

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished to the city at six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $3 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Those who intend spending any time away from home during the summer months, can have the GAZETTE mailed to them by leaving their address at our counting room.

Committed.—We gave the particulars yesterday of the arrest of A. C. Siegel, charged with horse stealing, on each of Bailey Mitchell, Westmoreland. The accused has since been committed for a hearing, by Alderman Nicholson.

Teachers' Present.—Miss Ellen May, and Miss Jennie Boggs, teachers in Curry Institute, were, yesterday morning, made the recipients of very kind and some presents from the pupils, each consisting of a beautiful silver ice pitcher and goblet.

Correction.—In our report of Mr. E. H. Field's coming to the meeting of the Railroad Committee, which was published yesterday, we were in error in stating that Mr. H. H. referred to the Pennsylvania Railroad as the "greatest" in the world. His words were "one of our greatest roads."

The dwelling house on Stockton avenue advertised by Samuel Dyer in "For Sale" column, is the most eligible and desirable on the avenue, in the city, one which the owner sells, only because he is about to remove from the city. Persons desiring an attractive, commodious and convenient house should improve this opportunity.

Great Difficulty Experienced in St. Louis in obtaining a jury to try Capt. W. E. Hamilton, who was indicted on the charge of murdering the late Great Republic. Nearly all those who have been empaneled on the grand jury have been challenged, most on the ground that they formed an opinion on the merits of the case.

"Strawberry Festival at Manchester." There will be a Strawberry Festival given in the Sixth P. Church, (Rev. D. Clarke's), corner of Franklin and Charters streets, Allegheny. Abundant refreshments will be provided. The rooms have been tastefully decorated, and we can promise all who attend a pleasant and attractive entertainment.

Painters Take Notice.—In selecting a paint or varnish brush, ask for the celebrated "Dixon," and if you do not find them the best you have used, come to the office of the factory, No. 13 Smithfield street, and we will pay back to you the cash of the brush. Druggists can buy them at our warehouses, No. 13 Smithfield street.

Fire Last Night.—At a late hour last night the Allegheny Fire Department was called out by a report of a large barrel factory, located on Charters street, Mill Run building, near the Saw Mill Run building. The barrel factory and its contents were destroyed. There was a large amount of finished work and material on hand, which was burned. We could not hear the insurance, nor the name of the owner.

The Circus and Menagerie.—The extensive and combined troupe, known as Gardner and Kenyon's Menagerie and Taming yesterday in full feather, with forcing a procession, banners waving, etc., in extent. They pitched their grand tent on the Diamond in Allegheny, and were formed to overtake the circus at noon and evening. Everybody, regardless of age and sex, is invited to attend the afternoon performance, when, in addition to all that is done in the evening, they will have the opportunity of seeing the wild beasts previous to the commencement of the circus exercises.

"Welcome." The enterprising and indefatigable W. W. Wallace, 319 and 321 Liberty street, advertises in another column a Rake, distinguished by the name "Welcome," which is so exactly what the farmer wants, and much superior to all its predecessors and all its competitors, that he will not soon lose a customer. His farmer no sooner hears of the "Welcome" than he is ready to purchase. His large factory in Ohio is scarcely able to supply the demand. Our agricultural friends are invited to examine the advertisement, which is descriptive of the machine.

The Fire at Coaway's Bakery. We published yesterday an account of the fire resulting in the destruction of Cooney's bakery, on Second avenue. Since then we have learned that the fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The greatest care was exercised to keep up the establishment, and when the fire broke out at ten o'clock, the fireman left about ten o'clock, and when they had been no fire about the place for later than five o'clock, yesterday afternoon. The insurance amounts to $10,000. We estimate of the loss has yesterday been made, but it is considerable above this amount.

A Happy Occasion. The managers of the Strawberry Festival held in the Smithfield Street M. E. Church, have great reason to rejoice at the success which has thus far crowned their efforts. Last evening the Church was crowded from the opening to the brilliant company it would be hard to find anywhere. The festival will be a day of a dainty, tempting, and appetizing past, prepared and served by fair hands, should remember the lunch from twelve o'clock to day, and supper any time after five o'clock this afternoon. Those who desire to pass the hours pleasantly, profitably, and beside, aid a worthy object, will be in attendance at the Church this evening and improve the opportunity.

The Infanticide Case. Yesterday morning Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the remains of the little child found in the cess pool in the Second ward, Allegheny, an account of the discovery of which was published. After several witnesses had been examined, the mother acknowledged, in the presence of a witness, that she was the mother of the child who was found in the cess pool. The child was born on the 10th day of June, 1890, in the Second ward, city.

