ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 21, 1869.

CATTLE.

There was again a full supply of Cattie on sale to-day, 784 head, and with no outside buyers and the demand confied entirely to supplying the butchers, the market was very sluggish, and up to eleven o'clock there were quite a number unsold, and we suppose that about six car loads would have to be taken over to the Central Yards to find purchasers. Prices, compared with last week, are down fully a quarter, and for some grades a half, and it is generally believed that the bottom has not yet been touched. The consumption of fresh meat, as is nearly always the case at this season of the year, is falling off material. are down fully a quarter, and for some changed. season of the year, is falling off materially, as people, generally are buying more fruits and vegetables, and less meat. It is a fact that meat is now the most costly item in market, and it must shrinking in value and there is no réa-son why meat should be an exception. There is no scarcity of Cattle, and all the markets will be flooded within the eral expectation. Of the Cattle on sale to-day, 22 cars from Fort Wayne; 2 from Indianapolis; 5 from Masteld (Ohio;) 1 from Youngs-town; 2 from Liuma, and one each from Bellair, Shreve and Canton. As already intimated, prices are lower come down in price; everything else is shrinking in value and there is no rea-
