EVENING SHADOWS. Surely the day is done!

The set of sun.

Long fall the shedows from the snowy hills;
Not yet have waked the sleepy listerius; But softer air.
Floats everywhere—
Although the day is done.

Ah. yer! the day is done! And one by one
The ghosts of starlight fits cross the sky:
In-doors, the fire-elves on the carpet lie.
Tired of play,
The children say,
Because the day is done.

We know the day is done!
Unr.feet have run
Unresting in the path; has Duty made,
Aroading on thorow, of danger, not afraid,
And rest is sweet
Though night-hours feet,
And day again comes on.

The day of life is done!
And set the stud!

Eyes dim to intrest lights that earth can show that seedless, though entrancing music flow, And marble brow.
Unwrinkled now;
Indeed the day is done!

But is the day not done!
And est the sun?
hen seas of amber light transfuse the air,
ad Paradisal flowers bloom every where?
U'er purple hills
The sunrise thrils.
Heaten's day is just begun!

MR. Dorsey, of Pawtucket, has pro vided, in his peculiar and eccentric liberality of manner, a fresh entertainment for the convicts of the Connecticut State Prison. The Hartford Post says:

On Saturday, Captain Willard, the Warden, received by express, a basket, containing "five loaves and two small fishes"—a donation for the convicts. On examination, it was found that each of the fish had attached to it an uncut sheet' of greenbacks, amounting to five dollars, and similar sheets were tound in each of the loaves. Across the face of the notes was printed with a brush, in large letters, "bread," and on the back the following ndorsement in letters of bronze: C. Llewel'yn Dorsey, sign painter ('to the King,'") Pawtucket, R. I.—Pharaoh Cloths, Ten Dice Gloths, Sweat Cloths and Roulette spreads always on hand and painted to order. Reference, Squire Sleeper, at the foot of Thirteenth street Revelation City." By the evening mail came a letter purporting to contain "the twelve baskets of fragments taken up, which amounted to a sum sufficient to provide a generous entertainment for the whole of the inmates of the prison. The plan of the donor for the entertainment was somewhat unique, but some modification was deemed proper, and the affair will come off on Thursday afternoon, substantially as designed by Mr. Dorsey. The prisoners will be furnished with an printed the exact resemblance of a watch amply supply of strawberries and a generous collation enlivened with music, and it is designed to make the occasion a pleas-Rochefort, of La Lanterne, with Madame | ant one to all concerned. Judge Williams is no new or untried man. As a Judge of the Court of Allegheny county, his record is one in the highest degree honorable to himself. His character stands enviably high with the bench and bar of the State, and his thoroughly judicial cast of mind befits him for the office to which he has been nominated. It is the same he now fills by appointment of the Governor, made upon the resignation of Judge Strong, and we have heard no objection to his course and conduct on that bench. With the exquisite toilet, a Roman scarf is to be worn as a sash, and the striking effect formed by this combination can be readily imagined. No. 4 is a dress of blue and white striped gauze, with tunie of blue satin, and blue satin corsage, profusely trimmed with white lace. No. 5 is white grenadine to be worn over a whit underskirt. No. 6 is of Metternich green silk, trimmed with white lace. No. 7 is corn-colored silk, en panier, richly orna mented by a deep Brussels lace collar and more dresses. Mademoiselle has hats, fans gloves, shoes, &c., to match each toilet, the expense of the entire outfit exceeding three thousand five hundred dollars.

A Plea for Simple Melodies. Henry Ward Beecher is right upon the music question. He says: "It is no wonder that singing has died out form the congregation, when a choir is put up to recite words that nobody can understand, to music that nobody knows, and the ed opera airs, which, last week, were brought over by a fresh troupe of foreign singers! Aud those sweet melodies, that stafited propriety has long ago driven from the churches, but which have gone forth among the people, and rung out gloriously in camp meetings, shaking the forest leaves with the ascending shouts of a mighty people; or which, more gently, have filled rural school-houses, and humele lecture rooms and village churches not yet corrupted by the false pretences of 'classical music'—those sweet melodies that no one can hear with his ear. and not feel his heart beating within his bosom all the faster from the sound—are become the ridicula and contempt of men who think that God must be praised to the sound of Meyerbeer or Rossini, and not to the sweet and humble melodies of our own land." Postoffice Appointments. F. O. Bowman, Postmaster, Renfield, Clearfield county, Pennsylvania, vice Henry Liphart, abandoned the office. Augustus K. Green, Postmaster a Meadow Gap, Huntingdon county, vice Nathaniel K. Covert, resigned. Adelbert P. Simmons, Postmaster a Phonix, Armstrong county, vice John M. Hosack, resigned. George G. Frazler, Postmaster at Clar-
