Compared with yesterday, prices are lower, and at the close it looked as though the bears were in the ascendancy, though as the saying is, it was "nip and tuck," the forces being pretty evenly divided, and it is difficult at times to tell which has the advantage. For several days past, however, the market has been decidedly. "bulifish" as both crude and refined have advanced materially since the early part of yanced materially since the early part of he week, but to-day, as already intimat-3d, the "bears" concentrated their fire, and forced the "bulls" temporarily, it nay he, to beat a retreat.

The biggest thing we have to report ander this heading was the offering to puy 10,000 bbls sellers option all the year, at 14. The offer, we unnerstand, have from parties in Oil City; and no ooner was it made than it was accepted, ome three sr four persons clubbing together to make up the complement. The ellers, however, offered to put up a nargin of a dollar per bbl and demanded he same thing of the buyers and this hey declined, and the sale therefore fell hrough. Subsequently, however, the same parties bought 3,500 bbls without a
