FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, June 23, 1869.

The gold market remained firm and very strong at times from 137¼ to 137½. The fact that the Government will sell two millions per month from after July 1st, imparts a firmer feeling to the market and those who sold gold for want of currency, are anxious to cover at present rates, since it is doubtful whether the July interest, owing to European bond holders, will not have to be remitted in gold.

Government bonds were very dull early this morning, but advanced about one-half per cent. and closed strong.

Stocks are firmer since the money market is easy. Nearly all the clique stocks have advanced and the general list is for higher quotations Cleveland is expected to advance sharply and Reading is likely to touch 102. Fort Wayne is uncertain, although its friends do not doubt but that after the ratification of the lease to the Pennsylvania Central a dividend of at least 80 per cent. will be made in stock and cash.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The late advance in cotton goods is fully established, but distribution goes on slowly and as the market is likely to rule quiet for the next thirty days, it may be surmised that prices will go no higher for the present until the fall trade sets in. Heavy sestings steady at 16½@17c for best makes; printing cloths nominally worth 9@9¼c for 7 yards goods, and calicoes range from 12 to 25c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, June 23, 1869.

There is still considerable feeling regard to flour, and wheat, and wh the market is somewhat stronger, the does not seem to be much improveme in the demand. Wheat, owing to a te porary scarcity, is higher, but Flour h undergone but little change, having th far failed to respond to the advance the west, and western flours are bei sold here considerably below what th can be replaced at. PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY June 23, 1869.

The oil market, to use a common ex pression, was a little warm to-day, u der the influence of the advices fro abroad, and, compared with yesterda prices are a shade higher. Antwerp, seems, has advanced to 49 francs, whic tended somewhat to stiffen the feelin which previously prevailed, and, upo the whole, the feeling all around wa stronger than it has been for severa days.

CRUDE.

As already intimated, was firmer and prices advanced from one-fourth to one half a cent. Sale of 1000 June at 14½, 1000 do. at 14¼, and 1000 do. at 14⅜. Yesterday, June oil would not bring over 14 cents, and there were but few offers to buy even at that.