The name of the woman is Mrs. Eliza Cabel as we gave it yesterday. Her husband has been dead seven years. She is still under guard.

THE SABBATH QUESTION.

Public Meeting Last Night.—The Protestant demonstration on the "Fourth" Sabbath, at 7 o'clock and Resolutions. A public meeting was held last evening in the Rev. John B. Clark's Church, Stockton avenue, Allegheny, for the purpose of considering the proposed demonstration by the German citizens on quite large, the room in which the meeting was held being filled in every part.

Rev. J. T. Presly, by invitation, called the meeting to order at 7 1/2 o'clock and the audience in prayer.

The following officers were then chosen: President—Rev. John T. Presly; Vice Presidents—Messrs. James Park, Gracey, James Marshall, Thomas McO. L. Miller, and R. S. Morrison.

On motion, a Committee of Ministers was appointed, with Rev. John B. Clark as Chairman, to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

While the Committee were preparing their business, the President announced that remarks would be in order.

THE QUESTION DISCUSSED. Rev. Dr. John G. Brown was called upon and responded briefly, contending that the sanctity of the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

Prof. Sloan being called upon, spoke in regard to the Continental Sabbath rest, and contended that the Sabbath is a civil, not a religious, matter, and that the state, a fact which the history of the past abundantly proved.

Rev. Dr. Wylie, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, and he would be exceedingly pleased to think that the American Sabbath had degenerated to the level of the Sabbath in Paris, Berlin and other continental cities. He spoke at some length on the closing of the streets on the Sabbath, and argued upon all the duty of the sacredness of the day.

THE MAYER KEPPERS.

Meeting Yesterday.—What They Proposed.—Organization of the Keppers. A second meeting of the brewers and tavern keepers of the vicinity was held yesterday afternoon, in Turner Hall, Sixth avenue. There was a pretty full representation of the trade present.

The meeting was called to order at three o'clock by Mr. Hehlein, chairman of the meeting. He stated that what had been done on the occasion and the object of the present meeting was to permanently organize an association of the brewers and tavern keepers of the vicinity.

The minutes of the previous meeting were then read by the Secretary, Mr. Walter, and approved. The business of the evening was the election of officers.

After some further nominations, Mr. Hehlein was elected President, Mr. Walter Vice President, and Mr. Walter Secretary.

The Committee appointed at the last meeting reported on the progress of the organization of the Association, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

The meeting closed at a late hour, and the members of the Association were then elected.

CONSOLIDATION.

Meeting of the Citizens of the South Side Boroughs.—Proposed Consolidation.—Committees Appointed.—The Subject Discussed, &c. Pursuant to a published call, a public meeting of the citizens of the boroughs of East Pittsburgh, Birmingham, and South Pittsburgh, was held last evening in the Town Hall, Birmingham, to make preliminary arrangements for the consolidation of these boroughs into one municipality.

The meeting was largely attended by the principal citizens and business men of the boroughs, and the proceedings were of a most harmonious character, the feeling being unanimous in favor of the movement.

On motion of Burgess Ammon, of East Pittsburgh, the meeting was called to order at eight o'clock by the calling of Burgess Ammon to the Chair, who on Secretary.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

Mr. John Adams moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

The Chairman moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee of three citizens, one from each borough, to be known as the "Consolidation Committee," to prepare a plan of adjusting the indebtedness of the several boroughs, and the plan of consolidation.

MUSIC.

The Contest for Musical Appreciation at the Pittsburgh Female College Last Night.—An Award by the Judges.—The Contest for Musical Appreciation at the Pittsburgh Female College last evening was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one. The contest was a most successful one, and the contest was a most successful one.

ECONOMICAL, RELIABLE, THE BEST.

Free from Doolley's Baking Powder. It is superior to all others in the market. Free from any injurious substances, and so nicely compounded that the contents of each box will make light, sweet, healthy biscuits, rolls, pastries, etc., with a quart of flour is necessary, while from one-third to one-half more is required for Doolley's Chemical Yeast Baking Powder, and take no other. Try it and be convinced. W.F.

"Free as a Maiden's Blue" is the purest complexion which follows the use of Hagar's Magnolia Balm. It is Ladies in Secret of Beauty. Fashionable The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic into any other one thing. Blotches and all effects of the Summer sun disappear when it is used, and obtained white, fresh expression is Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store. Insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

Use Nothing but Lyon's Katharon to Dress the Hair. W.F.F.

