a pure liturgy, with no Bishop laying his heavy hand upon them —a liturgy reflecting the teachings of Christthe Master. He had seen many laymen present and he was glad to see them waking up. They would understand that the clergy did not propose to tear up the prayer book, but bring it into harmony with the word of God. The discussion had already done more good than all the Episcopal preaching in Chleago for a quarter of a contract. in Chleago for a quarter of a century. It would waken the laity to the truth, that they had a right to see; they would know that there were men who dared stand up for the truth in the face of ecclesinationl censure.
