Too much rain might produce rust, but of this there is a bare possibility and besides will not be general. As we noted if our last report, the recent advance is doubtless owing mainly to the manipulitions of Chicago speculators, who are tions of Chicago speculators, who are arrying large stocks on which they are majous to realize as quickly as possible nd that, too, at advanced prices. In speaking of this clique, we cannot do so intelligently, as we do not know of whom it is composed, where located, or whether the men who manage it are "bulls" or "bears." That there is such a clique in existence, however, is generally believed, and if it is in any way connected with the manipulators of the Erle railroad, we may expect some huge manipulations in the oil market. The volume of business was again comparatively light to-day, and the market was rather weak, and, compared with Saturday, prices a shade lower.