For fashionable hair-dressing, plain or by curling, and a frizzle, for a luxurious shave or bath, and for a luxurious haircut, call at Williamson's cutting and shaving saloon at No. 190 Federal street, Allegheny.

Shetland Shawls—in all desirable colors, at Bates & Bell's.

Suits of Linen, Hemstitch, Leno, Marcelline and Silk at Bates & Bell's.

The place to get White Lint, Calico, Flannel, Hydraulic Cement, is at Eckler & Caskey's, 13 Smithfield street, Allegheny.

Japanese Silks in great variety at Bates & Bell's.

White Bedouins at Bates & Bell's.

Thin Dress Goods, from 21c at Bates & Bell's.

MARRIED. McCALLEN—McCOWAY.—On Tuesday evening, June 15th, 1909, James J. McCAllen, of the Rev. St. Stephen's Church, and Miss Annie E. McCoway, of the Rev. St. Stephen's Church, were united in Holy Matrimony by Rev. Samuel E. Bishop, of the Rev. St. Stephen's Church, at 8 o'clock P. M. at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. M. H. McCAllen, at 1324 North 13th street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

DEED. RICHARDS.—On Tuesday, June 15th, 1909, at 11 o'clock A. M., in the County of Allegheny, Ohio, JOHN I. RICHARDS, aged 69 years, of the County of Allegheny, Ohio, and MARY E. RICHARDS, aged 69 years, of the County of Allegheny, Ohio, were united in Holy Matrimony by Rev. Samuel E. Bishop, of the Rev. St. Stephen's Church, at 8 o'clock P. M. at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. M. H. McCAllen, at 1324 North 13th street, Allegheny. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

NEW ARRIVAL. The Arsenal Band held a picnic at Iron City Park yesterday, which it appears was visited by a number of the "roughs" and backlogs of the city, who make it their business to attend all gatherings of that character where they can gain admittance for the sole purpose of creating a disturbance. The band was surrounded by a mob of "roughs" who kept a strict surveillance upon the band, and the police were unable to prevent the occurrence. At one time during the performance, a party ran into a crowd of "roughs" who were shouting and making a disturbance. The police were unable to prevent the occurrence, and the band was unable to perform.

Still Nearer Perfection.—The new method of marblingizing slate mantels. Patented by Daniel Huges & Co., 187 Liberty street.

Some People Don't Know. How cheap I sell my Men and Boys' Clothing, of excellent make and beautiful style. Come and see it. I take pride in having the largest assortment to select from that can be found in Pittsburgh, and the public may rest assured that my goods are superior to the ordinary class of ready made clothing, and every article I sell is reliable in every respect.

Notice to clothing men and dealers of the city and neighboring towns: I am the proprietor of the "Linen Sacks, Dusters and Alpaca Coats by the thousands, and have made up in beautiful styles, and have the largest quantities of my goods in my store. I can do better than any other tailor in the city, and I have them fresh and just such sizes as they require.

Next Saturday, June 19th, there will be a grand opening of Linen Clothing Goods at T. Tobias's popular Clothing House, No. 18 St. Clair street.

Still Nearer Perfection.—The new method of marblingizing slate mantels. Patented by Daniel Huges & Co., 187 Liberty street.

We call the attention of housekeepers to the style and quality of our goods, which has caused us such a wide-spread popularity. The great reason for the remarkable success lies in the quality of the wares we keep and the quality of the work we do. Call and examine our goods at any time, whether you wish to buy or not. No. 10 Diamond, Allegheny.

Still Nearer Perfection.—The new method of marblingizing slate mantels. Patented by Daniel Huges & Co., 187 Liberty street.

For an elegant shop, an easy chair, a comfortable shave, a perfect hair-dye, for fashionable hair cutting (of adults or children) or for skillful leeching, cupping or tooth pulling, call at Kodo's corner of Federal and Isabella streets, Allegheny.

Messieurs for suits and dresses at Bates & Bell's.

Still Nearer Perfection.—The new method of marblingizing slate mantels. Patented by Daniel Huges & Co., 187 Liberty street.

$4 for Lace Curtains—all lace curtains at reduced prices at Bates & Bell's.

Remnants of dress goods, silks and poplins and wool goods, cheap at J. M. Burdick & Co.'s.

Lace Points, Sequoia, Rotunda and Office at Bates & Bell's.

Eisen Coats, Pants and Vests, at $1.25. No.